

AME Delegation Exchange Views AT Oxford Conf.

The Delegates of our church to the Eighth Ecumenical Methodist Conference, held in Oxford, England, will be filling the columns of our papers with interesting news from that session, for the next few months, I am sure. There were fifty-eight loyal African Methodists there, and they made their impression. Those who attended the Conference were diligent in taking notes, and in their participation. Those who were, as the British say, "On Holiday" will have great tales to tell of the beauties and interesting customs of the places visited. All gathered several times each week at Oxford with those attending the Conference and the fellowship was altogether delightful. We were afforded our "meeting place" by the generosity of Bishop John A. Gregg. The "password" was "Two-thirty" and at that time, coming from discussions at Examination Hall, from luncheon engagements, from shopping and from excursions to nearby places of interest, the African Methodists would be seen enroute to "Tom Three" at Christ College. There, in the spacious sitting room of Bishop Gregg's apartment, each day we came to share our views, to discuss developments taking place in the Conference and to exchange notes on various experiences. We looked forward to these fellowship periods which were enlivened almost each day by the unexpected and pleasant visit of one of the group who was "On Holiday."

Mrs. Roberta Davis Honored By Laymen

There was a lovely testimonial four-course turkey dinner given by the Executive Laymen's Board of the Southern California Conference of which Coley W. Stafford is President. The dinner was given on Labor Day at the Second A.M.E. Church pastored by the Rev. Mr. Jesse L. Glover. The tables were beautifully decorated and the dinner was well-prepared and served by the committee. Serving as waiters were Messrs Mose E. Webb, Joseph Ellis, and Bert Farmer. Our special guests were Mrs. Roberta Davis, her husband, Mr. A. E. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Andrews, Miss Juanita Johnson, Mrs. Runeff Transue, and Mr. C. A. Freeman. Following testimonies to Mrs. Davis, the honoree, she was presented with gifts. Mrs. Davis responded with many thanks of appreciation stating that she would continue to be loyal to the church and the lay organization in San Diego as she had been here in Los Angeles. In connection with the affair, we gave tribute to President Stafford, Mose E. Webb, our delegate, and to Evangelist Lucy Minor who have just returned from our Fifth Episcopal District and Connectional Laymen's Meeting which convened in St. Louis, Missouri on August 1, 1951. Other tributes were given to Mr. Ralph Jones of 1331 West Third Street, Santa Ana, California, who is our newly appointed District Supervisor, and to Mr. B. W. Inghram, who was named Mr. Layman of 1951.

The church was well represented by the several presidents of the various local church leagues. Several ministers looked in on us and gave words of encouragement. The evening was perfect. The benediction was pronounced by Evangelist Cherry Ross. Camille Leftridge, reporter.

Jesus The Carpenter

Charles M. Sheldon

If I could hold within my hand
The hammer Jesus swung,
Not all the gold in all the land,
Nor jewels countless as the sand,
All in the balance flung,
Could weigh the value of that thing
Round which his finger once did cling.

If I could have the table Christ
Once made in Nazareth,
Not all the pearls in all the sea,
Nor crowns of kings or kings to be
As long as men have breath,
Could buy that thing of wood he made;
The Lord of Lords who learned a trade.

Yea, but his hammer still is down
By honest hands that toil,
And round his table men sit down;
And all are equals, with a crown
Nor gold nor pearls can soil;
The shop of Nazareth was bare;
But brotherhood was builded there.

widely known A.M.E. church choir director, singer and organist, became the bride recently of Mr. Freeman L. Martin, veteran St. Louis attorney. Atty. Martin is president of the Missouri conference lay organization.
