Teen Age Chatter

By Mattie Sue Nevels

Hello again!

For this week's teen I have selected Virgil Napue, 16-year-old son of Mrs. Gertrude Smith. Virgil is a 10th grader at Lincoln High school. Some of his favorites are:

- Sport basketball
- Record Flamingo
- Hobby dancing
- Subject Math
- Dish Macaroni and cheese
- Pet Peeve dishes

Best dressed girl of the week . . . Beverly Holcomb
Best dressed boy of the week . . . Phil Whiteman

Following are the answers I have secured for the question, "Do you think ages of persons attending parties should be mixed, like junior high students mixing with high school and college students?"

Beatrice Napue . . . Yes, if college students are not over twenty-one.

Rosalie Nevels . . . Junior high and high school is all right, but not college.

Betty Bradley . . . Yes, if college students are not over twenty-one.

Beverly Brown . . . Yes, it gives them a chance to become more socially adjusted.

Barbara Qualls . . . Yes, providing the age groups are not too far apart.

My impression of an Ideal Girl: She would have to have the following features:

- Hair like Beverly Brown
- Eyes like Marilyn Bowen
- Lips like Beatrice Napue
- Clothes like Beverly Holcomb
- Feet and hands like Mary Scott
- Nose like Shirley Cason

Bye Now,
Mattie Sue
