

SENATOR JOHN ADAMS

Adams Declares A Whirlwind Campaign

Senator John Adams in a very enthusiastic meeting at his headquarters in Omaha, working with his campaign director, started a prairie fire. In one of the most stirring addresses of his political career, he advised not only his campaign workers but all of his friends of the city that we stand in the midst of a whirlwind that will require a new and clean cut method for success. Said he: "This is a presidential year, and it is expected that we will have a larger number of registered voters to contend with than heretofore."

"Many of the interests in which the voters have concern

A non-partisan legislature must be absolutely neutral in handling controversial matters committed to him by the people. Because this is so, there arises misunderstanding which, at every election, has to be overcome.

TEXT OF PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS

Be it enacted by the people of the State of Nebraska,

Section 1. That at the general election in November, 1952, there shall be submitted to the electors of the State of Nebraska for approval the amendments to the Constitution of Nebraska which are set forth in section 2 of this act, and which are hereby proposed by the Legislature.

Sec. 2. The amendments proposed are as follows:

(1) To add four new sections, to appear in Article VII of the Constitution of Nebraska, as sections 14, 15, 16, and 17, and to read as follows:

"Sec. 14. There is hereby established a State Department of Education which shall be comprised of a State Board of Education and a Commissioner of Education. The State Department of Education shall have general supervision and administration of the school system of the state and of such other activities as the Legislature may direct."

"Sec. 15. The State Board of Education shall be composed of six members, who shall be elected from six districts as provided by the Legislature. Their term of office shall be for six years each, except as hereinafter provided. Their duties and powers shall be prescribed by the Legislature, and they shall receive no compensation, but shall be reimbursed their actual expense incurred in the performance of their duties. The members of the State Board of Education shall not be actively engaged in the educational profession and they shall be elected on a nonpartisan ballot. In the general election of 1954, six members shall be elected to the board, one from each of the six districts; two members shall be elected for two years, two for four years, and two for six years. In each general election thereafter two members shall be elected for six year terms from districts as prescribed by the Legislature."

"Sec. 16. The State Board of Education shall appoint and fix the compensation of the Commissioner of Education, who shall be the Executive Officer of the State Board of Education and the administrative head of the State Department of Education, and who shall have such powers and duties as the Legislature may direct. The board shall appoint all employees of the State Department of Education on the recommendation of the Commissioner of Education."

"Sec. 17. All provisions in the Constitution of Nebraska and laws of the state relating to the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall, insofar as such provisions are applicable, apply to and mean the State Department of Education, the State Board of Education, or the Commissioner of Education as the case may be."

(2) To amend Article IV, section 1, to read as follows:

"Sec. 1. The executive officers of the state shall be the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Secretary of State, Auditor of Public Accounts, Treasurer, Attorney General, and the heads of such other executive departments as set forth herein or as may be established by law. The Legislature may provide for the placing of the above named officers and heads over such departments of government as it may by law establish. The Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Attorney General, Secretary of State, Auditor of Public Accounts, and the Treasurer shall be chosen at the general election held in November, 1954, and in each even-numbered year thereafter, and their term of office shall be two years and until their successors shall be elected and qualified. The records, books, and papers of all executive officers shall be kept at the seat of government, and such officers, excepting the Lieutenant Governor, shall reside there during their respective terms of office. Officers in the executive department of the state shall perform such duties as may be provided by law. The heads of all executive departments, established by law, other than those to be elected as provided herein, shall be appointed by the Governor with the consent of a majority of all members elected to the Legislature, but officers so appointed may be removed by the Governor. Subject to the provisions of this Constitution, the heads of the various executive or civil departments shall have power to appoint and remove all subordinate employees in their respective departments."

(3) To amend Article VII, section 1, to read as follows:

"Sec. 1. The Governor, Secretary of State, Treasurer, Attorney General, and Commissioner of Education shall, under the direction of the Legislature, constitute a board of commissioners for the sale, leasing, and general management of all lands and funds set apart for educational purposes, and for the investment of school funds in such manner as may be prescribed by law."

(4) To amend Article VII, section 13, to read as follows:

"Sec. 13. The general government of the state normal schools as now existing, and such other normal schools as may be established by law, shall be vested, under the direction of the Legislature, in a board of seven members to be styled Board of Education of State Normal Schools, six of whom shall be appointed by the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Legislature, two each for a term of two, four, and six years, and two each biennium thereafter for a term of six years, and the Commissioner of Education shall be a member ex officio. The duties and powers of the board shall be prescribed by law, and the members thereof shall receive no compensation for the performance of their duties, but may be reimbursed their actual expenses incurred therein."

(5) To amend Article XVII, section 3, to read as follows:

"Sec. 3. Until otherwise provided by law the salary of the Lieutenant Governor shall be twice the salary of a member of the Legislature."

TEXT OF PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT

Be it enacted by the people of the State of Nebraska,

Section 1. At the general election in November 1952, there shall be submitted to the electors of the State of Nebraska for approval the following amendment to Article XVI, section 1, of the Constitution of Nebraska, which is hereby proposed by the Legislature:

"Sec. 1. The Legislature may propose amendments to this Constitution. If the same be agreed to by three-fifths of the members elected to the Legislature, such proposed amendments shall be entered on the journal, with the yeas and nays, and published once each week for three consecutive weeks, in at least one newspaper in each county, where a newspaper is published, immediately preceding the next election of members of the Legislature. At such election said amendments shall be submitted to the electors for approval or rejection upon a ballot separate from that upon which the names of candidates appear. If a majority of the electors voting on any such amendment adopt the same, it shall become a part of this Constitution, provided the votes cast in favor of such amendment shall not be less than thirty-five per cent of the total votes cast at such election. When two or more amendments are submitted at the same election, they shall be so submitted as to enable the electors to vote on each amendment separately."
