Teen Age Chatter

By Mattie Sue Nevels

Beatrice Napue spent New Year's vacation in Omaha with her parents.

John—"Don't you think I'm rather good looking?"

Jane—"In a way."

John—"What kind of a way?"

Jane—"Away off."

Suitor—"May I marry your daughter?"

Stern Father—"What is your vacation?"

Suitor—"I'm an actor."

Stern Father (angrily): Then get out before the foot lights.

What time is it when the clock strikes thirteen?

Time the clock was repaired.

TEEN OF THE WEEK

This week I have interviewed Beatrice Napue, 14-year-old daughter of Mrs. Gertrude Smith. Bea as she is known to her friends is a ninth grade student at Whit-tier Junior high. When asked about some of her favorites she listed them as follows:

Favorite sport—Baseball

Favorite record—"Cry"

Favorite dish—Chili

Favorite study—Music

Bea's pet peeve is doing dishes and her hobby is dancing.

Next week we will have a question to ask you teens. "At what age do you think teen-agers should be allowed to date?" Be thinking over your answers.

Until Next Week,

Dress Up Your Spinach

Creamed spinach is a new dish when you add a little chopped mint and a dash of nutmeg. Some cooks say always add nutmeg to spinach no matter how you cook it.

Raw spinach with crisp bacon, tossed in a good sharp French dressing is one of the best salads you could imagine.

Spinach Shepherd Pie

8 medium white potatoes
1 medium onion
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
2 teaspoons salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
3/4 cup milk
2 lbs. fresh or frozen spinach
1 can condensed cream of celery soup
1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
1/2 lb. sharp American cheddar cheese

Boil potatoes with onion. Then mash both potatoes and onion as you usually do, adding butter, salt, pepper and milk. Beat until fluffy. Cook the spinach with a dash of salt, covered, without water, 3 minutes. Drain thoroughly and chop fine. Heat celery soup, undiluted, over a low flame. Stir in nutmeg, then chopped spinach. Put a layer of mashed potatoes on the bottom of a greased casserole, then add all the spinach mixture. Cut up the cheese in good broad strips and place on top of spinach, spoke fashion. Line inside rim of casserole with rest of potatoes, fluffing them up with a fork. Slide casserole under broiler to melt and brown cheese. Plenty for six people.

Boiled Tongue

3 1/2 to 4 lb. smoked tongue
3 large clove garlic
1/2 cup vinegar
2 tablespoons brown sugar
