Editor's Note.—Following is an article that I clipped from The Little Merchant, published monthly by The Lincoln Journal. It was written by Street Sales Manager, Bob Patton, and sent to us through the courtesy of Mr. Fred Seacrest.

Joe Moore has been selected as top street salesman for the month. Joe is very deserving of this honor; he works very hard and gets the job done. He is a fine young man, the kind I really enjoy working with. Joe is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Moore of 1204 Z Huskerville. He is in the fifth grade at Hayward school. His hobby is sports and I can attest to this because he loves to talk about it. Joe sells papers at 13th and N (Sears Building corner). He earns close to one dollar for the time he sells each day and he has a savings account at the bank. We are very proud of Joe. We know he has a fine future ported seriously ill.

Other hospital patients are: Mr. George Saunders, St. Elizabeth; Mr. Louis Reynolds, Veterans hospital; John Davis, Veterans hospital.

Miss Birdie Powell and Gilbert Hubbard, jr., were released and are recuperating at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Moore were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wadkins recently. The Moores are from Casper, Wyo.

Our two basketball teams journeyed to Omaha on Saturday to play. Unfortunately I cannot report that both teams won but I can say both games were very good. The Half-Century club lost to Omaha 45-25, but The Sharp-Sharks won 40-39.
