The Wall Street Journal quotes from John Sherman to show that in introducing the anti-trust bill he aimed at making it strike only at

Charcoal Kills Bad Breath

Bad Odor of Indigestion, Smoking, Drinking or Eating Can Be Instantly Stopped

Sample Package Mailed Free

Other people notice your bad breath where you would not notice it at all. It is nauseating to other people to stand before them and while you are talking, give them a whiff or two of your bad breath. It usually comes from food fermenting on your stomach. Sometimes you have it in the morning,—that awful sour, bilious, bad breath. You can stop that at once by swallowing one or two Stuart Charcoal Lozenges, the most powerful gas and odor absorbers ever prepared.

Sometimes your meals will reveal themselves in your breath to those who talk with you. "You've had onions," or "You've been eating cabbage," and all of a sudden you belch in the face of your friend. Charcoal is a wonderful absorber of odors, as every one knows. That is why Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges are so quick to stop all gases and odors of odorous foods, or gas from indigestion.

Don't use breath perfumes. They never conceal the odor, and never absorb the gas that causes the odor. Besides, the very fact of using them reveals the reason for their use. Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges in the first place stop for good all sour brash and belching of gas, and make your breath pure, fresh and sweet, just after you've eaten. Then no one will turn his face away from you when you breathe or talk; your breath will be pure and fresh, and besides your food will taste so much better to you at your next meal. Just try it.

Charcoal does other wonderful things, too. It carries away from your stomach and intestines, all the impurities there massed together and which causes the bad breath. Charcoal is a purifier as well as an absorber.

Charcoal is now by far the best, most easy and mild laxative known. A whole boxful will do no harm; in fact, the more you take the better. Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges are made of pure willow charcoal and mixed with just a faint flavor of honey to make them palatable for you, but not too sweet. You just chew them like candy. They are absolutely harmless.

Get a new, pure, sweet breath, freshen your stomach for your next meal, and keep the intestines in good working order. These two things are the secret of good health and long life. You can get all the charcoal necessary to do these wonderful but simple things by getting Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges. We want you to test these little wonder workers yourself before you buy them. So send us your full name and address for a free sample of Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges. Then after you have tried the sample, and been convinced, go to your druggist and get a 25c box of them. You'll feel better all over, more comfortable, and "cleaner" inside.

Send us your name and address today and we will at once send you by mail a sample package, free. Address F. A. Stuart Co., 200 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

unlawful combination. Stuff! What John Sherman was aiming at was a law which would get itself buried deep in the archives of congress and never be heard of again. Some fellow without a sense of humor resurrected the old gun and proved that it would carry a light charge and make almost as much disturbance at the muzzle as at the breech.—Minneapolis Journal.

FOR THE AMERICAN SYSTEM

Following closely upon Senator Knox's address before the Yale law school the renewed assertion of the rights of the states in high republican quarters in Illinois is fresh assurance that the extreme views put forth by President Roosevelt and his secretary of state will divide the republican party deeply if the attempt is made to push these revolutionary theories too far in practice.

The president has already raised the question whether concentration of governmental powers such as he proposes would not be as great a threat to the stability of our institutions as was secession and whether the resistance of the American people to the one would not be as firm as it was to the other.

The American people are devoted to the federal government. They would not see it shorn of a single one of its legitimate powers. Such of its constitutional powers as have lain dormant they desire to be brought into action whenever the occasion may arise. Its service in providing for the national defense, carrying the mails, regulating the currency and regulating interstate and foreign commerce they could not dispense with. Administered in accordance with the spirit of the constitution they affectionately regard it as the most beneficent government on earth.

But national patriotism is not stronger than the state patriotism of every American. No American wants his state divided or merged in another state. And yet the new school of constitutional interpretation would merge them all into an imperialism reaching from ocean to ocean, with an autocrat at the head of it.

It is a fact that the hand of such a government is never felt in the affairs which touch the citizen most nearly and which endear the American system to the American citizen. If the federal hand is ever thrust into these affairs far enough to be felt, it will awaken a spirit which will let the authors of the innovation know that the fundamental law of the United States must not be changed, even as the barons declared at Runnymede that they would tolerate no change in the laws of England.

The masses of both parties stand firm on this ground. If President Roosevelt wants to make an issue on it next year the democratic party will be delighted to meet him.—St. Louis Republic.

A MIGHTY "KNOCKDOWN"

The New York traction financiers made $38,000,000 on one swindling deal. This amounts to 760,000,000 5-cent fares. It would take a conductor, stealing ten fares a day, 208,000 years to "knock down" $38,000,000.—Kansas City Star.

POOR GRACE

The New York World charges Mr. Bryan with making a false statement concerning it and demands that he make a retraction. The demand comes with ill grace from a paper which has made so many misstatements about Mr. Bryan and refused to retract them when the wrong was pointed out.—Buffalo (N. Y.) Times.
