Quinn Chapel A.M.E. Church

Founders Day was a great success at Quinn Chapel. Guests of honor for the two services were the "Pioneers of the Church and Community," who were provided transportation and were seated in reserved pews in the front of the church.

The musical program was supplied by the church choir, Mrs. Hazel Wilson, organist-director, the Fellowship Singers, (a group of six girls), and a solo by Miss Mary Sampson. Others participating in the all-day program were: Rev. J. T. Thompson of Omaha, Rev. Belva Spicer, Clayton Lewis, Dorothy Green, Shirley Conrad, Mattie Sue Nevels, Robert Botts, Frank Letcher and the pastor, Rev. John R. Harris.

The program was followed by a social hour sponsored by the Youth Fellowship of the church. The money raised will go for education.

Six Nebraska University Pyramids, pledges of the Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, traveled to Omaha last Saturday to participate in the annual Pyramid sponsored Typical College Boy and Girl Contest. Under the leadership of Miss Jan McCaw, Delta active, the girls prepared a short skit which was presented at intermission. The winners of the contest were Miss Betty Jo Lewis of Omaha University and Mr. Bob Blackwell, a Creighton medical student. The two entries from Nebraska were Shirley Thomas and Haynes Harrington. Lillian Rogers, Carlene Foxall, Joan McCaw, Stella Woodlee, Oline Foxall and Winifred Winston, Pyramids, enjoyed the program, refreshments and dancing to combo music.

Uncle Sam has threatened to call one more campus Joe, Charles McAfee. Charles passed his physical exam in December and has now left the University to spend his remaining time as a civilian at his home, Wichita, Kansas. Dean of Kappa Alpha Psi pledges here at the U., Charles conducted the pledge pinning ceremony before his departure. From all of us, Good Luck, Charles.

It was good to see James Lincoln, former University student, who is enjoying a short furlough before returning to his Army unit. A number of students have found the best Sunday evening entertainment to be the free movies sponsored by the Student Union. The shows, held in the Ballroom range from comedy to drama and are top flight grade starring Hollywood's best.

Your Sports Round-Up

By Jame Sawyer
The Lincoln Chiefs announce the outright purchase of left hand Pitcher Junior Bunch from the Temple Club of the class "B" Big State League. Bunch has just been reinstated from the voluntarily retired list following two successful years at Temple where he played for Lou Finney and Bill Hayes. In those two seasons, Bunch appeared in 73 games, won 33 and lost 16. He is 6-foot tall and is extremely slender, weighing 155 pounds. Bunch is also a good hitter and fast runner. His home is in Cundiff, Kentucky, population 4. He has excellent control and is a very good fielding pitcher.

The Lincoln Chiefs have announced the condition purchase of home run slugger Herbert R. "Babe" Barna from the Charleston Club of the class "AAA" American Association. Playing in 126 games, although he is 36 years old, Barna hit .287 and 15 home runs. The previous year Barna was the batting champion in the class "AA" Southern Association, playing for Nashville in 131 games, the slugging left hander hit 19 home runs and batted against "AA" pitchers for an average of .358. His CONDITIONAL purchase announced by Bill Hayes, is contingent upon the Lincoln Chiefs ability to sign him to a class "A" contract. Barna is 6'2" and weighs 229. He is a colorful player and a long ball hitter. His Major League experience was with the Athletics and Giants. He is a former teammate of Manager Lou Finney at Philadelphia.
