

Mr. William Jennings Bryan

Wants to Talk to You Personally

Listen to Mr. Bryan Right in Your Own Home

The Great Commoner has had his voice recorded on the Edison Records. Sitting in his own library in Lincoln, Neb., this great American personally spoke into the horn of an Edison Phonograph, making some of the plainest and most natural records ever turned out.

Every modulation of his magnificent voice is heard. Every syllable, every tone, every word is as plain as if coming direct from the lips of Mr. Bryan. No one who has ever heard Mr. Bryan speak will fail to recognize all the wonderful charm of voice and manner for which he is famous.
