

To Subscribers

"The Commoner Condensed"

Arrangements have been made with the Abbey Press, of New York, for the publication of a book of from three hundred to three hundred and fifty pages, which will be, as its title indicates, a condensed copy of The Commoner for the first year of its existence. The volume will reproduce the editorials which discuss questions of a permanent nature, together with selected paragraphs. A few chapters will be devoted to Mr. Maupin's page, to the Home Department and to the Weekly Press Forum. The last chapter will contain the choicest poems which have appeared in the paper during the year.

The editor has a two-fold object in issuing this abridgement of the year's work. He desires first, to furnish in convenient form for preservation, the more important editorials, so that subscribers who have not kept complete files may have a permanent record of the paper from the beginning; and, second, he also desires to give to new subscribers an opportunity to secure the principal part of the preceding numbers of the paper. The publisher's retail price of the volume will be $1.25 for cloth, 50 cents for paper binding, but the following offer is made to subscribers:

The Commoner for one year and "The Commoner Condensed," cloth binding, $1.50.

The Commoner for one year and "The Commoner Condensed," paper cover, $1.25.

The book is sent postage prepaid. This offer is open to old subscribers who renew for one year or to new subscribers. Those who have already renewed can secure the book by sending 50 cents for the cloth binding or 25 cents for the paper cover.

The first year of The Commoner ends about the middle of January, and "The Commoner Condensed" will be issued as soon after that date as the work can be done. Orders should be sent direct to The Commoner; they will be filled as soon as the book is issued from the press.

THE COMMONER must appear in every combination or club. Not more than four periodicals may be formed into one combination. All clubbing or combination subscriptions must be for one year. Periodicals may be sent to one or several addresses. These offers apply to both new and renewal subscriptions except for Public Opinion and Literary Digest. Renewals for these two will not be accepted. Foreign postage extra.

The subscription price of The Commoner is $1.00 per year, payable in advance.

NOTE—No clubbing combination or premium offer in which the Thrice-a-Week World appears is open to the residents of the city in which the paper is published.
