DELTA SIGMA THETA AWARD 11 SCHOLARSHIPS FOR 1952-53 SCHOOL YEAR—When school opens next month, 11 young women will attend college through scholarship awards announced by Delta Sigma Theta sorority for the 1952-53 school year. Nine of the women will attend graduate schools, and two will enter their freshman year in college.

A special awards committee selected the scholarship winners, all rated very highly not only in the classroom, but also in civic and extra-curricula activities. Mrs. Reber S. Cann of Cincinnati, O., is the grand secretary of the Deltas, and Dorothy I. Height, New York City, is national president.

sity; Miss Eloise Avonne Jones, Langston, Okla., School of Social Work at Boston university; Miss Mary Jane Jenkins, Buffalo, N. Y., College of Education at Columbia university; Miss Paquita Harris, New Kensington, Pa., freshman at Boston university; and Miss Dorian Sara Gant, Art Education at Columbia university;

Not shown in the above picture is Miss Harriet Junior of Waycross, Ga. She will take a graduate course in mathematics at Michigan State college.—(ANP)

Sunday School Lesson

Scripture . . . 1 Samuel 16; 18; 22: 1, 2; 23; 15-18; 11 Samuel 1:1 to 2:4; 3:1; 5:1-5.

Present Day Application
 By Bishop Frederick D. Jordan
 Los Angeles, Calif.

David was chosen early, but he waited with patience, meanwhile preparing himself for the task to come. David's rise to the throne was gradual, his start was modest. All along the way he did his best, seeking wisdom from above. This training is necessary to make successful and stable leaders. In our denomination a minister who "comes regular" first is approved by his Class Leader and local congregation who have had the opportunity to observe his daily living as well as to hear his profession of faith. He then has to go by the way of the Quarterly and District Conferences to receive their approval. He is admitted to the Annual Conference 'on trial.' When he begins his work of leadership, he is usually first trusted with small work, then as he proves his worth his responsibilities are increased. For a minister who 'comes any other way' the issue is forced and no surprise is expressed when later on his lack of resourcefulness, spirit of revenge and want of understanding, undermine and destroy his power and influence. Dependable, great-hearted leaders are not produced over night. God develops them through a gradual process.

"Here we go 'round the mulberry tree" is correct. Mulberries don't grow on bushes.
