Delete 'Negro' in National Council Of Veterans' Name at Convention

At the national convention of the group formerly known as National Council of Negro Veterans which closed Sunday at Yates branch Y.W.C.A., it was announced that the name had been changed to National Council of War Veterans, Inc.

Officers elected were Nat F. Johnson national commander, Kansas City, Kas.; L. H. Murphy, first vice commander, Birmingham, Ala.; Charles C. Tolston, second vice commander, Kansas City, Kas.; B. H. Muldrew, national adjutant, Kansas City, Mo.; K. C. Creighton, Sr., national chaplain, Kansas City, Kas.

Vernon C. Coffey, judge advocate, Kansas City, Kas.; E. McDaniel, treasurer, Kansas City, Kas.; James A. Beard, sergeant-at-arms, Kansas City, Mo.; William H. Clark, historian, Kansas City, Kas.; U.N.W. Mathis, service officer and William Jordan, national organizer, Kansas City, Kas.

The memorial service was held Sunday afternoon. It was in charge of Commander Johnson who was assisted by Messrs. B. H. Muldrew and Chaplain Creighton.

J. Monroe Pindexter sang "I Want to Do Something for Somebody." "Remember Me" and "Well Done" were rendered by Mrs. Rudina Strong, director of the St. Luke A.M.E. choir.

Memorialized were Homer C.

Scates, Mack C. Spears of Kansas City, Kas., and James H. Clay of Birmingham, Ala., who died since the last convention.

Mrs. Charleszene Spears and Mrs. Scates were present at the service.

A ladies auxiliary was formed by Commander Johnson. Sunflower Council is the K.C.K. unit and Heart of America Council for Kansas City, Mo.

National officers are Mrs. Ruth M. Gordon, president, Kansas City, Mo.; Mrs. Florence E. Walker, vice president, Kansas City, Kas.; Mrs. Nora M. Beard, secretary; Mrs. Lyda M. Muldrew, treasurer, Kansas City, Mo.; Mrs. Curley McDaniel, chaplain, Kansas City, Kas.

Mrs. Ruby Taylor, judge-advocate; Mrs. Dorothy Nichols, historian of Kansas City, Kas.

Other officers will be elected at a later date.

The women's body held an installation party Monday, Dec. 3, at the home of Mrs. Gordon. Installation ceremonies were conducted by Commander Johnson.

The national head predicts a great year for the organization in membership and development of leadership. Mr. Johnson said he expected great things from the newly-organized women's group.

Next place of meeting will be determined at a later meeting of the national board of directors.

Install Officers of Ladies Auxiliary To National Council of War Veterans

Several members of the National Council of War Veterans and ladies auxiliary spent an enjoyable evening in the apartment of Mrs. Ruth M. Gordon Dec. 7 where national officers of the ladies department were installed.

An encouraging talk and prayer were given by K. C. Creighton, national chaplain. B. H. Muldrew, national adjutant, made a talk on the objectives and many trials of the organization from the time it was known as National Council of Negro Veterans to the present day.

Nat F. Johnson, national commander then installed the following ladies auxiliary: Mrs. Ruth M. Gordon, president, Kansas City, Mo.; Mrs. Florence E. Walker, vice president, Kansas City, Kas.; Mrs. Nora M. Beard, secretary, Kansas City, Mo.; Mrs. Lida Muldrew, treasurer, Kansas City, Mo.; Mrs. Pearl McDaniel, chaplain, Kansas City, Kas.

Mrs. Dorothy Nichols, historian, and Mrs. Ruby Taylor, judge advocate, the latter two of Kansas City, Kas. Mrs. McDaniel, Mrs. Nichols and Mrs. Taylor were absent due to sickness, previous commitments. Serving as proxies for these officers were Mrs. Della Stevens, Mrs. Jessie Little and Mrs. Arzalia Burleigh.

A corsage was presented to Mrs. Muldrew on behalf of Mrs.

Muldrew on behalf of the national board of directors as a token of appreciation for service rendered while president of the ladies auxiliary of the former Council of Negro Veterans.

To Mrs. Ruth Gordon, head of the women's division of the new organization was given a corsage as a token of confidence as well as a pledge of co-operation from the council board of directors. Other officers received boutonnieres of red carnations.

Mrs. Gordon and Mrs. Muldrew in response expressed gratitude for the honors bestowed upon them and pledged their co-operation anew.

The group was told by Commander Johnson that the council would lose the valuable services of James A. Beard, national sergeant-at-arms and Mrs. Beard, national secretary, auxiliary) who will soon leave for Seattle, Wash., to make their home. He stated, however, that the couple would be authorized to form a council and auxiliary in that city where the national body looks forward to holding its next convention.

Mrs. Beard said that she would carry on for the movement in her new home.

The guests had their choice of turkey and other meats in the full scale meal that was served. This portion of the affair was in charge

Like rice? Try it this way for a change.

Chartreuse Rice Mold

- 2 cups ground raw beef
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 4 teaspoon pepper
- 1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
- 1/2 teaspoon thyme
- 1 egg
- 2 tablespoons chopped onion
- 3/4 cup soft bread crumbs
- 1/2 cup bouillon
- 1 tablespoon chopped parsley
- 3/4 cups cooked rice

Mix beef, salt, pepper, nutmeg and thyme in a bowl. Add egg, onion and bread crumbs. Pour bouillon over this and mix. Oil a medium size bowl. Mix parsley into rice and pat sides and bottom with rice mixture (it really does stick to the sides of mold). Pack center with seasoned beef and spread remaining rice on top. Cover mold tightly with lid or wax paper. Set on a rack in pan with 1 inch of water on bottom. Cover pan and steam 40 minutes (we used a roasting pan). Unmold and serve with hot tomato or mushroom sauce. This dish is handsome enough for your best party menus. Serves 6.

Rice Pancakes

- 2 eggs
- 1 cup milk
- 2 tablespoons melted shortening
- 1 1/2 cups cooked rice
- 1 cup sifted flour
- 2 teaspoons baking powder
- 1/2 teaspoon salt

Beat eggs slightly in a medium-size bowl. Add milk, shortening and rice. Sift flour, baking powder and salt. Stir rice mixture a little at a time. Fry on a hot griddle (this makes 25 three-inch pancakes). Serve with heated syrup or honey, so as not to cool off your cakes.

Fried Rice With Shrimp

- 3 tablespoons salad oil
- 2 eggs
- 1 lb. fresh shrimp
- 1/2 cup diced onion
- 1/2 cup mushrooms sliced
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 4 cups cold cooked rice
- 2 tablespoons soy sauce
- 1/2 teaspoon sugar

Heat oil in skillet and fry eggs until firm. Cut into shreds (save half the shredded eggs for garnish). Put shrimp, onion, mushrooms and salt in frying pan. Cook over medium heat for 5 minutes, stirring constantly. Add rice, soy sauce, sugar and cook until the rice is heated. Sprinkle remaining shredded egg over this tasty dish. Serve straight from the skillet piping hot.

Rice and Apricot Pudding

- 18 cooked or canned apricots
- 3 eggs
- 3 1/2 cups cooked rice
- 2 teaspoons melted butter
- 2 tablespoons lemon juice
- 1 tablespoon grated lemon rind
- 1/2 cup honey
- 1 1/2 cups milk
- nutmeg

Set oven at 350° F., or moderate. Mash apricots with a fork. Cover the bottoms of 10 individual baking dishes with apricot pulp. Beat eggs until frothy, add rice, butter, lemon juice and lemon rind. Now stir in honey and milk. Pour rice mixture over apricots and sprinkle with nutmeg. Set dishes in a shallow pan one-fourth full of hot water. Bake one hour.
