GOLGOTHA—WORLD'S GREATEST PAINTING

Christ's Last Moments on Calvary
 NOW REPRODUCED FOR THE FIRST TIME; BY JANS STYKA.
 This masterpiece, depicting all efforts of past centuries, this inspiring, uplifting, portrayal of time's most significant event, placed within reach of every family.

A unique Art reproduction of this wonderful painting in colored photographs fourteen inches wide and twenty-eight inches long. The colored facsimile reproduces the original, reproducing the mysterious thrilling atmosphere of the painting with such exactness, that to look on this picture is to see the actual scene of the world's greatest painting.

From America's Great Art Critic—H. M. Skinner—Styka's painting creates in the mind of the beholder an impression which will last through life. Much larger than any other picture, regularly true to fact in its representation of the crucifixion, it is a masterpiece of the world's greatest painting. It is the soul of the crucifixion that is touched and quickened. It is the soul of the crucifixion that is touched and quickened.

DEMOCRATIC CLUBS

The Ada county, Idaho, democratic club with headquarters at Boise has elected the following officers. President, J. T. Kent; vice president, W. T. Booth, secretary, John M. Regan; treasurer, R. S. Shaw. At a recent meeting of the club a fine program was rendered including papers and addresses on current political topics, music, singing, recitations, etc. Ex-Senator Fred T. DuBois spoke on "Bryan," and Ex-Senator Henry Heitfeld spoke on "The Initiative and Referendum."

Charles L. Hanes, secretary and treasurer of the Seventh Ward Chicago Bryan club, writes: The following is a report of the organization of the Seventh Ward Bryan club: About twenty-five men got together and organized this club, elected officers, selected meeting nights. The sole purpose of this organization is to further the nomination and election of W. J. Bryan for president. The following officers were elected: President, James E. Hanlin; vice president, L. M. Smith; secretary and treasurer, Charles L. Hanes. The club has had only one meeting and twenty-five members were enrolled in the republican stronghold, the Seventh ward, but we find nearly as many republicans for Bryan as democrats. The writer was a worker in the campaigns of 1896 and 1900, but has never experienced such enthusiasm as is now manifest. Every man that is working in this campaign is a volunteer, not a paid agent but working for Bryan and the good of the country at large. We are so confident of our success in this club that we are going to report the progress of it to The Commoner regularly. We have established an office at the club for receiving subscriptions for The Commoner. If you can assist us in this campaign of education by sending us any printed matter that you think will benefit you will greatly oblige.

At Silver Creek, N. Y., a democratic club was organized. The following officers were elected: James O. Bennett, president; Frank Dawley, vice president; Geo. Hysuer, recording secretary; Frank Lipsey, treasurer; L. J. Cook, corresponding secretary. The above officers together with the following will act as executive committee: M. E. Cook, Robt. McCraig, Charles Vara and William Grewisch. The object of this club is the election of assembly, state and national delegates who are favorable to Wm. J. Bryan and the principles and policies he represents and so ably defends. All citizens who believe in government by the millions instead of the millionaires—a government of equal rights to all and special privileges to none, are invited to join with us in securing that kind of government.

A Bryan club with a membership of more than one hundred was formed at Nebraska City, Neb., and the following officers were elected: President, H. H. Hanks; vice presidents, W. W. Barnes, Henry Fastenau, R. H. Miller, Thomas Slack, John Golden and Fritz Albers; secretary, E. H. Finigan; treasurer, W. W. Wilson.

The Fort Morgan democratic club of Fort Morgan, Colo., is an organization of enthusiastic democrats who promise to make their influence felt in the politics of Colorado. Following are the officers of the club: President, Fred M. Baker; vice president, J. C. Ambrose; secretary, Irving Van Bradt; treasurer, T. F. Grace.

The democrats of Clarksburg, W. Va., met on March 16 and organized a Bryan democratic club. The officers of the club are: Millard F. Snider, president; James W. Robinson, secretary, and D. W. McGeorge, treasurer. The club started off with a membership of fifty and indications are favorable for a membership of at least five hundred. This club will assist in the organization of other Bryan clubs throughout this section of West Virginia.

The democrats of Columbia, Mo., have organized a Bryan democratic club. James E. Boggs, president, writes: "In this county we have over three thousand majority, but we are going to try to increase our majority this year. We are now the banner democratic county of this state." Columbia, the county seat of Boone county, is the seat of the Missouri state university.
