marine boat inquiry was begun in earnest today by a special house committee. Beginning at 10 o'clock the committee continued its work during the greater part of the day. Representative Lilley was heard at length. He began his testimony by reading a long typewritten statement, a part of which was in the nature of an affidavit, in which he outlined his charges in detail. When he had completed this formal presentation, he was questioned at length by Representative Olmstead of the committee, who was designated by Chairman Boutell to perform that service. During the afternoon session Representative Richmond P. Hobson testified that he had been approached by a man representing the Electric Boat company, who told him that if he would support the claims of that company before congress, the company could bring influences to bear upon Speaker Cannon to have him (Hobson) appointed on the committee on naval affairs."

An Associated Press dispatch under date of St. Louis, March 12, follows: "The Republican convention held today on the call of the chairman of the state committee in the Eleventh and Twelfth congressional district to elect delegates to the national convention in Chicago adopted resolutions indorsing Governor Charles E. Hughes of New York for the next president and the delegates elected from the Twelfth district were instructed for him. The Eleventh district delegates were uninstructed. The instruction given the Twelfth district delegates are the first instructions for Hughes that have been given delegates by any congressional convention that has so far been held in the country. The resolutions indorse the administration of President Roosevelt and Governor Hughes 'as a candidate whom we believe can be relied upon to follow up the work so ably and fearlessly inaugurated by the present administration.' Both conventions indorsed former State Chairman Thomas J. Niedringhaus for national committeeman. The Hughes resolutions were not adopted in the Twelfth district convention without some opposition but the Hughes adherents won a substantial majority when a vote was taken. Similar resolutions endorsing Hughes were adopted without opposition in the Twelfth district convention. The delegates elected in the Eleventh were Grant Gillespie and Dr. Aldburn H. Wilson; and by the Twelfth district convention were John R. Owen and Charles B. Comfort. Two conventions have been held in each district and two sets of delegates elected to the national convention. The first set of delegates from each district elected on February 21, were instructed for Taft."

An Associated Press dispatch from Washington follows: "Senator Tillman introduced a resolution calling upon the senate committee on finance to conduct an investigation and answer some pointed questions bearing upon financial legislation. The questions include these: Whether the national banks in the city of New York and elsewhere are in the habit under the guise of commercial loans, of furnishing permanent capital for speculative or other enterprises. Whether the treasury department had knowledge of the loans made by the National Bank of North America of New York which are the basis of a suit by the receiver of said bank against Charles W. Morse. Whether national banks are now engaged by themselves or through other organizations in attempting to control or dictate the legislation of congress upon currency measures. The committee is further instructed to ascertain what, if any, legislation is necessary to discourage or prevent the habit of persons holding the office of comptroller of the currency or other treasury officials from making their offices a stepping stone to employment by national banks.. Senator Tillman asked that the resolution be allowed to lie on the table. He said he proposed to speak on the resolution next Monday."

Like soap to the skin are Cascarets to the bowels. Use them like soap—in small doses and regularly. It is nice to keep clean inside.

It is a great deal more necessary to keep clean on the inside than on the outside.

Cascarets are more important than soap.

The pores of the skin may become clogged with dirt, but they don't absorb the impurities.

The pores of the bowels do.

There are myriads of pores in the bowels, the duty of which is to absorb the nutriment from food.

That's how we get our nourishment.

But if the bowels are sluggish the food is delayed. It decays and forms gases and poisons. Then those pores of the bowels suck poison into the blood.

That's how we get our ills.

We urge the habit of cleanliness.

Don't wait till you need a physic. That leaves too much of the time when you are only half well.

Keep yourself at your best.

The right way is to carry a box of Cascarets with you. It fits the pocket or purse. Take one just as soon as you know that you need it. It is gentle and sure.

Cascarets are candy tablets. They are sold by all druggists, but never in bulk. Be sure you get the genuine, with CCC on every tablet. The price is 50c, 25c and
