Billy Graham Has A Formula
RALEIGH, N. C. — Billy Graham, the evangelist who has carried his crusade for the rebirth of religion coast to coast since World war II, warns Americans: "If our nation is to be spared, we are going to have to become just as fanciful about Christianity as the communists are about communism."

WHEN GIVING BIG PARTIES
One pound of butter will spread 60 sandwiches.
One pound loaf of bread will make 13 slices.
Four-pound chicken will average about four cups of diced meat.
One cup of cream is doubled when whipped.
One pound of coffee makes 50 cups (medium strong).

SPICED TEA
1 tablespoon whole cloves
1 inch stick cinnamon
3 quarts water
Juice of 3 oranges
Juice of 1 1/2 lemons
1 cup sugar
2 1/2 tablespoons black tea

Tie spices into bag and boil in water. Add tea and steep for five minutes and strain. Heat fruit juices and sugar and add to tea. Serves 25.

ENGLISH TRIFLE
Ever here of English Trifle? It's really spongecake at a fancy dress party. But for a dessert it's something. Now to make it the American way. First, have small, thin slices of spongecake. Put a layer in a shallow serving dish. All done, it should be about an inch and a half deep.
Chapter 2: Saturate the cake generously with strong, heavily sweetened coffee, flavored with vanilla—but DON'T POUR it on. Add a thick layer of vanilla-flavored boiled custard. Keep going and have the cake slices on top. Cover with wax paper and let chill in the refrigerator. When ready to serve, heap it with whipped cream and garnish with crystallized preserved cherries cut into pieces.
Well, to get down to earth, take a can of peas and drain them so they are pretty dry. Chop a slice or two of bacon very fine, and add to the peas. Put in a frying pan and cook the peas and bacon together until the peas are puckered and the bacon done. Season and serve. I'm on familiar ground now.
Got one for you on the subject of—guess what? CORN-MEAL MUSH! Yes, the old familiar corn-meal mush with an Italian background. Make corn-meal mush quite thick. Spread a layer in a casserole. Add bits of butter or margarine and a layer of Parmesan cheese. Add some very hot spaghetti meat sauce.
Continue, now, with layers of mush, butter or margarine. Add cheese and sauce until you come to the top, which will be the bits of butter and—generously—the cheese. Brown in the oven—about 400 degrees F.
Next week something different. Will all ministers' wives reading my column this week share your favorite recipe with us? Send it to Mrs. Odessa Johnson, 1310 A st.
