Bathroom Mirror

Toothpaste and soap are always being spattered on the bathroom mirror. Wipe it off each morning with a dry cloth or towel and it will be found that these small particles polish the glass as they are being wiped away.

Baking Cakes

To keep a cake, that sticks to the pan, from breaking to pieces when taken out, turn the pan upside down and lay on the bottom of it a cloth wrung out of water. In a few minutes the cake can be removed without crumbling.

Candles

Candles will burn and last much longer if they are placed on ice for about twenty-four hours before using.

Hot Compresses

There is always a chance of burning the hands when wringing hot clothes out of boiling water to be used as hot compresses. This can be avoided by using a potato ricer instead of wringing.

Grease Spots

Grease spots can be removed from silk by mixing and applying one ounce castile soap shredded, one teaspoonful salt-peter, two ounces ammonia, and one quart water.

Dessert

A very delicious dessert can be made by baking apples that are filled with broken nutmeats, raisins and honey.

Mending China

China or glass can be mended by melting some powdered alum in an old spoon. Before it hardens rub over the pieces, press them together and set aside to dry. They will hold even if washed in hot water.

Soup

Fat can be removed from hot soup by pouring the soup through a cloth that has been wrung out of cold water. Nearly all the fat will cling to the cloth.

Fertilizer

To make a good plant fertilizer, water the plants with a solution of 150 grains of glue to two gallons of water.

Bedspreads

The bedspread will not wrinkle during the night if it is folded first in halves, to the middle of the bed, then folded in quarters over the foot of the bed.

Mice

Sprinkle cayenne pepper around the places where mice frequent and it will keep them away.

Couple Repeat Marriage Vows

Baskets of gladioli, snapdragons and jonquils banked the altar of The Pilgrim Baptist Church in Omaha, Nebraska, for the Easter Sunday wedding of Miss Edna Songo of Oklahoma, and Charles Sawyer of Omaha.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Liler Anderson, and the bridegroom is the son of the late Allen and Mrs. Georgia Sawyer of Omaha. The Rev. Charles Favors, pastor of Pilgrim Baptist Church read the lines of the 6.00 P.M. double ring ceremony.

As the 100 guests assembled, Mrs. Louise Crumbly, pianist, accompanied Miss Geraldine Taylor, soloist, who sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer".

Given in marriage by her brother, Travis Songo, the bride appeared in an Ice Blue Satin ballerina trimmed with an ice blue lace coat ruffle with a deep lace yoke and two-inch ruffle. Her feather bob curls lay softly around an ice blue velvet crown with a half-inch of fine baby lace. She carried an informal cascade bouquet of white snapdragons surrounding a huge orchid with white ribbon streamers.

Mrs. Fred Davis, the bride's sister, was matron of honor, wearing a champagne ballerina with a deep lace yoke, cocktail length gloves with matching gold sandals. Her bouquet was of yellow jonquils.

Andrew Thomas served as best man. Following the ceremony the couple were the recipients of many beautiful gifts at the reception given at the home of the bride-groom.

Forgiving

By LENURE LETCHER

How often should we forgive our brother?

Is the question asked one day. Should we forgive him seven times

And after that make him pay? "No," said the man of Galilee, "I've set this example for thee: That you forgive him seventy times seven"

As He unfolded the Kingdom of Heaven.

Disc Diggins

By Jon Ann Botts

Greetings Disc Fans: Great numbers have been discovered this week. Pearl Bailey's "Hug Me a Hug" is a must for all music lovers. "Can't I" by Nat "King" Cole is still hugging the top in all recording polls. The Clovers have a cute thing in "Crawling."

Steadily climbing to the top is Marty Robbins' "I Couldn't Keep From Crying." The Duke has a very unique number in a long playing record entitled "Ellington Uptown."

A sure hit and destined to be long a favorite is Tony Bennett's "No One Will Ever Know," which has a wistful and appealing melody.

All who enjoy Les Paul and Mary Ford will be doubly pleased with their rendition of "I'm Sitting On Top of the World."

Be sure to purchase one of these numbers at your favorite record counter. So long, see you next week.

Modern Etiquette

By Roberta Lee

Q. How may a woman know whether or not she should offer her hand to a man when being introduced?

A. There is no rule for this. It is altogether optional with the woman. She may remember, however, that the proffered hand is her way of showing sincere and genuine pleasure over the introduction.

Q. Should a hostess take the men's coats when they arrive at her home, and there is no servant?

A. No. If the host is not present, she should provide a place for the men to leave their wraps as they arrive.

Q. Should the prongs of the fork be pointed upward when lifting the fork to the mouth?

A. Yes, always.

Q. When a person with whom one is talking mispronounces a word, would a tactful correction be in order—such as using the same word correctly a minute later?

A. This would be anything but a "tactful correction." Unless the person with whom you talk is very stupid, it would be obvious to him that you are making a show of your knowledge. It is much better to ignore any grammatical slips.

Q. Are club sandwiches supposed always to be eaten with the knife and fork?

A. Yes. It is impossible to pick this type of sandwich up with the fingers and bite into it without being messy.

Q. Should one ever tip the conductor on a train, or the dining car steward?

A. No; this is not expected.

Q. Is it proper for parents to send out engraved announcements of their daughter's engagement?

A. Engraved announcements of an engagement are not usually sent. The announcement is usually given verbally, by written note, or through the newspaper.

Q. What is the correct way to eat cherries and plums when they are served at the table?

A. Cherries, very small plums and grapes are taken into the mouth whole, and the pits and stones carried from the lips to the plate between the thumb and forefinger.

Q. When addressing an envelope to a widow, should one write

Open Letter To All Parents

Dear Parent:

On Wednesday evening, April 15, a Vocational Opportunity Program will be held at the Urban League for junior high, senior high and out of school students. You are cordially invited to attend.

We know that you as a parent are interested in your child's future, and since this is true, we would like to co-operate with you as closely as possible in helping the children of today to prepare adequately for their future.

Several business and professional leaders as well as the public schools are helping us in our effort to help the youth to become aware of the importance of careful preparation for their careers. We feel your attendance at the meeting will help to bring about a closer home-school co-operation in vocational training.

The program will include an introductory period at 7:30 p.m. in the lounge with Mr. Sidney H. Alexander, Jr., Executive Secretary giving a talk on the importance of an educational preparation for a vocation and suggestions that each youth confer with the consultant representing the vocation in which he or she has the greatest interest.

This will be followed by a meeting in the auditorium where the representatives of business and professions will discuss preparation, qualifications, and opportunities in their specific fields.

We are looking forward to welcoming you at our Vocational Opportunity Program. I hope that you will encourage your child to take advantage of this opportunity.

Sincerely yours,
MRS. SARA K. WALKER,
Group Worker.

Cancer kills more children from 3 to 15 years of age than does any other disease, American Cancer Society statistics show.

In one recent year cancer caused the loss of 1,109,000 working years among Americans, according to estimates of the American Cancer Society.

"Mrs. Henry J. Moore"?
A. "Mrs. Henry J Moore" is the correct form.
