aggregated three million dollars.

Judge Anderson in the federal court at Indianapolis refused to in the libel rases against the Indianapolis News. The hearing, was fixed for October 11. This is the case wherein the News is charged with libeling Theodore Roosevelt William Nelson Cromwell, Charles P. Taft and others.

The democratic city convention for New York by a unanimous vote nominated Justice william J. Gaynor to be mayor of Greater New nor to be mayor of Greater New York. His opponent is Otto Bannard, republican. An Associated Press dispatch says: "Justice Gaynor, the mayoralty candidate, is a native of Onelda county, New York, and is 58 years old. He became nationally known nearly a score o years ago for his work in breaking up rings within the democratic party and for his action in securing the conviction of John Y. McKane known as the czar of Coney Island, for election frauds. In national polor election frauds. In national politics a consistent and lifelong demo crat, Justice Gaynor was nominated or the supreme court by the repubifcans and independents of the city and since that time has twice deered nominations for gover He wa prominently his own pary. for the second place on the national democratic ticket at the Denver convention last year.

The democrats of Massachusetts have nominated the following ticket: For governor, James H, Vahey, WaEugene N. Foss, Scituate governor, Eugene N. Foss, Scituate; for secretary of state, Professor Arthur T. Clark, Williamstown; for treasurer and receiver general, James. H. Bryan, Westfield; for attorney general, Harvey N. Shepard of Boston; for auditor, Alexis Boyer, Jr., of Southbridge. The platform, which was an unusually lrier document, declared in favor of an immediate reduction of the tariff on the necessaries of life, a reciprocal trade treaty with Canada; the support of only such candidates for public offices as are pledged to the ratification of the are pledged to the ratifcation of the constitutional amendment favoring an income tax; the election of United States senators by popular vote, and direct nominations. Eugene N. Foss, the nominee for lieutenant governor, was formerly a republican member of congress and Harvey N. Shepard the nominee for attorney general, was also prominent as a reform republican.

Joe H. Thompson, one of the close advisors of President Andrew Johnson during his famous impeachment trial, died at his home in Shelbyville, Tenn., aged 77.

A New York dispatch carried by the Associated Press says: "Earnings Pacific Unilon Pacific and Southern August were made public as follows: Union Pacific-Gross earnings, 87 ,-

"CONSERVATISM"

The fitness of a man to hold such an office as secretary of the interior s not to be determined by his keeping just to the windy side of the law, even if Ballinger has succeeded in that laudable attempt. Thetis once gave to her son Achilles what she intended to be an immunity bath, but it did not work forever. Paris landed on Achilles' heel. As to our present friend, namesake of the terror of the Trojans, he is, at the most moderate statement, grossly unsuited to his post, and if Mr. Taft retalns him it will be an error from which he never will recover. Mr. Taft's cabinet is made up of able men, none of whom would exactly be called an anarchist. Perhaps the most singular thing the president did in that regard was to urge Mr. Humphrey Humphrey enjoying the idiosyncrasy of being about the only conspicuous of being about the only conspicuous be identified with the recent notable cleaning up accomplished in that eity. The offer of China to Fulton was not more amazing than the Humphrey fancy. The world started a bit when Mr. Taft began his western trip with a eulogy of Aldrich. Its eyes began to bulge when in the home of Tawney he almost read the tariff insurgents out of the republican party, The g. o. p., as it looks from here, is rapldiy diminishing. Aldrich, Tawney and Cannon are in the plnk of condition, but the mere rabble is being slaughtered with pro fusion. In the shallow, incomplete, and eulogistic essay on Ballinger section 190 of the revised statutes is not even mentioned, and $\mathbf{R}$. Achilles is hailed as the ideal man or the post; better fitted for his position, one might think, than even aldrich is for his. Prophecy is hazardous, but according to the Zodiae as read just now, the next presiden of the United States will be T. Roosevelt, another republican who is independent, or a democrat. Mr. Taf is one of the most conscientious men ever in office, and along some lines als intelligence also is distinguished. What he needs to fight against is the cacility with which he becomes an "easy mark." At present his ability to cope with the Aldrich-Tawneyn Cannon-Ballinger type of statesmen, and their associate business men and lawyers, about matches the ontlook for the proverblal snowball in tis une

Making a Good  Impression

A Person With Bad Breath Invariably Impresses People Unfavorably
Every one desires to make a good impression with other people with whom they come in contact, whether in a business or social way.
No matter how well dressed a person may be, or how well educated or accomplished, if he or she has an offensive breath, every other consideration and good quality is likely to be overlooked, and the impression made is likely to be an unfavorable one.

The employer in selecting an employe is almost certain to reject the applicant whose breath is offensive quisition in every may seem a good ac quisition in every other way.
No merchant cares to employ a lerk whose breath is foul, to wait clerk whose breath is foul, to wait on his customers; he would probably drive trade away. Neither does an official desire to have such a per son employed in his office.
Many a person making an application for a position has been rejected by a prospective employer on account of this undesirable possession, which proves so disagreeable to other persons, and often the applicant hasn't the slightest idea as to why he was "turned down," since he seemed to fill the requirements of the position in all particulars.
Every one who is so unfortunate o possess bad breath, whether caused by disordered stomach, decayed teeth or nasal catarrh, should se STUART'S CHARCOAL LOZGNGES, which afford immediate relief from this trouble.
Charcoal is a powerful absorbent of foul gases, and quickly oxidizes and purifies bad breath. The charoal from which these lozenges are made is the best that money can buy, and possesses a higher power of absorption not present in other and minor brands.
Bad breath from any cause can not exist for a moment when they are used, and all persons who are subject to foul and offensive breath should rid themselves of what amounts to a positive nuisance by using these powerful absorbing loz Enges,
Use them freely before going in company, or to church, or to the theater, in fact, to any place where you will be brought into close contact with other people.
Before visiting your dentist, or your physician, or your barber, purfy your breath, and take a box of and keep your breath pure and free from taint.

These lozenges surpass all others in their marvelous powers of absorpagain that theen proved again andred times their own volume in gases.
Every druggist has them in stock, price 250 per box. A free sample package will be sent to you, if you to the F. A. Stuart Co., 200 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.
