Sunday School Lesson

MATTHEW BECOMES A FOLLOWER

Scripture — Matthew 9:9-17, Luke 5:27-39.

Memory Selection—Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick; I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance. Luke 5:31, 32.

PRESENT-DAY APPLICATION

By Frederick D. Jordan
Los Angeles, Calif.

Have you heard it said that the Disciples were all poor and unlearned men? Matthew was neither. Jesus indeed was no respecter of persons, for He called all types of men into His service; the rich and the poor, the learned and the ignorant. Each had a special contribution to make. Another fact in the choosing of Matthew is that this man unpopular in the community. Just because a person is not in your circle of friends, or because he is of a different racial group does not exclude him from the love of Jesus. Some times in our churches we who have been in a few years longer than others, refuse to recognize their leadership ability. We all may be followers of Jesus, and may exclude none from our fellowship who have answered His call.

'Too Young' Top Tune of '51

NEW YORK—(ANP) — When 1951 bowed out "Nat" King Cole's recording of "Too Young" finished a strong first with Tony Bennett's "Because of You," a late starter, finishing second, stated Billboard's annual ten top tunes of the year survey.

Negro Sworn In as Asst. D.A. In New York

NEW YORK — (ANP) — With Associate Judge Charles Frossell of the New York State Court of Appeals administering the oath of office New Year's Day, William T. Garvin of Jamaica, became the new assistant District Attorney for the Borough of Queens, the second Negro to hold this position.

Garvin was sworn in last Friday at the County Court House in Long Island City, but this public ceremony, following accepted customs, was witnessed by the new official's wife and friends. It marked his actual taking over the duties of his office.

The new assistant district attorney is married and lives at 164-11 110th avenue, Jamaica. He is well known in Harlem where he practiced law a number of years following his graduation from Fordham and St. John College Law School.

Garvin came to New York City in 1921, and six years later moved to Jamaica where he has been active in community improvement and politics. As leader of the Pontier Democratic Club, a regular Democratic organization, he was instrumental in affecting the election of a Democratic district attorney in spite of a Republican landslide in the election of a borough president.

A Presbyterian, Garvin is president of the South Jamaica Advisory Council member of the Knights of Pythias, the Elks, the New York Bar association and the Harlem Bar association.

Yellow Cab Company to Hire Negro Drivers

CHICAGO — (ANP) — Another battle in the war to open up better job opportunities for Negroes appeared to be won when the Yellow Cab company of Chicago announced that applications now would be accepted from colored men for jobs as cab drivers.

In a special release issued last week, the company pointed out that cab drivers work on a straight commission basis and may earn up to $100 per week. This step by the Yellow Cab company marked the first time that Negroes have been considered and offers a new field of employment for them.
