SIGHT-SEEING IN SOUTH AMERICA

By William Pickens (For the A. N. P., Dec. 7)

We wish to suggest some things which we hope the "official guides" in South America will not fail to point out to the North Americans who are to visit them in the entourage of Mr. Herbert Hoover.

They need not point out any of their skyscrapers, for they have none that can vie with the Woolworth building, nor any of their banks, for they cannot compete with Wall street, nor any of their criminals, for they have none to equal those of Chicago. Let them point out:

That in South America men of any race and color can hold any office they are able to hold.

That the absence of race discriminations in civil privileges have done no harm to anybody.

That children in public schools, without color lines, do not grow up into enmity but to friendship.

That lynching, which is one of the indispensable industries of Mississippi, is found to be absolutely needless in Brazil, which has cities with larger Negro populations than any city of Mississippi.

That race prejudice is not "natural and instinctive," but an abnormality and a misfit in civilization.

That Nordics, while they may be useful, are not at all necessary for the continued operation of the solar system.

You cannot astonish us materially, Miss South America, but show our skepticism some of the doubted wonders of your soul.

NOTED BROOKLYN DIVINE SPEAKS BEFORE NORTH CAROLINA COLLEGE

Greensboro, N. C., Dec. 7.—(A. N. P.)—Dr. H. H. Proctor, pastor of the Nazarene Congregational church of Brooklyn, New York, spoke to the student body of A. and T. college last night on the needs of preparation in life. The speaker is a graduate of Fisk university and the school of theology of Yale.

The speaker emphasized the need for preparation because the cross represented by the progress of the world, is the cross beam of the massive structure which grew out of the preparation of the engineer who designed it. The increasing progress of the world today increases the problems, and this means a greater need for each person to prepare his own life.

SENATOR BORAH POSSIBLE SUPREME COURT CHOICE

Chicago, Ill., Dec. 7.—(A. N. P.)

Colored opponents of Governor Al Smith in the recent presidential campaign who were against the New York democratic executive because of the possibility, in the event of his election, that he might appoint demagogic and prejudiced judges to the United States Supreme Court, are given something to think about by dispatches from Washington which indicate that Senator William E. Borah, republican from Idaho, is being considered unofficially as a possible appointee to the chief justiceship of that court.

It is pointed out by those who discuss this question that Hoover, as president, will find himself indebted to the Idaho orator. During the campaign, Borah was the only one of the so-called republican irreconcilables, who took a positive stand and rendered yeoman service for the republican candidate. It was Borah who set out upon the trail of Al Smith when there seemed to be no one else to do the job and gave the democratic candidate as good as he received, or better.

For this service he must be rewarded, the political speculators argue. They see no proper place for him except in the cabinet or on the supreme court bench. If he went into the cabinet, it would be as secretary of state, but there are many persons who don't believe that Borah, in his superior attitude, would accept that position. As chairman of the foreign relations committee of the senate, he has had the power to compel secretaries of state to come by him in order to proceed with their treaty-making and other agreements. It would not be like him to put himself into the place of an official whom he has been accustomed to dogging.

CHECK-UP SHOWS ASTOUNDING REASONS FOR IMMORALITY IN WINDY CITY.

Chicago, Ill., Dec. 7.—(A. N. P.)

Statistics of the morals court of this city which indicate that one out of every seven colored girls is a moral delinquent, was the subject of a conference held in the chambers of Judge Joseph Burke, who presides over the morals court, this week.

Representatives from almost every phase of Negro life, the police department and welfare and reform organizations, participated in the conference.

One of the causes for the high disparity of figures between white girls and colored girls was given as the ability of white girls who are accosted by police to produce an alibi; they show that they have a job. Or else, instead of walking the streets, these white girls work on what is known as "call," thereby keeping out of the eyes of the police.

In addition to these causes, it was also brought out that police are more active in breaking in residences of colored neighborhoods than they are in white.

Two police sergeants who have worked in the colored district claimed that the high percentage of immorality among colored girls is in part due to the lack of gainful employment and that the girls are encouraged to barter themselves away by enterprising landladies and men who live off their earnings.

Capt. George P. O'Connor of the police department pointed out that the present condition is an after-effect of the immigration of Negroes into Chicago for service in various industries. When the business of these industries slackens, hundreds of people are thrown out of work and resort to a loose manner of living in order to sustain themselves.
