JESUS AND THE LAW
Scripture . . . Matthew 5:17-20; Mark 10:17-22; Luke 16:16-17; John 1:17.
Memory Selection . . . The Law was given through Moses: grace and truth came through Jesus Christ. John 1:17.
Present-Day Application
By Frederick D. Jordan
Los Angeles, Calif.
 Every Christian should know from memory the classic laws of the Bible which are the subject of our studies for the rest of this quarter. We will study them individually in the light of Jesus' attitude toward them. His interpretation is our guide as Christians. Jesus sought to give the law everyday meaning for us in terms that all could understand. He had reverence for all the basic moral laws, but emphasized the need of going beyond "the letter." Jesus' teaching of love is paramount, it is the same that was given in the Old Testament when the plan of salvation was first outlined. Getting right with God, the change in the heart, first, is necessary. We are not saved simply by the adherence to a law. This point Jesus stressed many times. Our Methodist belief is firm in the doctrine of grace, grace which cannot be acquired by obedience to law.
 (Ed. Note—Friends of the Jordan for Bishop Movement are using Friday, April 25th, as a Day of Prayer for the success of their cause. Meetings are being arranged quietly in several cities.)

Campus Round-Up

By ANP
 Negro schools lose only 3 per cent while white schools lose 8 per cent enrollment in Negro institutions declined only 3 per cent last fall as compared to 8 per cent for other colleges and universities.
 That fact was revealed in a report by Dr. Martin D. Jenkins, president of Morgan State college, in his annual survey. — "Current Trends and Events of National Importance in Negro Education" — in the Journal of Negro Education.
 Some 107 schools reported a totaled enrollment of 60,801 for the fall term of 1951-52. The reported decline probably would have been greater, Dr. Jenkins said, had it not been for an increase in the enrollment of women while male enrollment showed a marked drop.
 Historically, women students have constituted about 60 per cent of the total enrollment in Negro colleges and universities, an almost exact reversal of the situation in American institutions generally.
 Of the total undergraduate enrollment reported, there are 35,541 males and 34,260 females. Publicly-controlled institutions account for 55.8 per cent of the total, or 33,921, while private schools have 44.2 per cent or 26,880.
 As to the size of institutions reporting, Howard university is the largest with an enrollment of 3,761 students. The median institution has an enrollment of 475 students. The following table gives a fuller picture of this situation:

ENROLLMENT	NUMBER OF INSTITUTIONS
2,000 and over	7
1,500-1,999	3
1,000-1,499	7
500-999	32
250-499	26
100-249	14
1-99	18

Study did not include the non-segregated colleges and universities in northern states.
 Despite an acute shortage of some 60,000 registered nurses, there was a drop of 5.7 per cent in the number of young women entering nursing schools in 1951 as compared to 1950, the American Hospital association reported recently. . .
 The Northwestern Institute of Foot Surgery & Chiropractic, Chicago, is one of few schools of its kind to admit Negroes without restrictions. About 40 per cent of its students are colored.

The hour from six to seven p. m. is the most dangerous of the day or night in traffic.

Ninety-seven per cent of drivers involved in 1951 auto accidents had at least one year of experience behind the wheel.

Saturday is the most dangerous day of the week in traffic.
