

Circulate The Commoner in Every Ward and Precinct

Come into line with those who are working for The Commoner's million army plan. Note the words of encouragement coming from all sections of the country and then lend your aid to the good cause.

Cut out, sign and return the certificate printed on this page for your own membership. Or if you do not care to mutilate your copy of The Commoner send in a request asking for a number of blank certificates and they will be forwarded to you, thus enabling you to give your acquaintances an opportunity to join in the work of building up the "army of a million plan" and enabling them also to secure The Commoner from now until November, 1908, for only sixty cents.

It is not possible to print in full the letters received at The Commoner office and relating to the Million Army plan, but extracts from some of them are given below:

B. F. Mount, South Parkersburg, W. Va.—Enclosed please find three membership certificates and money order for same. Enlist us in the army as three veterans for Bryan. Send me a few more certificates.

I. H. Shelton, Seneca, Kan.—Enclosed find $1.80 for The Commoner. Please send more blanks.

Thomas Cornell, Monongah, W. Va.—You will find enclosed postoffice money order for $2.40 for four membership certificates. Send some more membership certificates.

Frank Faytinger, Linwood, Nebr.—Send me ten certificates and I will rustle new members for The Commoner army.

J. L. Phelan, Chicago, Ill.—Enclosed find money order for $1.20 for two subscribers. Please send me more certificates.

J. J. Forsythe, Rarden, Ohio.—I herewith enclose you money order for $1.80 for three membership certificates. Send me more membership certificates and I will try and get a few more subscribers.

R. M. Simpson, Barton, O.—You will find enclosed postoffice money order for $1.80 to pay for three membership certificates. Please send me one dozen more blank certificates.

C. W. Stiger, Old Fort, O.—Send me some blanks and I will get them signed up and send them in.

N. V. James, War Eagle, W. Va.—Please find enclosed postoffice money order for $4.20 for which send The Commoner until the close of the campaign to the following persons. Send me a few more certificates, as I want to help out that million.

James T. Couthlin, New York, N. Y.—Please send about ten subscription blanks like enclosed and I will forward the cash to you.

W. P. Smartt, Chewalla, Tenn.—Please send me one dozen certificates and a few sample copies. I am sure I can get a dozen new recruits for the one million army.

George W. Brate, Hamilton, O.—Please find order for three recruits for the army. Send me a few more certificates.

J. M. Chapel, Union City, Tenn.—Here-with I send you one membership certificate for The Commoner. Please send me some more certificates as I may have a chance to get several subscribers.

S. Burkhart, Albuquerque, N. M.—I enclose herewith draft on New York for $8.25 for which please send The Commoner to the following persons for the ensuing year. I have intended to subscribe to your paper for a number of years but have always neglected it. This morning a copy of your last issue came into my hands and I saw what you are attempting to do in the way of circulation. Within twenty minutes I had obtained the eleven subscribers whose names I have given. No man whom I asked refused and all stated substantially the same thing—that they had intended for some time to subscribe but had neglected it. Of course I picked the men to ask. I believe that if some one will take hold of it in the right way, he can get several hundred subscriptions in Albuquerque with very little trouble. I shall try to get the man to work.

Charles Stevens, Columbus, Kan.—Please find enclosed $10.80 to pay for the following subscriptions to The Commoner. The old 1906 article on the Protective Tariff and Panics, reproduced in last week's paper is a good one and I would appreciate it very much if you would send each of the above parties a copy of last week's paper to begin with. I see you made mention in your last issue of the fact that I had sent 108 subscriptions for the week before and I only mention this for the purpose of laying ground for a further request. The above makes 183 subscriptions, including the 108 referred to, which I have sent you recently. If you will kindly send me 100 sample copies of last week's issue I will see they are placed in good hands and in fact could use 200 of them if you could have them to spare.

Each of the following persons has sent in subscriptions to The Commoner in number as follows: Wm. McCrary, Pinckneyville, Ill., 44; J. S. Lambing, Corry, Pa., 6; Martin Brubaker, Huntington, Ind., 7; Tom R. Wilson, Salem, Ore., 65; D. C. Taylor, Oakland, Cal., 17; Alex Ross, Hudson, Wis., 6; J. C. Pinker, West Point, Neb., 15; Dr. R.
