The Western Union Telegraph company has discontinued its service to a number of stock brokers in Pittsburg and Johnstown, Pa., Syracuse, Ithaca, Rome, Utica, Gloversville, Auburn, Watertown and Cortland, New York. This action was caused by the recent raids made on bucketshops. Later the service was restored.

Casper Koehler, president of the Columbia Brewing company, St. Louis, died at Berlin, Germany, aged 72.

Mrs. Ella Flagg Young, superintendent of schools in Chicago, was elected president of the National Educational Association in session at Boston. An Associated Press dispatch says: "Her opponent, Zachariah Xenophon Snyder, president of the state normal school of Colorado, who was the selection of the nominating committee representing all the states, was defeated by a vote of 617 to 376 in the general convention. It took a clear parliamentary head to cut the knot which the nominating committee had tied about Mr. Snyder, but the women were equal to the task and, as Mrs. Young had resigned as a candidate for second vice president on the ticket presented to the general convention, her friends put her up as a direct candidate against Mr. Snyder. When Mrs. Young was declared the winner, the convention immediately accepted the other names presented by the committee as follows: Treasurer, P. W. Springer, Michigan; vice presidents, James Y. Joyner, Raleigh, N. C.; Miss Julia Richman, New York; G. L. Cook, Spearfish, S. D.; George A. McFarland, Valley City, N. D.; Thomas C. Miller, Shepardstown, W.

Va.; Charles S. Foss, Reading, Pa.; Homer F. Sweerley, Cedar Falls, Ia.; F. O. Hayes, Alva, Okla.; E. T. Fairfield, Topeka, Kan.; Samuel Avery, Lincoln, Neb.; C. A. Dunmay, Bozeman, Mont."

A Salt Lake City dispatch carried by the Associated Press says: "Publication by the Herald-Republican of the confession of Harry Thorne, when the latter was about to be tried for the murder of George W. Fassell, and the reprinting of the confession while talesmen were being examined, was contempt of court, according to District Judge T. D. Lewis, who imposed fines on the newspaper, its general manager, two editors and a reporter. George T. Hale, general manager of the Herald-Republican Publishing company, was fined $200 on each count. The managing editor, city editor and court reporter were each fined $10."

New York dispatches say that Porter Charlton may be given his liberty. His case in Jersey City was continued to August 11, and it is thought that the Jersey City court may discharge him. If Italy then demands his extradition the state department will refuse it unless the Italian government agrees to turn over to the United States in the future all Italians who commit crimes in this country and flee to Italy. It is understood that Italy will not agree to this and Charlton, who killed his wife may go without punishment.

A Newark, O., dispatch carried by the Associated Press says: "Carl Etherton, 22 years old, employed Thursday night by the state anti-saloon league as a blind tiger raider, was lynched here at 10:35 tonight, following a day of almost continuous rioting. The heavy doors of the Licking county jail were battered down and Etherton was dragged from his cell. He was shot, kicked and bruised before the street was reached and the finish followed quickly. Etherton, early in the evening, confessed he killed William Howard, proprietor of the 'Last Chance' restaurant and former chief of police in a raid of alleged 'speak easies' this afternoon and narrowly escaped lynching at that time. When news from the hospital that Howard had died passed over the city at 9 o'clock tonight, the fury of the mob took definite form. Large battering rams were directed upon the doors of the Licking county jail, and the deputies were powerless. The doors fell after nearly an hour's attack. Crying piteously, Etherton, a curly-headed Kentuckian, who had been serving as a strike-breaker since he was released from marine service three months ago, was dragged forth. 'I didn't mean to do it,' he wailed. His cries fell upon deaf ears. Fearing that the mob spirit would not be satisfied by one victim, Sheriff Linke immediately asked Adjutant General Weybrecht for troops to protect six other 'dry' raiders held at the city prison in another section of the town. A hurried guard was thrown out in their defense. The mob, after the first taste of blood, seemed to be quiet, but it was feared that they might storm the city prison before the night was finished. Etherton's last moments, while he heard the mob battering down the doors, were spent in praying and writing a note to his parents, farmers residing near Willisburg, Ky. 'What will mother say when she hears of this?' he kept moaning to the jailer."

In the government suit before the federal court at Kansas City on bleached flour the jury found that the flour was adulterated and misbranded. An Associated Press dispatch from Kansas City says: "Millers say that the bleached flour decisions will handicap the farmers of the southwest to the extent of from fifteen to eighteen million dollars a year. They say the old differential of 5 cents a bushel, in vogue in Chicago and St. Louis markets five years ago before bleached flour came in, will soon appear again. They further say that farmers of Missouri, Kansas, Oklahoma and Nebraska will lose five cents a bushel on their present crop and that hard winter wheat soon will be selling at 25 cents a bushel less than at present. Already millers are considering the establishment of bleaching stations in states where the use of bleached flour is not prohibited. Thus they say they may avoid the interstate commerce law. Big mills whose product is turned out in states where bleached flour is illegal may ship their unbleached into the states where the sale of it is permitted, unload it at these bleaching stations, bleach it and distribute it in the state."

Folk of Missouri for the democratic nomination for president. His father, Henry B. Folk of Tennessee, was a native of Bertie county, leaving there when he was 21 years old."

Now comes a Colorado man and claims that after all Dr. Cook was not a faker. A Colorado Springs dispatch carried by the Associated Press says: "P. J. Carrigan, an able seaman and placer miner, who arrived in Colorado Springs a few days ago, said today that he himself had climbed Mt. McKinley and found there the copper tube and records left there by Dr. Cook to establish the latter's claim of having first ascended the mountain. Carrigan's story is regarded by John R. Bradley, Dr. Cook's backer, as sufficiently plausible to warrant careful investigation."

THE LORD OF LITTLE CHILDREN
The Lord of Little Children to the sleeping mothers spake:
"Lo, the dreaming time is over, ye the hand of Life must take;
And the dawn was in our faces as we startled up awake,
On Liberty's great day.

We have heard the babes that called us from the whirr of wheel and loom,
In a world of sun and meadows crying for a little room,
Ere their blood ran to the coffers, ere their labor made their tomb;
And we arise and go.

We have heard our sister weeping for the child that must not live,
For the hands that may not tend it, for the milk she may not give;
We have seen her kneel in anguish and the bitter blow receive,
And we arise and go.

Over law unblessed, unsanctioned by a mother's holy name,
Law that gives the child to bondage and the woman unto shame,
See the star of justice rising with a dread, consuming flame!
'Tis bringing in His day,
—Oliver Tilford Dargan.

Each of the chief organs of the body is a link in the Chain of Life. A chain is no stronger than its weakest link, the body no stronger than its weakest organ. If there is weakness of stomach, liver or lungs, there is a weak link in the chain of life which may snap at any time. Often this so-called "weakness" is caused by lack of nutrition, the result of weakness or disease of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. Diseases and weaknesses of the stomach and its allied organs are cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. When the weak or diseased stomach is cured, diseases of other organs which seem remote from the stomach but which have their origin in a diseased condition of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition, are cured also.

The strong man has a strong stomach. Take the above recommended "Discovery" and you may have a strong stomach and a strong body.
