

By FREDDYE S. HENDERSON FOR ANP

It is just about this time of the year that people are concerned with making resolutions for the New Year. It is time that some attention be given to making and executing resolutions in the area of fashion and beauty.

Now, if you are the type who breaks the rules as fast as they are made, it will hardly be worth your while making any. Still, it can't do any harm to review a few points which need frequent attention. So, suppose we list a few suggested resolutions for the record.

Whereas women have always been deemed the fairer sex, and are generally regarded to be happy in the enjoyment of the reputation, and

Whereas they spend valuable time and money in the pursuit of the illusive quality of beauty and charm, and

Whereas men like them to be lovely,

Be it therefore resolved:
1. That smart women will refrain from adding a year to their apparent age. Now that Grandma and Glamour are virtually synonymous (witness such grandmothers as Marlene Dietrich) there is hardly any excuse for appearing to grow old any other way but gracefully.

2. That women strive to attain the maximum amount of charm, as distinguished from sheer beauty. More attention can always be given to little details such as manner of sitting, walking and standing, and the infinite number of little gestures and courtesies which are the essence of poise.

3. That clothes are never bought unless they really do something for the wearer. Size, type and personality are major considerations in even the smallest clothing investment.

4. That more attention be given to accessories. It is well to remember that too often wonderful costumes are ruined by poorly selected or inferior accessories.

5. That quantity never takes precedence over quality in clothing purchases.

6. That restraint be exercised in the wearing of decoration and jewelry. After all, it is a very high compliment to be one of the Ten Best Dressed, but who wants to be labeled, "The Most Dressed?"

A Memoriam

Dear Readers:

Because of the death of Mrs. Odessa Johnson, one of the writers of the Household Hints column, The Voice staff will devote this column this week as a memoriam to Mrs. Johnson.

Mrs. Odessa Johnson, came to Lincoln 35 years ago from Kansas City, Kansas. A quiet and dignified person, Mrs. Johnson enjoyed her home, people, her church and her work.

Mrs. Johnson

She was employed at Hardy's Furniture store for 30 years and her loyalty to her employer and associates, was deep rooted. Although she had unlimited talents musically as well as vocationally, she was unable to develop these gifts because of her untiring efforts in coming to the aid of others that asked and needed her

Mrs. Johnson loved to entertain people, and this she did lavishly. Her love for beauty in her home and work stood out in her relationship with all with whom she came in contact. Deeply sincere in her church work, she was very conscientious in all tasks undertaken. She served in the church as a stewardess for many years, and also directed the choir. She organized and directed musical groups for more than 20 years, one group currently known as the Johnson Singers.

She recently contributed clothing and toiletries to Mrs. Davis

A surprise birthday party was given Miss Lulu King of 2024 S Street by the United Club on January 2nd. Persons attending were, Mr. and Mrs. Moffitt, Mrs. Myrtle Hudson, Victor McWilliams, Cecil Whitebear, Mr. and Mrs. John Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Colliers, Mrs. Hortense Cutliff, Miss Elizabeth McWilliams and Clifton Green.

The United Club met at the home of Mrs. Moffitt Tuesday. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth McWilliams.

Pvt. Louis Whitebear is home on a 15 day furlough visiting his family and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Jessie McDonald of Omaha were the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Lintz.

Mrs. Bertha Peterson of Kansas City spent the Christmas holidays with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Peterson. After leaving Lincoln she returned home to spend New Year's eve with her younger son.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Averett of Omaha were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Thomas. Mrs. Averett and Mrs. Thomas are sisters.

George M. Brown, Kansas City, Kansas, was in Lincoln for the funeral of his cousin, Mrs. Virginia Brown. On Sunday another cousin, John Jefferson McWiliams, died and Mr. Brown remained for his funeral.

Charles Bryant, Husker footballer and now member of the wrestling team, won his match against South Dakota State Saturday evening. Bryant competed in the 167 pound class.

And That's A Fact

Observations

"There are still a few people who don't believe the earth is round," says an educator. It really isn't round. It's oblatly spheroidal. (Voice from the gallery: "Smarty pops!")

"You may break, you may shatter the vase if you will, but the scent of the roses will hang round it still."—Thomas Moore.

"The census bureau reports that there are now more women than men in the U.S."—News item. It has always seemed that there were.

The L.A. high school juniors who can't tell time might retort: "So what! It's later than anybody thinks."

George, a Missionary in Liberia, West Africa. Mrs. Johnson, has been writing for The Voice for several years and her loyalty and sincerity will be missed by the entire staff.

Remember to say you saw it advertised in The Voice.

The Cheapper Drug Store, located at 1325 O Street, has been in this same location for 15 years. This drug store, under the Management of Mr. E. B. Wilson, has brought cut rate prices to the Citizens of Lincoln in drug, cosmetics, toiletries, sundries and especially Prescriptions.

Business has flourished through the years, because of the "Quality before quantity," practice of Cheappers' personnel. Mrs. Barbara Manchester, who is in charge of the Prescription dept., has been with the store for 12 years. The store is open daily from 8 a.m. to 10 p.m. for the convenience of its customers.

If you are in the market for cosmetics, drugs, notions, or hard to find articles; Go to Cheappers. Browse, around, then make your purchase with confidence.
