

Social Briefs

Mr. and Mrs. Edward G. Craft returned recently from a trip to the Kentucky Derby. The two week trip took them to a number of eastern cities and into Canada.

Away from Lincoln for the past month were Mr. and Mrs. Clayton P. Lewis. After spending two weeks at the General Conference of the AME Church in Chicago, their motor trip extended to New York City and other points enroute.

The Rev. J. B. Brooks, also in attendance at the conference in Chicago arrived home on Wednesday.

Dinner guests of Rev. and Mrs. M. L. Shakespeare on Tuesday were Mrs. Kathryn Lytle of St. Louis, Mo., a former board member of the Lincoln Urban League, and Lynnwood Parker, executive secretary of the Urban League. Other guests of the Shakespeare's on Friday, were the Rev. and Mrs. R. J. Paul of San Francisco, Calif., and Mrs. Ann E. Davis of Colorado Springs, Colo. Mrs. Davis, wife of the Rev. H. M. Davis, presiding elder of the Colorado Conference of the AME Church, is an accomplished pianist and concert singer. Mrs. Davis and the Pauls were enroute home after attending the General Conference in Chicago.

The Ministers Wives Council will be held Thursday with Mrs. J. B. Brooks as hostess. The president, Mrs. Sarah A. Monroe, wife of the Rev. William I. Monroe, will be present and preside at the 1 o'clock luncheon after an absence of several months during which time she visited in California.

Mrs. Charles Williams, wife of the Rev. Charles Williams, has returned from New York City where she attended the National Women's Missionary Society of the Church of God. Other representatives returning were her sister, Mrs. Mae Will Ghappel and Mrs. Basalia Bell.

Mrs. Corena Williams was reported much improved at St. Elizabeth hospital.

A lovely Mother's Day banquet given at the Urban League honoring Mothers Friday evening was sponsored by the Calendar Club, of which Mrs. R. G. Huston is president. As Mistress of ceremonies, Miss Frances Lewis introduced Mrs. Betty Woods who extended a welcome to Mothers. Mrs. Carl Finley gave a response. Other participants were Betty Wilson, Shirley Cason, Charles Bonds, Mrs. J. B. Brooks, and Jackie Lintz, Mrs. J. C. Wilson and Alfred Atkins were the accompanists. Mrs. Estes was presented with a gift honoring her being the eldest Mother present.

Mr. and Mrs. Burman Williams of Hackensack, New Jersey spent the week in the city guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. Eugene Edwards. Mrs. Williams, well known here as Josephine Watts, is the sister of Mrs. Edwards. She is employed as Medical Technologist at Columbia Presbyterian Medical Center Hospital in New York City, N. Y. the largest hospital of it's kind. Mr. Williams now entering his ninth year as policeman of Hackensack, also works in the Bureau of Criminology and Detective Bureau.

The Williams were honored with coffee at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. M. Copeland Friday at 11 a.m. They were also the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wyatt Williams at a 6 p.m. dinner at the Urban League Friday evening. They spent Saturday in Omaha visiting relatives and left for home Sunday night.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Edwards on Sunday was Mrs. Edwards brother, U. S. Watts and his daughter, Majorie and son, Carl of Fremont, Rev. and Mrs. A. Newton of Beatrice also spent the day with them.

Mrs. Shakespeare Heads Y Committee

KANSAS CITY, Mo.—The committee of management of Paseo branch YWCA met Monday evening at the branch and elected the following officers: Mrs. Dan Shakespeare, chairman; Mrs. A. L. Campbell, first vice chairman; Mrs. Dowdal H. Davis, second vice chairman; Mrs. Cernelia Beverly, secretary; Mrs. Margaret Roy, assistant secretary.
