Hanging of the Greens

The center of attention for all club groups now is preparation for the annual "Hanging of the Greens" ceremony to be held Thursday, Dec. 4, at 7:30 p.m., at the Y.W.C.A. The public is invited to come and join in a program of Christmas carols and to watch the "Y" become decorated for the holiday season. The theme of the ceremony this year is "One World at Christmas," and each room in the building will be decorated in a fashion typical to some foreign country . . . Germany, Australia, Sweden, Switzerland, etc.

Kits for Korea

The employed group are gathering articles to be sent to the YWCAs in Korea and distributed to refugees there. A National YWCA Unemployed Girls Assembly project, these "Kits for Korea" are to be made up of things sorely needed at this time by the Koreans. The four kits being sent by the Lincoln girls are: sewing kit, school kit, health kit, and knitting kit.

A newly-formed group at the YWCA for young adults who like to discuss current issues, local, national, and international, is the YM-YW Public Affairs Committee. The group meets every other week for dinner at 5:30 in the YWCA cafeteria, followed by group discussion until about 7:30. Topics for discussion are chosen by the members of the group. Past programs have included: the Nov. election, housing situation in Lincoln, and Lincoln city planning.

Boys' Club Activities

On Nov. 28th and 29th, the Hi-Y Model Legislature, (a High School Boys' Club), will hold a Legislative Conference between the members of the South Lincoln Boys Club, and other Hi-Y groups in the state, at the State Capitol. The public is cordially invited to all sessions, beginning at 9 a.m.

On Dec. 2nd, members of the Gray-Y and the Jr. Hi-Y, are going to have a Presentation of Club Membership Cards.

Quinn Chapel A.M.E. Church

Services at Quinn Chapel were well attended. The pastor, Rev. John B. Harris, preached from the subject—Thankful Hearts "May cause the thanksgiving to abound unto the glory of God. 11 Cor. 4:15 Presiding Elder John Adams presiding.

Thanksgiving Service: There will be a Thanksgiving Service at Chapel at 11:00 a.m. On Thanksgiving Day—Come and bring a friend.

Nice Work: The pastor wishes to join Mrs. Ida Hightower, Chairman for the Pre-Thanksgiving Dinner given at our Church last week, in expressing gratitude to the members and friends of the Church, who worked so faithfully and patrons who bought tickets, in teaming-up to make the affair so successful.

The Young People wish to remind you to attend the Pew Rally which they are sponsoring on Sunday, Nov. 30 at 4:00 p.m.

Campaign Closes
The annual membership campaign of the YMCA closes on Wednesday, Nov. 26th, 1952. According to Mr. Rector, personnel staff director of the "Y," this is the first time in the history of the Lincoln Y, that there has been a Negro Y-worker on the staff. Mr. Lyman Jefferies, who was appointed as the Y team worker, is a student of Nebraska University. Mr. Rector, expressed a personal appeal for Negro membership and participation.

Your Sports Round-Up

By James Sawyer

Willie Mays, New York Giant outfielder, spent a portion of his furlough, playing baseball with Ray Campanella's All-Stars, Camp Campanella is attracting large crowds in the South.

Chicago one time Welter-weight Champion, Johnny Bratton, stopped Joe Miceli in eight rounds, at Madison Square Garden. After the fight Johnny said he would like to take a shot at Kid Gavilan's as well as Sugar Ray Robinson title.

Lincoln High, elected three (3) students on its 1952 All-Star Team. They were, Ted King, Bacvk; Bob Barnett, End; and LeRoy Butherus, End.

This is the second straight year that Butherus and King have been elected on the All-State first team. Ted King, the most feared back in the State of Nebraska, averaged 7.48 yards per carry. King gained 778 yards in 104 tries.

Ezzard Charles, ex-heavyweight champ of the world, meets Jimmy Bivins, next Friday night, Nov. 28, in the Chicago Stadium.

Joe Black Named Rookie of Year In National League

NEW YORK — (ANP) — Joe Black, star relief hurler of the Brooklyn Dodgers, Friday was named National league rookie of the year by the Baseball Writers Association of America. Pitcher Harry Byrd of the Philadelphia Athletics was named in the American league.

Only a day before, Black was announced as coming in third among the writers in competition for most valuable player of the league. He was narrowly edged in a 3-man race by outfielder Hank Sauer of the Chicago Cubs, the winner of the award, and pitcher Robin Roberts of the Philadelphia Phillies.

To earn this honor Black had a 15-4 won-lost record in 5 appearances and an earned run average of 2-15. He is considered the man responsible for Brooklyn's winning the 1952 pennant.

In an interview Black he believed he will be back in the bullpen again in 1953 as a relief

Campus Corner

By Stella Woodley

Two campus Greek Organizations share the spotlight in today's Campus Corner. Last weekend saw the pledge initiations in the Delta Sigma Theta Sorority and the Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity.

Friday night, five men were initiated into the Scrollers Pledge Club of the Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity. They were Jon McWilliams, Haynes Harrington, Charles Bryant, Bob Fairchild, and Bill Mosby. At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Burt Newton, the fellows and their dates enjoyed refreshments and dancing. Arrangements were made by Charles McAfee of Wichita, Kansas, who is a Kappa active.

In a very impressive ceremony Sunday afternoon in the Student Union, eight Nebraska University girls and four Omaha University co-eds were initiated into the Pyramid Pledge Club of the Delta Sigma Theta Sorority. Winifred Winston, Carlene Foxall, Emy Werner, Benetta Brooks, Lillian Rogers, Oline Foxall, Kathlene Dill and Stella Woodlee are the NU pledges. Omaha University pledges are Aline Smith, Daisy Mathews, Gwen Broughton and Carol Washington. Joan McCaw is also a member of the Pyramids, having been previously initiated. Mrs. Thelma Tucker of Omaha, President of the Gamma Xi Chapter, acted as Pledge officer. She was accompanied to Lincoln by several other Delta women who assisted in the ceremony. Miss Janice McCaw of Omaha is the only Delta Sigma Theta active on the University campus.

The campus will be watching with interest the progress of these two groups. They join the Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, which is already established, in leading the way toward higher educational and vocational goals.

D-Day for 1,500 Nebraska big game hunters is Monday, Dec. 1, as the state's seven-day buck deer season opens in northwest Nebraska. This marks the fourth consecutive deer hunt in state history. Immediately following the conclusion of the buck hunt, the doe season gets under way (Dec. 8) and continues through Dec. 14. One thousand hunters have doe permits.

If last year's hunt can be accepted as indicative of what will happen this year, the buck hunters can plan on spending about two and one-half days in the field. That's how long it took the average successful hunter last year to bag a buck.

And—using last years' hunts as a basis—the bulk of the hunters are expected to invade the open area during the first two or three days of the season. Records from the 1945, '49 and '50 hunts show that 30 per cent of the season's kill was checked in on the opening day of the season and up to 45 per cent by the end of the second day.

Seven checking stations, strategically located throughout the open area, will be in operation throughout the buck season. All hunters must take their deer to the stations for checking and sealing. The stations will be located in Larsen's Feed Store in Bridgeport, city hall in Crawford and court houses in Chadron, Gering, Harrisburg, Harrison and Rushville. All stations but the one at Rushville will be open during the doe hunt.
