

A Cure for Rheumatism

Of Which any Suffering Reader Can Have

A TRIAL BOX FREE!

Rheumatism has yielded to a new and simple remedy of which a trial box is offered free to all who suffer. Scarcely a grown person has escaped its twinges and thousands have been so deformed and misshapen that they hardly look like their former selves. If you are such a sufferer, send your name and address to John A. Smith, Milwaukee, Wis., and by return mail you will receive a trial box of Gloria Tonic free. This is the most wonderful remedy ever discovered and has enabled many a person to abandon crutch and cane.

Key C. Sund of Harrisville, Wis., testifies that Gloria Tonic cured two members of his congregation, one who had suffered 18, the other 25 years. Rev. W. Hartman of Farnsville, Ills., writes: "Five boxes of Gloria Tonic cured Mr. A. Kulow, a member of my congregation who had suffered day and night.—"Mr. E. S. Kendrick, P. O. Box 13, North Chatham, Mass., after using liniments for 18 years, writes: "I am convinced that it will cure any case." Mr. B. H. Marshall, Plain City, Ohio, writes: "I am 76 years old and had it not been for Gloria Tonic I would be no more among the living." Mrs. Mary E. Thomas of No. 9 School Street, Nantucket, Mass., writes: "From my childhood on I have suffered from rheumatism, have been cured through Gloria Tonic at the age of 83 years." Mr. N. J. McMaster, Box 13, Plain City, Ohio, writes: Gloria Tonic cured me after prominent physicians of Columbus, Ohio, called me incurable."

Gloria Tonic in Point Pleasant, W. Va., cured Mr. R. Earnet, 77 years old, after suffering 15 years.—In Menominee, Mich., it has been used with excellent results by Hon. Martin Van den Berg, Justice of the Peace.—In Perth, Miss., it cured Mr. J. C. Chapman, after suffering 20 years.—In Odessa, Mo., it cured Mrs. Marion Mitchell, who had suffered 12 years.—In Elmberst, Ills., it cured Mrs. Nicolina Brumond, age 80 years.—In Otis, Ind., it cured Mr. Christian Krantz, after suffering 22 years.—In Gift, Tenn., it cured Mr. L. Nelson, a merchant, after suffering 20 years.—In Bolton, N. Y., it cured Mrs. Joseph Putney, 83 years old.—In Durand, Wis., it cured Mrs. Nellie Brees, after suffering 20 years.—In Manilla, Minn., it cured Mrs. Mina F. Peans, after suffering 14 years.—In Craig, Mo., (P. O. Box 134) it cured Mr. John N. Kruser, 76 years old, after suffering 15 years.—These are a few of the many thousand testimonials of recent date. Every delay in the adoption of Gloria Tonic is an injustice to yourself.

No matter what your form of rheumatism is—acute, chronic, muscular, inflammatory, sciatic, gout or lumbago,—write me today, send, and by return mail you will receive the box and also the most elaborate book ever gotten up on the subject of rheumatism called "Rheumatism its Causes and Cure" absolutely free. It is illustrated with numerous stippled drawings from actual life and treats every form known to science. It will tell you all about your case. You get the trial box of Gloria Tonic and this wonderful book at the same time both free. So let me hear from you at once and soon you will be cured.

The Only Hope of Relief.

The only hope that the spoliated consumers of this country have for a revision of the Dingley tariff lies in the committal of the government to the democratic party. The only hope the people have that government of the trusts, by the trusts and for the trusts may perish from the republic lies in the same measure of relief.—Atlanta Constitution.

Hint to American Smokers.

The magnificent offers which the rival tobacco trusts are making to English consumers may perhaps instill in the mind of the American consumer a wonder how much he will have to pay to make them good.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

The Garfield law in Ohio, which aimed to prevent corrupt practice at elections, was repealed by the state senate March 25. The chief argument made against it was that it was ineffective and placed a premium on perjury.

It is reported that both Montana and Washington will act against the merger of the Northern Securities company. The supreme court has refused to take jurisdiction in the Minnesota case, because one of the defendants is a citizen of that state.

A press censorship has been established in Panama concerning the revolution. So far as commercial matters are concerned, merchants will be allowed the use of established codes, but must leave copies of all messages at the censor's office.

The latest advices from Venezuela are to the effect that the activity of the rebels is considerably diminished over last week. The government has recaptured several important towns and great alertness is being manifested in the effort to crush the rebellion.

Germany has again enacted a law against the importation of American meats, which is to take effect October 1. The exclusion is the result of experiments made by the imperial health officials, who claim that it has been treated with borax, and is therefore deleterious to health.

The rebellion in China is spreading rapidly. It is also reported from Shanghai that Germany has announced her decision to maintain a garrison there, which means that France, Great Britain, and Japan also will be obliged to keep garrisons at Shanghai, thus this city will become an international garrison town.

According to a London dispatch, a dispute has arisen between A. J. Balfour and General Buller in regard to the battle of Spion Kop. General Buller contends that all the dispatches regarding that conflict have not been given to the public. Balfour admits this, but says it was for the purpose of sparing his (Buller's) feelings and military reputation.

A cablegram from Pretoria under date of March 23 intimated that signs of peace are appearing. Members of the Transvaal government arrived there under a flag of truce, and conferred with General Kitchener. This news has been welcomed in London as pointing to a possibility of peace. But representatives of the Boers say that England must yield to their terms.

On March 26 at Cape Town, South Africa, Cecil Rhodes died at the age of 49 years. He has been described as "the man who made South Africa." His chief object in life was to bring Africa under British dominion. He was charged with having much to do with bringing about the present war between the Boers and Great Britain.

J. Pierpont Morgan appeared before an Irish land bill has been introduced in parliament. The main provision of the bill authorizes the land commission to take over the whole or part of an estate whose owner is willing to sell. John Redmond, the nationalist in the house, though not opposed to the measure, warned the government that universal compulsory purchase must be the ultimate solution of the land problem in Ireland.

The industrial department of the national civic federation met at New York March 26 to confer with the united mine workers and the mine operators in settling their differences. Senator Hanna and Bishop Potter are among those acting for the civic federation, while President Mitchell of the federation of labor represents that side of the question. Unless the differences are soon adjusted, a general strike is feared.

The United States special examiner in New York city on March 25 in the suit brought by the stockholders to determine the status of the Northern Securities company and its connection with the Great Northern and Northern Pacific railways. One of the lawyers asked Mr. Morgan: "What do you mean by community of interest?" Mr. Morgan replied: "Community of interest is that a certain number of men who own property can do as they like with it."

THE WEEK AT WASHINGTON.

Republican leaders in the house deny the report that they favor free coinage for the Philippines.

A dispatch from Washington March 22 asserts that under the recent supreme court decision in the insular cases, sugar shipped to this country from the Danish West Indies comes in free.

Why can't we come over to your house and play any more?

Because papa gets so mad when we make a little bit of noise.

What makes him that way?

Mamma says it's dyspepsia makes him act so crazy.

That's about the way it strikes the small boy. The dyspeptic has no idea of his own unreasonableness or harshness. Little things are magnified and seem to justify his quick anger.

There's health for the dyspeptic and happiness for the family by the use of Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

It cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition, and restores perfect health and strength, by enabling the perfect digestion and assimilation of food.

"I have taken one bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for indigestion and liver complaint," writes Mr. C. M. Wilson, of Yaddin College, Davidson Co., N. C. "Have had no bad spells since I commenced taking your medicine—in fact, have not felt like the same man. Before I took the 'Golden Medical Discovery' I could not eat anything without awful distress, but now I can eat anything I wish without having unpleasant feelings."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cleanse and regulate the bowels.
