Brooklyn Stages Stirring Memorial For Bomb Victims

BY RICHARD A. JACKSON
BROOKLYN (ANP)—More than 3,500 persons attended the memorial services for the Florida civil rights martyrs, Mr. and Mrs. Harry T. Moore, last week at Concord Baptist church. A sum of $1,852.30 was collected for the Harry Moore Fund of the NAACP to fight injustices.

A resolution was adopted calling on President Truman and Attorney General J. Howard McGrath to use all the power of their offices to stamp out terrorism in the South and bring to justice those responsible for the deaths of the two Mims, Fla., loyal Americans.

Dr. Gardner C. Taylor, pastor of Concord Baptist church, in his memorial sermon called upon all minority groups to unite their forces to save American honor and democracy from bigotry and race hate which is threatening its world leadership.

Judge Hubert Delaney called

THE DECISION OF THE TWO RICH MEN

Scripture — Luke 18:18-30; 19:1-10.

MEMORY SELECTION—Enter by the narrow gate; for the gate is wide and the way is easy, that leads to destruction, and those who enter by it are many. For the gate is narrow and the way is hard that leads to life, and those who find it are few. Matthew 7:13,14. RVS.

PRELIMINARY DAY APPLICATION By Frederick D. Jordan Los Angeles, Calif

Christ challenges us today! Our discipleship is tested by our attitude toward our money, our career, our popularity. Material things can prove a hindrance or a help in our Christian life. Our stewardship of our possessions will indicate clearly our faith in God; and just as clearly will show where our heart is. The man that has nothing to give for the poor, that has only a mere pittance (a token offering) for the Church, is laying up his treasures where moth and dust will corrupt and thieves break through and steal. The man who is willing to sacrifice everything for his career, his profession, or who will go to any length to secure popularity is making of them his idols. If, on the other hand, he gives his tithes to the Lord, and a free-will offering to the poor, if he uses his profession to the glory of God, if he seeks not to be popular but to serve mankind, he will not be able to contain his blessings.

Mississippi Daily Prints Paul Lawrence Dunbar Christmas Poem

JACKSON, Miss. (ANP). Paul Lawrence the poet laureate of Negro America, was honored recently in Jackson, Miss.

A Christmas poem by the poet, whose name will arouse many nostalgic memories in the mind of members of another generation, was published in the Jackson Daily News, a daily newspaper, which has not been too liberal in its handling of Negro news. "Christmas Eve," the title of the poem is written in the humorous dialogue which made Dunbar famous.

Dunbar reached his greatest recognition as a poet around the turn of the 20th century. Among his major works were "Oak and Ivy," and "Mahors and Minors."

upon Negroes to discard timidity and gradualism and launch a courageous fight for the rights guaranteed them by the constitution.

The meeting was presided over by Atty. Louis J. Flagg, Jr. It was sponsored by the Brooklyn Branch of the NAACP, James A. Powers, president, in collaboration with many other church and civic groups representing many nationalities.

Along The Party Line

Have you ever felt like you were suspended in time—knowing that the decisions of the next few days would decide your immediate and perhaps your entire future? That seems to be our situation right at the moment. Our new home is just finished and ready to move into but—and here lies the problem. We have a lease on the house we are living in and although the landlord state verbally that he would cancel the lease if we weren't planning to buy this house, now he has done an about face and says "no!" So at present we have two houses. Anyone planning to move to St. Louis? Then to add to our confusion, Joe is just a bit undecided as to the future in his present job. The material and labor shortage is making it most difficult and unsettled. I'll let you know as soon as we land, which side of the fence we are on and which house we are living in.

Politics are bubbling along very merrily around these parts. We are hearing new names and there are new issues upon which opinions must be formed.

I had a nice chat with Mrs. Joe Green the other day. She is the sister-in-law of Mrs. Shake-speare and does not live far from us. Their daughter was graduating the next night and so they were busy with preparations for that important event. There are several other friends and relatives of Lincoln folks that we hope to contact before long. (If some of you get around to it first, our phone is Ro. 6865).

The man who starts out to borrow trouble, finds that his credit is always good.

Your friend,
Kathryn.

DEATHS

George Saunders Dies; Lincolnite 69 Years

George W. Saunders, 82, of 2226 R street, a resident of Lincoln for 69 years, died Tuesday.

Mr. Saunders came to Lincoln from Sterling, Ill., and was employed as cook at the Burlington Depot Cafe for more than 30 years, retiring in 1937. He was a member of the Newman Methodist church here.

Surviving are his wife, Mattie; three daughters, Mrs. Lowell Davis and Mrs. Corine Neal, both of Lincoln, and Mrs. Eltra Crews of California; two step-daughters, Mrs. Marvin Winston of Lincoln, and Mrs. Ruth Hill of Cleveland, Ohio; a step-son, William Sportsman of Seattle, Wash.; and two sisters, Mrs. Bertha Johnson of Los Angeles and Mrs. Grace Levells of Madison, Wis.; seven grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

Funeral service was held at Newman Methodist church on Saturday, the Rev. R. G. Nathan officiating.

Dallas Football Team To Keep Negro Players

DALLAS, Tex. (ANP) — The Texas Football Rangers of Dallas, the pro football club replacing the New York Yanks, will keep their Negro players, it was announced last week by the new club owners. Gito Miller and associates.

A group of wealthy Texans bought the club from Ted Collins who had lost more than $1,500,000 in operating the Yanks and other pro clubs.

Stars of the Yanks were three Negro backfield acer — Claude (Buddy) Young, George Taliaferro, and Sherman Howard. When the club was moved to Texas there was much speculation as to whether or not it would keep the colored stars.

Rumors had Young going to the Chicago Cardinals. He is one of Chicago's all time great prep players. Taliaferro was said to be coming to Chicago Bears who drafted him, but lost him to old All America conference. Nothing had been said about where Howard would go.

Next job for the new club owners will be the selection of a coach.

NAACP to Distribute 10,000 Petitions During Texas Meeting

DALLAS, Tex.—(ANP)—Some 10,000 petitions will be distributed by the Planning Committee of the NAACP for the state-wide Civil Rights mobilization meeting to be held here Feb. 10.

The petitions will denounce the recent outbreak of bombings in Florida, and call on signers to contribute to the fight to prosecute those persons responsible for the bombings. They will be sent to Atty. General McGrath in Washington.
