Doctors Cite Big Work Of Priest for Negroes

Birmingham, Ala. — A citation for his outstanding work in raising the living standards of the Negro people was presented here to the Rev. Harold Purcell, 71, the founder and director of the City of St. Jude for Negroes in Montgomery. The award was made at the 40th annual meeting of the John A. Andrew Clinical society, an association of doctors working among both Negroes and Whites.

Father Purcell, who founded Sign magazine in 1921, was editor of that magazine until 1934, when he resigned to devote himself to the Negro apostolate. Since that time he has built up in Montgomery the Negro community known as the City of St. Jude, which now has a church, grade and high schools, and a new $1,500,000 general hospital. With the exception of a federal grant for the hospital, all the projects were paid for with the private funds raised by Father Purcell.

Last year, 37,100 Americans were killed in traffic accidents.

Christ's Standard of Moral Purity
 Scripture—Exodus 20:14; Matthew 5:8, 13-16, 27-32; Mark 10:2-12; Luke 2:40.

Memory Selection—Thou shalt not commit adultery. Exodus 20:14.

By Frederick D. Jordan

Immorality is one of the many forms of impurity having their location in the heart, rather than in the flesh as many suppose. We cannot measure up to God's standard without a reverent and purified heart. If there is an absence of moral principle, an individual may be a slave to his senses. Diseased bodies, lunacy and spiritual blindness are testimonies in every generation against adultery. The mutual love which brings a man and woman together into a union is in keeping with the idea of God and the requirements of nature. Whoever ignores this union, whoever breaks it and whoever invades it, is to be regarded as a criminal. The design of creation is still the same—one man for one woman. Two become one when a marriage has taken place. Society has come to consider them as belonging together, they have pooled their interests and should have a mutual regard for each other's being. Marriage is not a mere expedient, as the number of divorces today would indicate, but it raises passion to the level of love. In listing the works of the flesh which are manifest. Paul includes adultery, and adds that those who do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God. Clean thinking means clean living. Purity of heart and purity of life are closely related.

Willie Mays a 'Quiet' Subject With N.Y. Giants

NEW YORK (ANP)—Nobody talks about Willie Mays' status these days. He is now slated for induction May 29.

The Giants were crossing their fingers hoping that the quota from Draft Board 5, here in New York to which sensation Say-hoy Willie's papers were transferred stay over quota for the next six months. Willie was slated to go into the Army on May 16, but a delay in transferring his papers by the Alabama Selective service local board at Birmingham held up his induction.

Under the Selective Service Law, once a man has been certified for induction, he must go into the Army. That makes any out for Willie impossible, but his actual induction might be delayed sufficiently for the return of Monte Irvin to fill the bill. Irvin, who discarded his crutches two weeks ago, recently moved into a new home in Orange, N. J.

OPS Explains Potato Shortage

The current potato shortage was caused by removal of price supports and a poor 1951 crop, rather than by OPS ceilings, according to a statement made today by D. M. Osborne, OPS price executive for the Nebraska district.

Mr. Osborne pointed out that the shortage of potatoes existed before OPS ceilings were imposed.

"It was the threatened shortage that caused the price to rise and that in turn made ceilings necessary," he explained. "The supply of potatoes now on hand was determined during the 1951 planting season. Obviously, any OPS action in 1952 could neither add to nor subtract from potato stocks. When price supports ended with the 1950 crop, growers cut 1951 acreage to reduce production below record crops harvested under the support program. Bad weather also played a part in some areas in reducing the size and quality of the crop."

"It is evident," he added, "that in view of the current short supply, potato prices would be considerably higher if OPS had not imposed ceilings."

In connection with Mr. Osborne's statement, W. W. Keenan, district enforcement director for OPS, said that intensive investigations are now being made among potato dealers in Nebraska. Several reports of violations have already been submitted to the Department of Justice, with requests for injunctive action, treble damages and criminal sanctions.
