Bishop Wright to Spend Christmas in Jamaica

PHILADELPHIA (ANP)—Bishop R. R. Wright Jr., prelate of A.M.E. churches in South America and the West Indies, will spend Christmas in Jamaica, B.W.I. in the hope of making this observance of the birth of Christ a happier one for the Jamaicans than was last year's. It will be the first time an A.M.E. bishop has ever spent Christmas in Jamaica.

Christmas in Jamaica was spoiled last year because of a hurricane which wrecked havoc among the population. A short time before Bishop and Mrs. Wright embarked, he said: "My reason for going to Ja-

The Lincoln VFW and State Fair Board, will present an amateur card on Friday, December 12, at the State Fair Grounds Arena. M. P. (Curly) Marshall, VFW matchmaker, will present boxers from Lincoln, Offutt Field, Ashland, Manning Boxing Club of Omaha and Lexington.

This is the second amateur boxing show of the season, in Lincoln. Lincoln High's state championship football team received honors on Saturday night at a banquet-dance. More than 350 persons attended. Speeches were given by Principal William Bogar and Football Coach Bill Pfeiff. Songs by the girls octet and piano selections by John Baudoin highlighted the affair.

YWCA Notes

The Central YWCA, will have a series of lectures for expectant mothers beginning January 12th.

These sessions will be jointly-sponsored by the YWCA, Red Cross Public Health Nursing Service, Lancaster County Medical Board and the Obstetricians of Lincoln's three hospitals.

There will be two class sessions: Monday, 2-4, and Tuesdays, 7-9. Each class will accommodate 20 persons so it is important to enroll at once.

There will be five subjects discussed:

- 1—How the baby grows
- 2—How the baby is born
- 3—How to feed both mother and baby.
- 4—How to bathe and dress the baby.
- 5—How to care for the child as it grows.

Those interested in these classes, please contact: Miss Dorothy Greene of the YWCA at 2-6801.

maica at this time is to erect a huge Christmas tree to bring Christmas cheer to the needy of that beautiful island.

"Last year the great hurricane swept away over 20,000 houses, left over 100,000 people homeless, injured and killed hundreds, leaving a property damage of over $60,000,000. Some 22 of my own A.M.E. churches were blown down, and thousands of my members left homeless and without clothing.

"I think that I would be happier if I spend my Christmas with them, trying to make them happy; for I am their bishop, in adversity as well as prosperity."

Bishop Wright will take funds, contributed by friends in the United States, to help re-build the destroyed churches. He also will take clothes and toys for Jamaicans. Members of the church have been asked to contribute to help the Jamaicans.

The University of Nebraska campus has taken on a Christmas look. There are four Christmas trees in the Student Union, nine in the Women's Residence Halls, and at least one in every organized house on campus. The Daily Nebraskan, campus newspaper, counts the days until Christmas vacation in big black type every day. Students are singing carols in an effort to rush the season and vacation time. Since Christmas is definitely in the air, here's my chance to say, "Merry Christmas and Happy New Year to you all."

Koreans Need CARE Gifts To Survive Hunger, Cold

NEW YORK—The third winter of war means increased suffering for the South Korean people, Paul Comly French, executive director of CARE, reminded Americans in an appeal to continue their relief aid.

About 10,400,000 persons, half the total population, are in dire need of food, warm clothing and blankets, according to reports from Dr. Charles R. Joy, CARE mission chief in Korea, Mr. French said. Relief packages provided through donations to CARE-for-KOREA, 20 Broad St., New York 5, N.Y., or any local office of the non-profit agency, are direct assurances of these lifesaving supplies, he pointed out.

"Cities like Pusan and Seoul are swollen with refugees, who live in flimsy straw huts," Mr. French stated. "Orphaned children, clad in rags, roam the streets begging for food. Throughout the fall, families in rural areas were eating weeds and grass—but frozen fields do not yield even that surcease from hunger.

"Starvation and cold must be fought as relentlessly as armed aggression, or the defense of freedom is meaningless. On behalf of Korea's suffering humanity, we must ask Americans to keep sending CARE."

CARE packages for Korea include: Food, underwear, knitting wool, cotton clothing fabrics, $10 each; blankets, $7 each; special food, $5. Distribution is made to

Counties Earn Right to Compete in Finals of Rural Progress Campaign

GREENSBORO, N. C. (ANP)—Five North Carolina Counties have won out in district eliminations in the state Rural Progress Campaign and now are eligible for the statewide finals which begin this week.

Winner of the finals will be named "County of the Year," and will receive $500 to be used to further some project of benefit to the rural people of that county.

dean of the School of Agriculture at A&T college and chairman of the state committee, the winning counties are:

Edgecombe, Duplunn, Hartford, Rockingham, and Orang.

The counties were selected on the basis of having made the most progress in the following five phases of rural life:

1. Desirable and adjustment in agriculture.
2. Homemaking and family living.
3. General community improvement.
4. Opportunities for rural youth.
5. Aid co-operation of all agencies, groups and individuals.
