ABRAHAM LINCOLN

The Most Interesting American of the Nineteenth Century

From a Photograph of the portrait Statue by Augustus St. Gaudens, Lincoln Park, Chicago

The simple story of Abraham Lincoln is eloquent with inspiration. Through biography and anecdote, and his own words, you may see him amid the privation and hardship of those "pretty pinching times" and view him, "without aid or accidental circumstance rising as steadily as the sun." He has been characterized as "the first typical American, the first who comprehended within himself all the strength and gentleness, all the majesty and grace of this republic."

Owing to the remarkable revival of interest in Lincoln and his writings at the present time, every family should possess a good, authentic set of Lincoln's Works. A study of the life and deeds of this great American will be an inspiration to every man, woman and child in this nation.

The Commoner is going to give its readers an opportunity to get a complete six-volume set of "The Life and Works of Abraham Lincoln," and deliver it Free of all Cost to your home. Read carefully the conditions of our remarkable offer below. Upon such terms this splendid set of books should be in every home and every library. This offer is open to all. Any boy or girl can earn this set of books for themselves, and start a library of their own. Parents and elders will gladly help.

THE WORKS OF THE GREATEST AMERICAN—Six Books, 2,000 Pages

With introductions and special articles by Theodore Roosevelt, William H. Taft, Joseph H. Choate, Charles E. Hughes, Henry Watterson, and others. The first edition of Lincoln's Works offered in handy, large type volumes in substantial cloth binding.

Volume I is an admirable "Life of Lincoln," about 400 pages, the purpose of which is to present in vivid outlines the man—Abraham Lincoln. In its best sense it is a "story life," full of human interest, every chapter invested with the peculiar charm of a wonderful personality. This volume contains anecdotes and authentic Lincoln stories, and the famous Lincoln lectures of Robert G. Ingersoll and Henry Watterson.

Volume II—The early speeches of Lincoln prior to 1856; addresses on temperance, tariff, against Mexican war, on internal improvements, Missouri Compromise, etc.

Volumes III and IV—Speeches from 1856 to 1859; the famous Lincoln-Douglas debates, speeches of Lincoln and Douglas in full; complete reports of the seven meetings.

Volume V—Speeches prior to opening of civil war; nomination, election and inauguration as president, inaugural addresses, and incidents of his life in Washington.

Volume VI—Important presidential and state papers.

HOW YOU CAN GET THIS HANDSOME SET OF BOOKS, FREE

The Commoner will give this 6 Vols. set of Lincoln's Works Absolutely Free and postage or express prepaid, to any one sending us ten subscriptions at $1 each, which is the regular subscription price for one year. A subscription of $2 for two years will count as two subscriptions. To make it still easier to secure these books, we are going to allow you to get renewal subscriptions at $1 each, to count the same as a new subscriber.

THE OBJECT OF THIS SPECIAL OFFER

is to give as many of its readers as possible a chance to secure a good set of Lincoln's Works, and at the same time an opportunity to further the great educational work of The Commoner among the people and greatly enlarge its sphere of influence. Mr. Bryan is now conducting a special "campaign of education." Each issue of The Commoner contains a special educational article on some pertinent political subject, designed to present, in an instructive way, authentic historical information on public questions, to analyze the opposing arguments, and to discuss their application to present day conditions. The following subjects, and others, upon which all Americans should be accurately informed, will be presented:

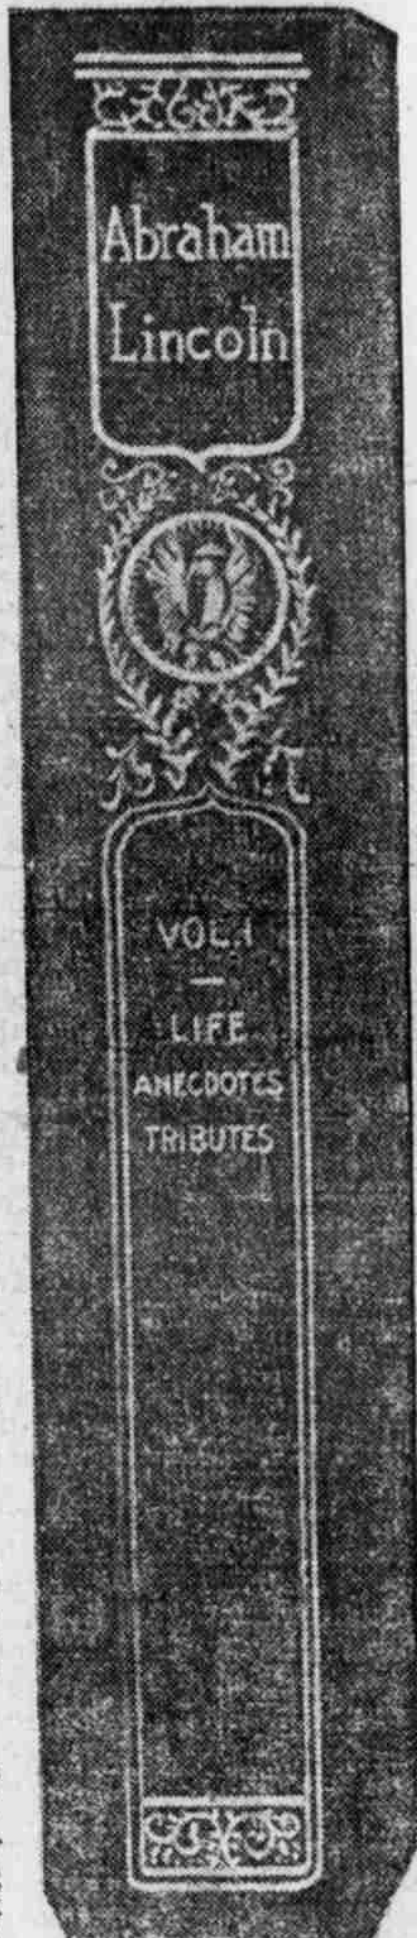

- The Tariff (by schedules as it affects the individual.)
- Postal Savings Banks.
- Imperialism.
- Colonialism.
- The Rights of the States.
- State-Wide Primary Laws.
- Inheritance Tax.
- Initiative and Referendum.
- Recall of Public Officials.
- Commission Form of Government for Cities.
- The Trust Question.
- Regulation of Railroads and other Corporations.
- Popular Election of Senators.
- Income Tax.

This series will afford a vast fund of political information, and excellent material for all students of economic questions, for schools and debating societies, worthy of preservation for future use. All friends of reform are invited to join us in making this "campaign of education" as far-reaching as possible in its influence. In addition, Mr. Bryan will give the editorial department his active, personal attention, and The Commoner will contain departments to interest the entire family.
