

Ridpath's History a Household Treasure

Pres. William McKinley said: "I am familiar with the merits of Ridpath's History of the World, and cordially commend it to the scholar as well as to the plain people generally."

Professor Long, Supt. Public Schools, St. Louis, said: "I unhesitatingly commend Dr. Ridpath's History of the World as the ablest work on that subject which I have ever examined. The engravings, maps and charts are alone worth the entire cost of the set."

Pres. Benjamin Harrison said: "The author's labors are deserving of the highest praise. The printing and binding are first class and the illustrations are numerous and of a high order. I most heartily recommend this great work for study and convenient reference."

Dr. Bartlett, Pres. Dartmouth College, said: "It is a popular history of wide range, and brought down from the most ancient to the most modern times. The style is clear, the narrative well balanced, and the statements reliable. The worth of such a work to every young man or woman, or in a family of children, is beyond calculation."

Jefferson Davis said: "I esteem Ridpath's History of the World of a very great value, and hope it will find a place generally in the libraries of our schools, as well as upon the shelves of readers in every walk of life."

The Christian Herald said: "No other work of its kind has ever supplied a history so well suited to the needs of all classes and conditions of men. We cheerfully commend this most popular and complete of all world histories to our readers."

Gen. Lew Wallace, author of Ben Hur, said: "I have not words to sufficiently recommend Prof. Ridpath's History of the World. The author has done his work in the most thorough and interesting manner. No library is complete without it."

Prof. Warren, Pres. Boston University, said: "I should be glad to see it placed in the library of every young person in the United States, and even in the English-speaking world. In families where there are bright children it will render excellent service to the cause of popular intelligence."

200,000 AMERICANS

Have purchased this great history in the past twenty years at double our special price and every purchaser is a staunch friend. This means that practically as many Americans have bought Ridpath as have bought the great Encyclopedia Britannica and the Century Dictionary combined. Can you imagine any greater testimonial for any book? Dr. Ridpath's Immortal Work commands the admiration of the English-speaking world. It is endorsed by the scholarship of the world, and by the great American people as the only history of the world worth having. Ridpath was a strong advocate of the rights and liberties of the common people. In 1896 he was the democratic nominee for congress in his home district and received the warm support of the leader of the party. Dr. Ridpath is dead but his work lives. He devoted his entire life to writing the History of the World. It is absolutely accurate and impartial, and commands the admiration of the English-speaking world.

9 massive octavo volumes, Encyclopedia size

4,000 double-column pages. 2,000 superb illustrations.

Ridpath's enviable position as an historian is due to his wonderfully beautiful style; a style no other historian has ever equalled. He pictures the great historical events as though they were happening before your eyes; he carries you with him to see the battles of old; to meet kings and queens and warriors; to sit in the Roman Senate; to march against Saladin and his dark-skinned followers; to sail the southern seas with Drake; to circumnavigate the globe with Magellan; to watch that thin line of Greek spearmen work havoc with the Persian hordes on the field of Marathon; to know the past as you know the present.

Ridpath in your home means you need never spend a lonely evening. You can associate with the world's heroes; you can cross the Rubicon with Caesar, after which Rome was free no more. You can sit at the feet of Socrates, the loftiest genius of the ancient world. It is ennobling to commune with these children of destiny. To be associated with great men is to be great one's self, and you will add to your store of knowledge, which is power, and to the richness of your life.

Fathers qualify your boys and girls for the great battle of life. It is admitted the best foundation of an education is to acquire the habit of reading good books. Next to the Bible Ridpath's History of the World is the most valuable work you can place in your home. It will acquaint your children with the great facts of history and give them the habit of reading that which is true and ennobling instead of dime novels and trashy literature. Ridpath covers every race, every nation, every time, and holds you spellbound by his wonderful eloquence. Nothing more interesting, absorbing and inspiring was ever written by man. The day must come in the course of events when the chair of your boy or girl will be empty by your fire-side and they will be out struggling alone in the world. Equip them now for the struggle by placing Ridpath's History of the World in your home. It will repay you a thousandfold.

Mothers you know, as all the world knows, that the success in life of your boys and girls is heaven to you. There is little else in the world worth living for. "Give your boys and girls a chance." Give them an education which will fit them for the stern realities of life. Teach them to love home by making the home so attractive that it is worth loving. Place in your home good, interesting, truthful books for your children. In this day and age of fierce competition it is little short of a misfortune for any boy or girl to grow up without the equipment of a good education, and especially a knowledge of history. In the words of Lincoln, "Give your boys and girls a chance." Send Coupon Today for Free sample pages of the greatest history of the world ever written.
