THE PEOPLE AT WORSHIP
Scripture — Exodus 24-31; 35; 40
Memory Selection—

Present Day Application
By Frederick D. Jordan
Los Angeles, Calif.

Two fundamental ideas of worship stressed in today's lesson are fellowship with God, and stewardship of life and possessions. One is not possible without the other. If you get a man's attitude toward his possessions, it is not difficult to interpret his attitude toward God. "Our redemption obligates us to our Redeemer." We can meet this obligation only as we honor God through our giving. Bring tithes and offerings to his house — our church; give of your time and talent for his service. To be blessed with material possessions is to owe not to own. It is hard for most of us to learn that we are simply stewards of all we possess. But he is no fool who parts with what he cannot keep in order to secure that which he cannot lose. Fellowship with God means fellowship with man. It means giving, sharing and working as opportunities present themselves for service to others.

Girl One of Six 'Sweethearts' At Great Lakes

GREAT LAKES, Ill.—(ANP)—Miss Imogene Stephens, an attractive Negro girl from Detroit, was among the six winners in the "Sweethearts Beauty Contest," held here last week.

Miss Stephens, along with five white girls, will receive a compact bearing her name, and the following inscription: "RTC Beauty Queen, USNTC, Great Lakes, 1951."

Along The Party Line

By Kathryn M. Lytle
5123 Maple Ave.
St. Louis 13, Missouri

May I come in for a visit? Course I would rather drop in for a chat in your living room but since that is a physical impossibility, this will have to do.

The realization of how very much friends mean to one came to me after we had been in St. Louis, Missouri for several months and then returned to Lincoln for a few days. Just the sight of all the familiar faces and their cheerful welcome warmed my heart. The only disappointing part is that time does not allow seeing all of the folks I would like to. Even the weather turned out to welcome me back. They say I have a bird-sense to have migrated north in time to miss the St. Louis snow.

St. Louis is becoming a bit more familiar of us now and we recognize landmarks. Of course I have separated Missouri directions which in no way coincide with the ones I use in Nebraska. I will try to tell you more of my impressions of St. Louis from time to time.

Joe is working as branch manager for Brandijen & Kluge, Inc., a firm which builds and sells printing presses. He has a sales territory of almost five states with office in St. Louis. There are five salesmen working the territory and he goes out to work with them. It means that he travels a good deal. He enjoys the work very much, and I have gone along on a few of the trips.

Mother Lytle has been quite ill, but is now much improved, for which we are thankful. My sister, Mabel, is also with us. We are living in a large house which was built P.A.P. (Pre Appliance Period) and find that it has inadequate wiring for even the washing machine. This causes a few detours in our planning. We will move into more modern quarters after the first of the year. We are appreciative of finding housing at all on such short notice.

Come to visit me some day on paper or in person. What kind of things would you like to know about St. Louis, etc? I will tell you about our trip to Little Rock, Arkansas next time.

God be with you 'till we meet again.

Kathryn

(Ed. note: Mrs. Lytle and her husband, Joe were former owners of the Lytle Printing Co., at 2021 O St. She served on the board of directors at the Lincoln Urban League.

Entries in the recruit training contest were submitted by the recruits at the training station. A. R. Jeter, Co. 800, submitted a photograph of Miss Stephens.

Miss Stephens is the second colored girl to be elected a "queen" in Illinois recently. Another girl, Miss Clarice Davis, 20 year old native of Chicago, was elected "homecoming Queen" at the University of Illinois.
