 charge of a juggernaut . . . They ride it in arrogance and vengeance . . . I charge these . . . leaders with the destruction of unity between the whites; with the use of fear and the trickery of a word (apartheid) to gain power—a word which has become an evil symbol throughout the world; with having shown contempt for all decent Christian sentiments in non-white relations . . . ; with alienating friendly nations abroad; with . . . violating the rule of law to retain power.
 The moderate Johannesburg Star also recoiled. "Both as a dangerous threat to public liberties, and as an irresponsible act on the Reichstag fire model," it editorialized, "the bill must be opposed by every means." There was no sign, however, that Mahan's Nationalist majority in Parliament felt anything but admiration for Justice Minister Swart's plan.

The Voice Salutes

The Nebraska Typewriter Company, is owned by Mr. Emil Beurivage, Mr. "Beau" as he is fondly called by his employees, has been in the Business Machine business for 30 years, and in the present location (125 No. 11th) for 2 years.
 Since the beginning of Mr. Beurivage's business career, he has been a distributor of the Royal Typewriter, AB Dick Duplicating Products, and the Dictaphone.
 Five years ago the Clary Adding Machine and Cash Registers, were added to the business machines, available at Nebraska Typewriter. Mr. Beau holds a contract with the General Binding Company for the distribution of Plastic Binders and Appliances. General fire-proofing equipment has been added also.
 The Nebraska Typewriter Company services all machines purchased from them. For quality LINCOLN—Taxation was far and away the No. 1 problem before the Legislature this week. Spurred on by Gov. B. Crosby's personal request for a legislative policy before Feb. 25, the lawmakers buckled down to face what has emerged as the prime headache of the session.

 Crosby came before the Legislature last week to sketch the situation:
 Time is short; the assessment date is the tenth of next month. The Nebraska Supreme Court held, in the now-famous Johnson County case, that property under the Constitution must be assessed equitably and uniformly at 100 per cent of its value.
 Present law provides for assessment of real estate every two years and that class of property is not up for re-assessment in 1953. Sen. John Aufenkamp of Julian has submitted a bill to provide for annual assessments.
 Two other bills have an important bearing on the tax problem, LB 272, by Sens. Earl J. Lee of Fremont, Art Carmody of Trenton and Hal Bridenbaugh of Dakota City providing that all property be assessed at just half its actual value; and LB 89 by Lee and Sen. Dwight Burney of Hartington limiting tax collections to 105 per cent of the total collected the previous year. The second measure is important because if all valuations are raised to 100 percent and the levies aren't lowered, the total tax dollar take will be staggering.
 All three measures are scheduled for hearing this week and the senators were preparing to set aside other matters in order to clear the decks for speedy action.

SCHOOL LANDS
 Measures to untangle the knotty school land lease snarl are receiving generally good treatment in the first stage of consideration by the Legislature.
 The Education Committee has reported out to the floor two bills which were written as a result of a study of the problem by Sen. Bob McNutt's Legislative Council committee.
 One, LB 97, repeals the provision that half the payment for the assignment of a lease should go to the state and the other, LB 95, provides for appraisal of the lands every three years instead of every five as at present.

 The Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity sponsored a party Saturday night at the Edith Hill residence for all University of Nebraska, active Greeks. The couples attending were Paul Kidd and Hazel Wilson, Leroy Bookhardt and Betty Edwards, James McField and Joyce Williams, Harold Dickens and Annette Davis, Lloyd Williams and Charlene Colbert, Maurice and Loretta Russell. Lyman Jeffries, Alpha active, was unable to attend. Canapes and soft drinks were served followed by dancing. Each lady was given a souvenir from the Fraternity. Pictures were taken.
 The executive committee headed by President Maurice Russell was in charge of arrangements. Other members are Harold Dickens, Vice-President, James McField, Secretary, Paul Kidd, Dean of Pledges, Leroy Bookhardt, Treasurer, and Lloyd Williams, Social Chairman.
 Congratulations to the Alpha Phi Alpha Frat for a well-planned and entertaining evening.
 Let me introduce to you George Buckner, of Hannibal, Missouri, who has entered the school of engineering here at the University of Nebraska. After graduating from Douglas High in 1949, George spent three and one-half years in the Air Force. "It's quite a change from G.I. Joe to College Joe," George says. He came to Nebraska on the strength of a friend's recommendation, and even though George has been here only a short time, he commented on the friendly attitude of the people and the fine instructors at the University.
 George's athletic interests are wide and varied but underline tennis, ping pong, and softball. George has mastered the clarinet, bassoon and tuba and prefers symphonies, good march music and popular music.
 A fellow who worries only as far ahead as next day's chemistry assignments, George hopes to earn his B.S. in electronic engineering and enter that profession. Good luck!!
 Personable Miss Sharon Sawyer from Chicago was an attractive addition to the campus crowd last week when she visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Sawyer of Lincoln. Sharon is a sophomore at Chicago Teachers College.

 Winifred Winston was guest soloist at a banquet in Omaha last week end. She was accompanied by Oline Foxall.
 A new excuse of speeding, and a fairly good one: Recently a Virginian told highway patrolmen who overtook and stopped him that he was driving 70 m.p.h. because another man's wife was riding with him and he thought it was her husband, instead of the cops, who was following him.
