OPPOSED TO BUSINESS SCARES

AND PROSPERITY PLACARDS

Indianapolis, Aug. 31.—Mr. D. M. Parry, ex-president of the National Association of Manufacturers and a prominent republican and manufacturer of Indiana, in reply to a letter from John W. Kern, democratic nominee for vice president, today announced himself as opposed to the posting of so-called prosperity placards in factories in behalf of Taft's election and against "business scares" gotten up for political effect. The correspondence is as follows:

Mr. Kern's Letter

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 27, 1908.—The Hon. D. M. Parry, President Parry Manufacturing Company.—My Dear Mr. Parry: I am enclosing a newspaper clipping which reports the posting of so-called "prosperity placards" in manufacturing establishments over the country, and I am interested in learning how the distinguished ex-president of the National Association of Manufacturers, D. M. Parry, stands on this proposition of beguiling, or coercing, the workmen of the factories to vote the ticket of a party which many believe has become the party of the tariff-fisted trusts, rather than a party of the people. You will note that these placards read to the effect that "on the day after the election of Taft and Sherman this factory will start up in full force." The intent of the placards is obviously to frighten the public, as well as the employees directly affected, into a belief that the success of the democratic party would work injury to business and industrial interests. I, of course, resent as entirely unjust an attempt to place such an imputation on the democratic party, and I must presume that the factory owners who post these placards are beneficiaries of the tariff tax to such an unjustifiable extent that they fear any revision of the tariff except such as may revise it upward.

I have had much pleasure in the last year in reading several articles by you in which you show yourself to be a sincere advocate of letting down the tariff bars between the nations to a reasonable extent for the benefit of our exporting industries, and I am led to believe that many other manufacturers hold to like views. In the light of the fact that the present high tariff has not maintained prosperity, I would like to ask whether the posting of those prosperity placards by the "stand-patters" does not savor a good deal of trying to obtain money under false pretenses?

Believing that you do not sympathize with this placard scheme, and hoping to hear from you fully on the subject, I am yours very truly,

JOHN W. KERN.

Mr. Parry's Reply

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 29, 1908.—Hon. John W. Kern, Indianapolis, Ind.—My Dear Mr. Kern: I have your very interesting letter concerning the "prosperity placards" and to disabuse your mind at once of any doubt as to where I stand on this matter I will say that no such placards will be posted at the plant of the Parry Manufacturing company.

I have had a good deal to say in the past about the abuse of power by the labor unions—some people tell me I have said too much on the subject—but I have yet to say a word in favor of any abuse of power by the employer. And it is an abuse of the power of the employer to intimidate the employe that his services will not be needed if he does not vote a certain way. When a man is made to believe that his bread and butter depend on how he votes he is no longer free to exercise his own judgment—he is deprived of the most important of his citizenship rights. I believe it is our duty to frown down upon all efforts to sway the judgment of men other than by methods of proper argument and persuasion untingered with coercion.

I am sure that the great majority of the manufacturers of the country will refrain from the posting of the objectionable placards, and that mainly because it would be taking an unjust and distressing advantage of the employe. There is the further reason also that most manufacturers run their business in accordance with the demand for their products and not in accordance with the political barometer. It is poor business judgment, on the face of it, to post a promise to run a factory full time in the event of anyone's election, for there is a chance you know that the promise may have to be "made good" in the face of adverse business conditions. Should the promise for any reason not be "made good" the employer would be guilty of bad faith with his men, and if the employer does not keep faith with his men he can not expect his men to keep faith with him.

I think it impossible to fix a date for the return of full prosperity. It must be remembered that there are economic causes for business reaction which are quite beyond the power of political parties to control—this thing of looking to the government to give us prosperity has its limitations. But the recuperative powers of the country are such that we can assert with confidence that times of industrial depression can not long continue, and this also regardless of which of the two political parties is successful. Of course ill-considered legislation and the continued existence of public evils obstruct the path to prosperity, and perhaps if my distinguished acquaintance, William J. Bryan and my esteemed friend and fellow-townsmen, John W. Kern, were really anarchists or socialists, enemies of individual and property rights, I might feel justified in posting up some kind of placards, but despite my republicanism I can not bring myself to any such notions concerning them. I no more sympathize with the statement that Mr. Bryan is the enemy of in-

Charcoal Removes Stomach Poisons

Pure Charcoal Will Absorb One Hundred Times Its Volume in Poisonous Gases

Charcoal was made famous by the old monks of Spain, who cured all manner of stomach, liver, blood and bowel troubles by this simple remedy.

One little nervous Frenchman held forth its virtues before a famous convention of European physicians and surgeons. Secheyron was his name. He was odd, quaint and very determined. His brothers in medicine laughed at his claims. Thereupon he swallowed two grains of strychnine, enough to kill three men, and ate some charcoal. The doctors thought him mad, but he did not even have to go to bed. The charcoal killed the effects of the strychnine and Secheyron was famous. Ever since that day physicians have used it. Run impure water through charcoal and you have a pure, delicious drink.

Bad breath, gastritis, bowel gases, torpid liver, impure blood, etc., give way before the action of charcoal.

It is really a wonderful adjunct to nature and is a most inexhaustible storehouse of health to the man or woman who suffers from gases or impurities of any kind.

Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges are made of pure willow charcoal, sweetened to a palatable state with honey.

Two or three of them cure an ordinary case of bad breath. They should be used after every meal, especially if one's breath is prone to be impure.

These little lozenges have nothing to do with medicine. They are just sweet, fresh willow, burned to a nicety for charcoal making and fragrant honey, the product of the bee. Thus every ingredient comes to man from the lap of nature.

The only secret lies in the Stuart process of compressing these simple substances into a hard tablet or lozenge, so that age, evaporation or decay may not assail their curative qualities.

You may take as many of them as you wish and the more you take the quicker will you remove the effects of bad breath and impurities arising from a decayed or decaying meal. They assist digestion, purify the blood and help the intestines and bowels throw off all waste matter.

Go to your druggist at once and buy a package of Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges, price 25 cents. You will soon be told by your friends that your breath is not so bad as it was. Send us your name and address and we will send you a trial package by mail free. Address F. A. Stuart Co., 200 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.
