

TO SUBSCRIBERS

"THE COMMONER CONDENSED"

Arrangements have been made with the Abbey Press, of New York, for the publication of a book of from three hundred to three hundred and fifty pages, which will be, as its title indicates, a condensed copy of The Commoner for the first year of its existence. The volume will reproduce the editorials which discuss questions of a permanent nature, together with selected paragraphs. A few chapters will be devoted to Mr. Maupin's page, to the Home Department and to the Weekly Press Forum. The last chapter will contain the choicest poems which have appeared in the paper during the year.

The editor has a two-fold object in issuing this abridgement of the year's work. He desires first, to furnish in convenient form for preservation, the more important editorials so that subscribers who have not kept complete files may have a permanent record of the paper from the beginning, and, second, he also desires to give to new subscribers an opportunity to secure the principal part of the preceding numbers of the paper. The publisher's retail price of the volume will be $1.25 for cloth, 50 cents for paper binding, but the following offer is made to subscribers:

The Commoner for one year and "The Commoner Condensed," cloth binding, $1.50.

The Commoner for one year and "The Commoner Condensed," paper cover, $1.25.

The book is sent postage prepaid. This offer is open to old subscribers who renew for one year or to new subscribers. Those who have already renewed can secure the book by sending 50 cents for the cloth binding or 25 cents for the paper cover.

The first year of The Commoner ends about the middle of January, and "The Commoner Condensed," will be issued as soon after that date as the work can be done. Orders should be sent direct to The Commoner; they will be filled as soon as the book is issued from the press.

SUBSTITUTIONS

Either the Atlanta Constitution or Cincinnati Enquirer or World-Herald or Nebraska Independent or Seattle Times or Indianapolis Sentinel or Practical Farmer or Pilgrim may be substituted for Thrice-a-Week World in the above combination.

Public Opinion (new) and Cosmopolitan, or Review of Reviews, or Literary Digest (new) may be substituted for Pilgrim by adding $1.50 to combination price.

Arena may be substituted for Pilgrim by adding $1.00 to combination price.

Home and Farm, or Farm, Stock and Home may be substituted for Farm and Home by adding 15 cents to combination price.

THE COMMONER must appear in every combination or club. All clubbing or combination subscriptions must be for one year. Periodicals may be sent to one or several addresses. These offers apply to both new and renewal subscriptions except for Public Opinion and Literary Digest.

PREMIUM OFFER FOR NEW SUBSCRIPTIONS

To any present subscriber to The Commoner sending us one new annual subscription to The Commoner we will give "The Commoner Condensed," paper cover, or extend your own subscription three months, or give you a year's subscription to any periodical in class "A."

For two annual subscriptions to The Commoner, we offer "The Commoner Condensed," cloth binding, or will extend your own subscription six months.

For three new annual subscriptions to The Commoner, we offer one year's subscription to any periodical in class "B." (If you secure two new annual subscriptions, your own renewal may take the place of the third new subscription.)

For four new annual subscriptions to The Commoner, we will extend your own subscription one year. The subscription price of The Commoner is $1.00 per year, payable in advance.

NOTE—No clubbing combination or premium offer in which the Thrice-a-Week World or Twice-a-Week St. Louis Republic, appears is open to the residents of the respective cities in which the papers named are published.

Subscriptions that began with the first number of THE COMMONER will expire in January, as shown on the wrappers on the papers. As it requires the same work to handle a renewal that it does a new subscription, renewals should be sent in without delay to protect the subscribers against the possibility of missing a number of the paper.
