

Bride in Beautiful Kansas Wedding

Miss Eleanor Maxine Kerford recently became the bride of Willard B. Singleton in a beautiful double ring ceremony in Atchison, Kan. The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Kerford Sr. of Atchison. Her father's family owns the famed Kerford Quarry in Atchison. The federal government has rented a storage cave owned by this firm—a cave which is the world's largest natural refrigerator.

The bride is wearing a white Alecon lace gown of ballerina length over bridal satin with nylon tulle winged panels flowing from each seam of the skirt. In her hand she is carrying a white Bible topped with a large white orchid tied with white satin streams on which are fastened lilies of the valley. Her veil is of nylon tulle with satin shell trimmed with seed pearls.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Singleton of Kansas City, Kan. He is a graduate of Howard university. The new Mrs. Singleton has a B.A. from the University of Kansas and a master's degree from Adelphi college, Garden City, N. Y. She is a member of Delta Sigma sorority.

The couple will live in Los Angeles, Calif.—(ANP)

OPS Posters To List Prices For Services

Customers of repair shops and other "service" establishments will soon find ceiling prices plainly listed on official OPS posters.

The new method of listing ceiling prices on standard forms provided by OPS will replace the varied methods which service businesses have been using. The poster contains 20 blank lines on which each shop will list its principal services and their ceiling prices.

Businesses affected include laundries, tailor shops, dry cleaners, parking lots, service stations, and shops doing repair work on shoes, radios, television sets, household electrical equipment, watches and clocks, furnaces, heaters, automobiles and trucks.

In Nebraska, about 30,000 business establishments are covered by the new order, according to Nebraska District OPS Director Edwin Moran.

"Businesses of this sort are already required to post ceiling prices," Mr. Moran explained. "But the posting methods used have varied widely from shop to shop, with the result that customers often have not known that ceiling prices were available for their inspection."

NEW YORK—The vacancy created by the untimely death of Dr. Louis T. Wright, chairman of the NAACP board of directors, will not be filled until the association's annual meeting on Jan. 5, 1953.

It is the belief of political experts of both parties that the rise of the Negro voter as a power in partments in stores will receive posters by mail from OPS. Those that do not receive direct mailings and those needing extra posters may obtain them from the OPS District Office, 1805 Harney Street, Omaha.

The regulation is effective October 27.
