

Why

Don't you give your heart the same chance you do the other organs?

Why? Because when any other organ is in trouble, it refuses to work, and you hasten to repair it.

The heart, the ever faithful servant, never refuses as long as it has power to move, but continues to do the best it can, getting weaker and weaker, until it is past repair, and then stops. It is just as sick as the other organs, but because it will work you let it.

However, it's not too late for a "change of heart" so remember will give your heart strength and vitality to overcome Dizziness, Palpitation, Short Breath, Faint Spells, Pains in Heart and Side, and all other Heart aches and difficulties.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure

"My heart would ache and palpitate terribly, and at times I could hardly breathe. Dr. Miles' Heart Cure has restored me to perfect health, and I am very grateful."—MISS EMMA J. BARTON, No. 1 311 St., Watertown, N. Y.

A POLITICAL PACEMAKER

Colonel W. J. Bryan unquestionably occupies a very exalted position in the affections of the American people, aside from all questions of a political character. This eloquent statesman looms large as a world figure and he has attained that position by strength of character and by virtue of his great ability. Colonel Bryan has stood the severest of all tests—defeat. In spite of losing three times in the presidential race he is the idol of the democratic party and possibly the biggest man in the republic from the viewpoint of other nations.

Political success is largely a matter of accident, but the quality of W. J. Bryan's ability is no accident and it is by his attainments that he is in the public eye. Canadians have watched the development of Colonel Bryan more closely than he probably imagines and they are perhaps in a better position to take his measure than those of his own nation, swayed by political bias. It is at this angle Colonel Bryan has been watched during his public career by the Canadian public and they esteem him as a man, sincere, able, unselfish and in every way worthy of the great office he has sought.

It is perhaps not putting it too strongly to insist that Canadians attribute to Colonel Bryan's genius the policy of progression today being pursued by the American republic. He has been the pacemaker of the nation and republican success has unquestionably been due in a very considerable measure to the fact that the party had as its guiding force a man of sufficient capacity to discern Bryan's strength of purpose, the wisdom of his policy, and possessed the common sense to profit by the great example of the democratic leader. Had the republican leaders not understood that Bryan's position could not be successfully combatted, had they not undertaken in a measure to adopt his ideas, the probabilities are that the political history of the United States during the past dozen years would have to be rewritten.

It was Roosevelt with his matchless energy and ability to detect the value of his opponent's arguments and the courage to adopt his spirit of progress that defeated the democratic party and kept Colonel Bryan out of the White House.

But Colonel Bryan seems to have escaped that bitterness that so frequently accompanies political defeat. His way seems to be clear to him today in spite of repeated repulses. He is undaunted in purpose and still fired with that consuming ideal that has been his beacon since he first appeared in the political arena.

History will accord Colonel Bryan a high place as a man and a well equipped statesman and the Canadian public will ever regard him as the man largely responsible for the splendid impetus in public affairs given to the republic during the past decade.—Winnipeg (Manitoba) Telegram.

ELIZABETH WANTED HIM

Local Elks are having a lot of fun with a member of their lodge, a Fifteenth street jeweler. The other day his wife was in the jewelry store when the 'phone rang. She answered it.

"I want to speak to Mr. H—," said a woman's voice.

"Who is this?" demanded the jeweler's wife.

"Elizabeth."

"Well, Elizabeth, this is his wife.

Now, madam, what do you want?"

"I want to speak to Mr. H—."

"You'll talk to me."

"Please let me speak to Mr. H—."

The jeweler's wife grew angry.

"Look here, young lady," she said,

"who are you that calls my husband and insists on talking to him?" "I'm the telephone operator at Elizabeth," came the reply.

And now the Elks take turns calling the jeweler up and telling him it's Elizabeth.—Denver Post.
