and he is very much of a gentleman in his manner and personal appearance, while Castro was not only ignorant, but he was a personification of the brute in human form.

On the other hand, there is the present ruler of Guatemala, Cabrera, who is a rare exception to them all, for he is a despicable coward maintained in power by a host of satellites, who cajole him and flatter him, making him believe that he is the greatest man on earth, while they, as a matter of fact, hold the reins of a despotism as arbitrary, cruel, and corrupt as that of Nero, who fiddled while Rome was burning.

Letters from the People

Smith C. Peddigo, Saint Jo, Texas.
—Having noticed that Mr. J. W. Bailey in his Fort Worth speech censures you for distributing copies of The Commoner in this state and also mentions part of your working force, I wish to inform you that Mr. Bailey's personal paper, the Fort Worth Record, is making strenuous efforts to reach every voter. The solicitor here stated that they had more than one hundred solicitors in the state at a paid salary of $100 besides commission and they make an offer of the paper for a year together with a map for $1, and make the argument to secure subscriptions that the map is worth the money, and that they are GIVING AWAY THE PAPER. This solicitor's name I have not at hand but can get if it will be of service. Be assured that the large majority of voters are not being led into being "protection democrats" but we will be for free raw material so long as the democratic party of the United States make it part of the platform. This, as you probably know, is an adjoining county to Mr. Bailey's home.

V. B. Kittel, New Richmond, Wis.
—I read with interest an article in your paper of September 10, taken from the New York Times. I have no desire to champion Mr. Bryan's cause; we think he is able to look after his own interests. That article is an insult to democracy and the intelligence of democrats who have followed the lead of Mr. Bryan. The great democratic party wouldn't tolerate any man's thrusting himself upon the party. The nomination for presidential candidate sought the man, not the man the nomination. We chose him for his unswerving adherence to the principles of democracy and his safe way of treating much needed reform. Today the United States are confronted with two different policies of government; Messrs. Aldrich and Cannon represent one, such men as Mr. Bryan, Senators Gore, LaFollette, Cummins and others, who believe in equal opportunities before the law and deny the right of the dollar to enslave the man who created it. The Aldrich system assists corporations and combines in extortion and robbery. The policy of Mr. Bryan and his adherents is to encourage corporations of all kinds in any and every legitimate enterprise, accords to capital a just compensation but does not allow capital to rob labor. Last year the people chose Aldrichism and they have just what they voted for. Just as long as we send a majority to congress of the Aldrich-Cannon school of thought and choose presidents who are more concerned about big dividends to corporations than about the toiling masses, just so long laborers will be in bondage. The people have got just what they voted for last year. If any one is in doubt and think I have claimed too much—if he is a believer in the brotherhood of man I suggest he get out the national democratic platform of last year and read it carefully. Then take Mr.

Bryan's various statements, telling his plan of treating various corporate interests and see if it don't look reasonable; his policy would regulate without destroying or damaging business interests. Then get out the president's speech of acceptance and read that carefully. If you are not party blind you will see he had more solicitude for the owners of large corporations than about the men who do the work. If we are to have good times for all the people we must send men to congress and choose presidents committed to equal rights for all, special privileges for none.
