Sunday School Lesson

SOLOMON BEGINS HIS REIGN
Scripture — I Kings, 1:28-40; 2:14-4; 3:1-15; 6:11-14:8.

Memory Selection—Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not to thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge Him, and He shall direct thy paths. Proverbs 3:5, 8.

Present-Day Application
By Bishop Frederick D. Jordan
Los Angeles, California

Solomon began his reign with a recognition of the greatness of God, of His universality and sovereignty. He began with a prayer for wisdom. The most distinguishing feature of Solomon's reign was the development of the material aspects of the kingdom. His building projects, in addition to that of the Temple, were noteworthy, his system of internal revenue with its method of collection made his kingdom wealthy and prosperous. Solomon was a strong ruler and held the reins of government firmly in his own hands. He gave new prestige and dignity to the worship of God by building the beautiful Temple. The Temple became of the deepest spiritual significance to the nation. Today there is a tendency to return the Church to its rightful place in our local communities and in the nation. There is a great need for the recognition of God in our national development by giving God first place in our own lives, in our homes and giving the respect and reverence that is due His house. We can stress the importance of worship, beautify and cleanse our churches, etc.
