

Admiral Schley.

They're fighting the battle all over again;
The big guns are booming once more;
And Sampson today lingers far, far away
While Schley bears the brunt—as before.
On the old fighter's track the entire snarling pack
Have followed with hue and with cry,
Till now, when he faces them all, they slink back
From the sight of brave Admiral Schley.
When heroes were needed, he stood on the bridge
And met the proud navy of Spain.
He followed it on till the battle was won
And its vessels went down in the main.
When heroes are honored he's slighted and spurned,
While others are praised to the sky.
He yet is deprived of the glory he earned,
Our gallant old Admiral Schley.
But though he's insulted by puppets in power,
The people are slow to forget.
They only await a more fortunate hour
To crown him in victory yet.
His fame is secure. When the scroll is unrolled
His name will be written on high
'Mid those of our gallant sea-fighters of old,
Made brighter by Admiral Schley.
The man who is right can afford to repose
In the homage and love of the just;
To reckon that Time is his friend; and his foes
At last will go down in the dust.
The victim of hate with assurance can wait
For wrong and detraction to die.
The world holds a crown of esteem and renown
For the brow of brave Admiral Schley.

GOOD COFFEE MAKER*Experience With the Berry.

"I have gained twenty-five pounds since I left off coffee and began drinking Postum Food Coffee in its place. I had become very thin in flesh and suffered tortures with heartburn, was a nervous wreck with headache practically all the time until one dreadful day when the good doctor told me I must quit drinking coffee, as he had nothing left to try, to relieve me. I could not drink tea and had tried everything else, even Postum, but put it by at the first trial, because it was tasteless. Forced to it again, I determined to see if it could not be made palatable and found at once that when I followed directions and boiled it long enough, that I not only liked it but gave it to my husband for several days without his finding it out. I have the name of making splendid coffee, and we always used the best, but of late I have given Postum to guests many times in place of coffee and have never been detected yet. Our four children have not drank coffee for three years, and all have gained health and flesh since using Postum. One son, who was always sick, has been greatly benefited by its use, and as above stated, I have gained twenty-five pounds since taking up Postum. I am healthier today than I have been for years and give Postum all the credit. Please do not use my name in public." This lady lives in Burlington, Iowa, and the name will be furnished by the Postum Cereal Co., Ltd., Battle Creek, Mich., to those interested.

Write and See.*Don't Let Prejudice Keep You from Getting Well.*No Money is Wanted

Simply write a postal for the book that applies to your case. See what I have to say. You can't know too much about ways to get well.

My way is not less effective because I tell you about it. There are millions of cases which nothing else can cure. How can I reach them save by advertising?

I will send with the book also an order on your druggist for six bottles Dr. Shoop's Restorative. I will tell him to let you test it for a month at my risk. If it cures you, the cost will be $5.50. If it fails, I will pay him myself.

The book will tell you how my Restorative strengthens the inside nerves. It brings back the power that operates the vital organs. My book will prove that no other way can make those organs strong.

No matter what your doubts: Remember that my method is unknown to you, while I spent a lifetime on it. Remember that only the cured need pay. Won't you write a postal to learn what treatment makes such an offer possible?

Paragraphic Punches.

Denver News: Sir Thomas Lipton should receive that peerage anyway. Any Englishman who can give a Yankee as close a chase as that is entitled to the best the king can give him.

New York World: With Kipling and Richard Harding Davis both against the British war office the Boers can afford to raise the staggering price.

St. Paul Globe: And now Mark Hanna will pose as the sphinx. This is a new role, but Mark is versatile. When the matter of trusts is under discussion the role of sphinx will become Mark well.

Pittsburg Dispatch: Furthermore, they have not introduced any evidence to prove that the Spanish fleet got away.

And This is War.

According to British official returns just published in London, 2,345 deaths occurred in the month of August alone among the 137,619 Boer people held in the "concentration camps" in South Africa.

This is a death rate of not far from 200 per 1,000 per annum. Ten times the normal average death rate of civilized countries! Nearly one-fifth of all Kitchener's "reconcentrados" dying every year! And yet the same Britons who held up their hands in horror at Weyerism in Cuba read with complacency these appalling records of the rapid extermination of Boer non-combatants. And of August's 2,345 victims 1,878 were children.

And this is "war!"—New York World.

A Good Point.

Editor Bryan makes a good point against the hysterical republican papers who are trying to fasten the responsibility of the assassination of President McKinley on the newspapers which criticized the president and his advisers, when he remarks that anarchy flourished best in those countries where the freedom of the press and speech is a thing unknown. Anarchy is not the result of free criticism but rather the result of the absence of it.—St. Paul (Minn.) Globe.

How It Works.

The Globe-Democrat says: "At the present rate of reduction the public debt of the United States will soon be below the $1,000,000,000 mark again." Yes, but as soon as the bankers have sold back their bonds to the government at 40 per cent premium, they will begin to demand that more bonds be issued at par and if the republican party remains in power they will have no trouble in getting them. That has been the case for the last thirty years.—Nebraska Independent.

It is quite certain that, of all the things that minister to the welfare and good of man, of all that make the world varied and fruitful, of all that make society solid and interesting, of all that make life beautiful and glad and worthy, by far the larger part has reached us through the activities of the struggle for the life of others.—Henry Drummond.
