Address All Orders to THE COMMONER, Lincoln, Neb.

beyond measure, as an American, that this—one of the greatest feats of the ages—should have been performed by a fellow countryman of ours. It is the greatest feat of our generation. We are Captain Peary's debtors, all of us who belong to civilized mankind. Faithfully, Theodore Roosevelt."

Washington estimates indicate that under the new corporation tax law there will be a net revenue of approximately $25,000,000 annually and 122,000 corporations are likely to have to pay corporation taxes. There are many uncertainties about its effects. In one of the far southwest states, for instance, it has been found that not over 10 per cent of many thousands of corporations whose official existence was authorized, have ever actually done business. Improper registration in many cases is expected with such a gigantic scheme, but the seriousness of the penalties under the law will apply just the same to those who fail to get the forms and regulations. The mailing of the forms and blanks to every corporation listed in the various districts is not specifically required by law and is merely to assist the corporations. Those not registered should apply immediately to the collectors. All the returns are required to be in the collector's hands by March 1, then sent to the internal revenue bureau here, where the tax will be assessed and the tax-paying corporations notified by June 1 that the tax is to be paid by July 1. The government takes the position that the tax, while it is for the calendar year preceding the collection, really does not date back; that it is an excise and not an income tax and that it is, in fact, merely a license to do business during the year for which it is collected.

Phil Allen, Jr., former vice president of the First National bank at Mineral Point, Wis., pleaded guilty to the charge of embezzlement and was sentenced to ten years imprisonment in the federal prison at Fort Leavenworth.

The funeral of the late David A. DeArmond took place at Butler, Mo., November 26. An Associated Press dispatch says: "Hundreds of prominent public men of Missouri and many from outside the state joined the citizens of Butler today in paying respect to the memory of Representative David A. DeArmond, who met a fiery death here last Tuesday in a vain effort to save the life of his favorite grandson, David A. DeArmond III. All Butler was in mourning. The bodies of both victims were buried in the local cemetery in one casket following simple services at the Methodist Episcopal church, where the congressman had been a member. The burial services were in charge of the Masonic lodge. No such honor and show of affection for a departed citizen had been displayed in Missouri in many years. The coffin was banked high with floral emblems and the little church was crowded till another person could not have entered. Crowds of mourners blocked the streets leading to the church and hundreds followed the bodies to the cemetery and stood about the graves. Among the mourners, members of the family of the congressman, who had come from a distance, were Edward H. DeArmond, a son of the deceased who is an instructor at West Point and two brothers, William DeArmond of Chicago, and James DeArmond of Davenport. The only missing member of the family was Lieutenant George W. W. DeArmond, another son, now serving with the army in the Philippines. Governor Hadley of Missouri and United States Senators Warner and Stone were present. One of the active pall bearers was Representative W. A. Jones of Warsaw, Va. Representatives DeArmond and Jones entered congress at the same time and for years they had been intimate friends."

Here is a good word for Uncle Joe Cannon. An Associated Press dis-

Failure

to cure indigestion is largely due to the old theory that when the stomach becomes inactive it needs something to mechanically digest its contents, and cathartics, purgatives, etc., are used, which give only temporary relief, because they digest by irritating the lining of the stomach.

Modern science recognizes the fact that it is the nerves that furnish motive power to digest the contents of the stomach.

The nerves agitate and mix the food, and stimulate the secretions. When they become weakened they lack energy, and indigestion, dyspepsia, sour stomach result.

Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine

will relieve obstinate cases of indigestion, dyspepsia and stomach trouble by strengthening these nerves.

"I had severe stomach trouble. Dr. Miles' Nervine, and Nerve and Liver Pills cured me. I can now eat anything without trouble."
