

George Friedlein, Guttenberg, Ia.; Steven Johns, Britton, S. D.; William F. Doyle, Watertown, S. D.; John C. Anderson, Emporia, Kan.; Howard Minton, Bison, Okla.; Anton Malmberg, Lafayette, Minn.; Carl G. Thayer, Brookings, S. D.; Ira J. Neff, Jordan, Mont.; John Bratley, Clearfield, Ia.; Dan Sullivan, Ortonville, Minn.; Dan Reimls, Sisseton, S. D.; Edw. Westley, Madison, S. D.; O. C. Wiegler, Moscow, Neb.; Charles Hoffman, Mobridge, S. D.; John T. Wilson, Columbia, Ia.; Nels Hanson, Lakefield, Minn.; Ferdinand Vesper, Hoven, S. D.; Francis Lynch, Minneapolis; James McCarthy, Peoztlot, Ia.; Christ Stoltz, Mandan, S. D.; Nathan Hemery, Watertown, S. D.; George Ross, St. Louis; Roy Sweeney, Cleveland, N. D.; Howard B. Darling, Fargo, N. D.; C. F. Heath, Dickinson, N. D.; Emil G. Steinhalm, White, S. D.; Tilton Davis, Jr., Lexington, Mo.; Harvey O'Brien, Pierre, S. D.; Anthony Schiller, New Ulm, Minn.; M. E. McCoy, New Hampton, Mo.; James D. Ratchford, Marmarth, N. D.

A score of people lost their lives by the wreck of the Donaldson line steamer "Hestia" bound from Glasgow to St. Johns and Baltimore.

Arthur J. McCabe of Topeka, Kan., has been chosen assistant to Attorney General Wickersham. A Topeka dispatch, referring to this appointment, says: "This is the place for which President Taft asked Governor Stubbs to choose a man. The governor chose Robert Stone of Topeka. Later Senator Curtis headed a delegation that protested to the president, and the appointment was revoked. McCabe was appointed about two weeks ago, but the matter, it is said, was kept secret both in Topeka and Washington.

Washington dispatches say that the republican insurgents will try to defeat Representative Hull of Iowa for re-nomination.

One of the peculiar features of the New York municipal campaign developed when Judge Gaynor, democratic nominee for mayor, brought suit for libel against the New York World, which is (in its own peculiar way) supporting Judge Gaynor. The World printed in its columns an article attacking Judge Gaynor which article was written by Arthur Brisbane, editorial writer for the Hearst papers.

The United States District Attorney at Chicago has called upon the federal court of appeals to direct that John R. Walsh be locked up. Walsh was the owner of the Chicago Chronicle and was convicted of misapplying the funds of the Chicago National bank. The district attorney says that he fears Mr. Walsh is getting ready to leave the country.

William Hobart Hare, bishop of the missionary district of South Dakota Protestant Episcopal church, is dead. He was famous for his work among the Indians.

General Oliver O. Howard, said to be the last of the union commanders of the civil war, died at his home in Burlington, Vt. He was 79 years of age.

Robert S. Lovett was elected president of the Union Pacific railroad to succeed E. H. Harriman.

Ten men lost their lives in an explosion in a coal mine near Harts-horne, Okla.

Rufus W. Peckham, associate justice of the United States supreme court, died at his home near Albany, N. Y. He was a democrat and appointed to the bench by Grover Cleveland.

A Youngstown, Ohio, dispatch carried by the Associated Press says: "Six of the fifteen county officeholders, contractors and a salesman, under indictment for accepting and giving bribes, have pleaded guilty of the charges against them. John Hanni, former county commissioner, James Price, Samuel Brunstetter and North Newton, former good roads commissioners, waived trial and pleaded guilty to accepting bribes. O. C. Starr, a salesman of Columbus, also waived a trial and pleaded guilty to bribing the goods roads commissioners. Former County Commissioner Warren H. Kale stood trial but after listening to the testimony of the state, stopped further proceedings by pleading guilty. Price, Brunstetter and Starr came into court today."

Alex McFarland was arrested at Huntington, W. Va., charged with the murder of Thomas H. Patten at Hendricks, Ky., twenty-two years ago. McFarland escaped and settled down in West Virginia, beginning life under the name of Press Carter. He married and reared a family of five children. Now he must answer for his old crime.

Washington dispatches say that President Taft will appoint to the supreme bench as the successor of the late Justice Peckham, Horace H. Lurton of Nashville, Tenn., judge of the United States circuit court in the Sixth district.

Gonzalo de Quesada, former minister to the United States from Cuba, has been chosen to represent the United States as the arbitrator in the dispute between this government and that of Venezuela concerning the Orinoco Steamship company's claim.

King Edward of England has appointed a commission to inquire into the condition of divorce laws in his country.

The London authorities continue to have trouble with the "suffragettes." One woman wearing the suffragette colors smashed a bottle containing corrosive acid on a ballot box, injuring several election officials. She was arrested.

John D. Rockefeller has given one million dollars for the establishment of a commission which is to fight what is called the "hook worm disease." Some scientists have claimed that the hook worm is a parasite that produces a form of anemia which results in laziness. The efforts of the commission will, therefore be, with the help of Mr. Rockefeller, to abolish laziness.

Dr. Frederick A. Cook, the arctic explorer, delivered an address at Hamilton, Mont. That is the home of Edward M. Barrill, who recently made an affidavit that Dr. Cook had never reached the summit of Mt. McKinley. Dr. Cook was catechised by the attorney for Barrill and Printz, the guides, both of whom were present. After a stormy session the meeting adopted a resolution expressing confidence in the veracity of Barrill and Printz.

The ashes of Mrs. Margaret Howell Jefferson Davis Hayes, daughter of the confederacy, have been taken to Richmond, Va., where they were deposited.

Federal Judge Holt of New York discharged Kissel and Harney, who were indicted with the American Sugar Refinery company for conspiracy under the anti-trust laws. The opinion is such a far-reaching one that government attorneys say that if sustained it will practically annul the law against conspiracy in restraint of trade.

The Iowa equal suffrage association, in session at Des Moines, adopted resolutions to the effect that the association "do endorse obstructive methods in the legislature and do further resolve that arrangements be perfected to carry out such methods."

C. H. Aldrich, a former state senator and living at David City, Neb., has announced his candidacy for the republican nomination for governor in 1910.

The next annual convention of the W. C. T. U. will be held at Baltimore at a date yet to be fixed but some time after November 8, 1910.

Federal Judge Grosscup has refused the petition of the United States district attorney to order John R. Walsh locked up.

Mrs. Van Deman, wife of Captain Van Deman of the United States army, made the ascension at College Park, Md., with Wilbur Wright.

Tour of the World Post Cards

FREE

With every yearly subscription to The American Homestead at the regular yearly subscription price, Fifty Cents

A handsome set of Fifty (50) Beautiful Post Cards, no two alike, reproduced direct from photographs taken by a noted traveler and expert photographer on one of his numerous trips around the world.

Without leaving home, you can see, with this wonderful collection of cards, scenes and people, both domestic and foreign, which would cost you thousands of dollars and many months of actual travel to visit.

This beautiful set of fifty cards is unquestionably one of the most valuable Educational Series of post cards ever issued. Finished in beautiful natural colors, it vividly portrays the noted scenes and points of interest of the United States as well as from Canada, Mexico, Cuba, England, Scotland, Ireland, Norway, Germany, Switzerland, France, Spain, Italy, Egypt, Australia, and other countries on the face of each card is a description of the place illustrated.

Everybody nowadays collects post-cards, but how seldom we get one from a world-renowned or historically famous place. These reproductions from actual photographs, in life colors, are not only wonderful from a mechanical standpoint and the height of the printer's art, but are highly instructive and entertaining to every member of the family.

SEND AT ONCE AND GET ONE OF THESE FREE SETS

We want everybody to enjoy this Trip Around the World with us, and by our offer it is so easy that we are sure that you will not let this opportunity pass. If you are collecting post-cards you should not fail to add this handsome set to your collection.

To every one sending us 50 cents for one year's subscription to The American Homestead, we will send free and postage prepaid one set (50) of our Beautiful Tour of the World Post-Cards. Fill out coupon below, and send remittance to THE AMERICAN HOMESTEAD, Lincoln, Neb.

Eyeglasses Not Necessary

Eyesight Can Be Strengthened, and Most Forms of Diseased Eyes Successfully Treated Without Cutting or Drugging.

That the eyes can be strengthened so that eye glasses can be dispensed with in many cases has been proven beyond a doubt by the testimony of hundreds of people who publicly claim that their eyesight has been restored by that wonderful little instrument called "Actina." "Actina" also relieves sore and granulated lids, iritis, etc., and removes cataracts without cutting or drugging. Over 75,000 "Actinas" have been sold, therefore "Actina" is not an experiment, but a reliable method of treatment.

"Actina" can be used by old and young with perfect safety. It is impossible to do harm with one. Every member of the family can use the one instrument for any form of disease of the Eye, Ear, Throat or Head. One will last for years, and is always ready for use. It will be sent on trial, postpaid. If you will send your name and address to the Actina Appliance Co., Dept. 351 N. 811 Walnut Str., Kansas City, Mo., you will receive, absolutely FREE a valuable book—Professor Wilson's Treatise on Disease.

A Farm and Household Paper That is Guaranteed

MY POSITIVE GUARANTEE

I hereby guarantee to refund the money paid for a yearly subscription to The American Homestead, to any subscriber who, after receiving three issues of the paper, is not satisfied that the information and suggestions contained in each and every issue are worth more than the amount paid for one year's subscription, and make no charge for issues already received.—CHARLES W. BRYAN, Publisher

Coupon for Free World Tour Post Cards

The American Homestead, Lincoln, Nebraska.

Gentlemen: I am pleased to accept your very liberal offer to send The American Homestead one year for 50 cents, which I herewith enclose; also a set (50) of your Beautiful Tour of the World Post-Cards, to be sent to me prepaid without extra cost.

Name .....

P. O. ....