National Council of War Vets, Inc.

Nat F. Johnson, National Commander,
Kansas City, Kansas

EDITOR'S NOTE: Ex-servicemen and women are vitally interested in the benefits their Government offers them through Veterans Administration and they are asking thousands of questions daily. The following questions pertain only to veterans' benefits enacted by Congress.

Quick action to prevent any delays in providing education or training for veterans under the new Korean GI Bill was taken by Carl R. Gray, Jr., Administrator of Veterans Affairs.

Mr. Gray announced he has formally requested the nation's 48 state governors to appoint agencies within their states to handle approval of schools and business establishments for training eligible veterans. Mr. Ashley Westmoreland, Manager of the Veterans Administration Regional Office, Lincoln, was notified today.

The new law specifies that schools and training establishments must have state approval before they may offer training to veterans who served since the outbreak of Korean hostilities. This requirement also was a part of the original GI Bill for World War II veterans.

Mr. Gray requested "early receipt" of the lists of state approving agencies, so that the Veterans Administration can start handling veterans' applications before August 20—the date the new training program goes into effect.

He suggested to the governors that the same approving agency may be designated for the Korean GI Bill that already has been doing the job under the earlier World War II Act. He pointed out that a state may have either one agency to handle all types of approvals, or separate agencies to approve various types of training—classroom, on-the-farm, apprenticeship, or on-the-job.

The governors were reminded that the law allows VA to reimburse state approving agencies "for reasonable and necessary expenses of salary and travel incurred in rendering necessary services under this Act." Once an approving agency is appointed, he said, it will be sent a contract proposal for reimbursement of expenses.

He emphasized that approval granted to schools and training establishments under the original World War II GI Bill does not carry over for training under the new Korean Act. Schools and establishments must be re-inspected and re-approved for Korean GI Bill training, since in many cases they must meet different standards than those required under the earlier law.

To make certain that Post-Korean veterans will be able to enroll in training without delay, Mr. Gray urged the states to approve first those schools which are accredited, since they do not demand extensive investigation.

The new Korean GI Bill provides up to 36 months of training to veterans who were on active duty on or after June 27, 1950—the date of the outbreak of fighting in Korea—regardless of where they served. While in training, they may receive an allowance from the government to cover part of their expenses.

No allowance may be paid for any training taken prior to August 20, the law states.

Radio Station Switches Policy; Goes All-Negro

MIAMI (ANP)—Radio station WFEC has instituted a new policy here. It has switched to all Negro programming, stated Herb Schoor, general manager of the station.

Since its opening in April, 1949, WFEC has carried a general program schedule, with heavy emphasis on a three-hour disc-jockey program known as the Ebony Express. The success of this program made the station a solid factor with the 85,000 Negro listeners in this greater Miami area.

Staff additions were recently made to include Negro talent and beam the station strictly to Negro audiences. A great majority of time, however, will continue to be devoted to the existing news and Hors d'Oeuvre in French means "outside of the work." The first hors d'oeuvre was created in Paris just before the French Revolution. Restaurants were being established and waiters received no salaries. They lived on tips. To augment their pay they music format, with emphasis on Negro orchestras and artists.
