

MR. T STRIKES AGAIN—Ted King, Lincoln High all-stater, scoots down the east sidelines enroute to a 52-yard pass interception touchdown gallop in the first quarter of Friday night's game with Omaha South. It was his second 52-yard scoring run of the quarter.

Links Win Over Omaha S 34-6; Last Home Game

There was no rain but plenty of lightning at the Oval Friday night. It struck swiftly and frequently as Lincoln High unleashed a devastating drive that swamped Omaha South, 34-6.

Chief purveyor of the flashing attack was Ted King while Dick McWilliams provided the thunderclaps with his vicious line bucking.

South was never in the game. The Links scored twice in the first quarter, repeated the feat in the second stanza and picked up their final tally in the third period. South tallied in the final frame.

King opened the scoring with a dazzling 51-yard gallop that came one play after Don Erway intercepted a Packer pass. Bob Barnett tossed a crunching block on the 10 to assure King's score.

Again it was King who electrified the stands with another LHS score. He flinched a Packer pass on the Lincoln 48 and rambled over untouched by the befuddled opposition. McWilliams plunged for the 14th point.

Lincoln seniors who played their last home game included Erway, Barnett, Stoneman, Jerry Gilbert, Jack Leikam, King, Sam Ellis, Dick Skold, Russ Nielsen, Eldean Wiltfang, Don Johnson, Larry Kimmel, Bill Greiner, McWilliams, Butherus, Gary Jorgensen, Bob Ford and Sam Zelen.
