

of trade. Justice White concurred in that amazingly technical "commodities clause" decision construing the Hepburn railroad act to mean

How to Get Rid of Catarrh

A Simple, Safe, Reliable Way, and it Costs Nothing to Try

Those who suffer from catarrh know its miseries. There is no need of this suffering. You can get rid of it by a simple, safe, inexpensive, home treatment discovered by Dr. Blosser, who, for over thirty-six years, has been treating catarrh successfully.

His treatment is unlike any other. It is not a spray, douche, salve, cream, or inhaler, but is a more direct and thorough treatment than any of these. It cleans out the head, nose, throat and lungs so that you can again breathe freely and sleep without that stopped-up feeling that all catarrh sufferers have. It heals the diseased mucous membranes and arrests the foul discharge, so that you will not be constantly blowing your nose and spitting, and at the same time it does not poison the system and ruin the stomach, as internal medicines do.

If you want to test this treatment without cost, send your address to Dr. J. W. Blosser, 144 Walton Street, Atlanta, Ga., and he will send you by return mail enough of the medicine to satisfy you that it is all he claims for it as a remedy for catarrh, catarrhal headaches, catarrhal deafness, asthma, bronchitis, colds and all catarrhal complications. He will also send you free an illustrated booklet. Write him immediately.

that railroads themselves could not own mines the product of which they carried, but that the clause did not prevent the railroads owning stock in third companies, which, in turn, controlled the mines. Justice White wrote that opinion. Justice White was of the majority that declared the employers' liability law unconstitutional, and he shares the responsibility for the Knight case sugar trust decision that manufacturing is not commerce.

ECONOMY IN ART

"Of course," said Mr. Sirius Barker, "I want my daughter to have some sort of an artistic education. I think I'll have her study singing."

"Why not art or literature?" "Art spoils canvas and paint and literature wastes reams of paper. Singing merely produces a temporary disturbance of the atmosphere."—Washington Star.

LIKE A MAN

"Did Hardlucke bear his misfortune like a man?" "Exactly like one. He blamed it all on his wife."—Judge.

"HOBBLED"

Mistress—"What does this mean, Jane? You know you should be back at 10 o'clock."

Jane—"Very sorry, mum. It's the fault of these new skirts. I had to take such short steps that it took longer than I expected to get home."—Boston Transcript.

The workman who takes an active interest in his work seldom has to pay usurious interest to the chattel mortgage shark.

A New, Complete Edition of Mr. Bryan's Speeches

Containing All of His Important Public Utterances

In two handy volumes. You can follow Mr. Bryan practically through his entire career, from his valedictory oration at Illinois College in 1881, through his early public life, his presidential campaigns, his world tours, his platform experiences, and his participation in meetings of organizations devoted to national progress, as well as international congresses for the promotion of the world's peace.

The subject matter of these speeches covers a wide range of topics, from the fundamental and vital problems of national and world life to the highest ideals of human endeavor. A handy means of reference to the student of social problems of the present and future.

ONLY AUTHORIZED, COMPLETE COLLECTION

While Mr. Bryan's speeches, lectures and public addresses have appeared from time to time in different editions of his works, or have been issued in separate form, these two volumes contain the only authentic, complete and authoritative collection of all of his speeches ever issued. This is the first publication in book form of a complete collection of Mr. Bryan's speeches from his first entry in public life up to the present time.

Two Handy Volumes

This complete collection comprises two handsome 12 mo. volumes containing 750 pages. Frontispieces showing Mr. Bryan at various stages of his career, with biographical introduction by his wife, Mary Baird Bryan. Printed on good paper in large, clear type and handsomely bound. The two-volume set sent prepaid to any address on receipt of the following prices: Bound in blue cloth, gilt tops, $2.25; bound in half leather, gilt tops, $3.25. Liberal offer to agents; write for terms.

SPECIAL OFFER—For a short time only, we will include with each order received at the above prices, a year's subscription to The Commoner, without extra cost. If you are a subscriber to The Commoner your date of expiration will be advanced one year. To secure this offer coupon must accompany order. Address and make remittance payable to THE COMMONER, Lincoln, Neb.

SPECIAL OFFER COUPON

The Commoner, Lincoln, Neb. I accept your liberal short time offer for the new books, "The Speeches of William Jennings Bryan," which includes, without extra cost, a year's subscription to The Commoner. Books to be sent prepaid to address below. (Mark offer wanted.)

I enclose $2.25 for The Speeches of William Jennings Bryan, 2 vols., cloth binding, and The Commoner for one year..... I enclose $3.25 for The Speeches of William Jennings Bryan, 2 vols., half leather binding, and The Commoner for one year.....

Name

P. O. If now a subscriber to The Commoner your date of expiration will be advanced one year.

We Want Those Who Appreciate Opportunities To Read Every Word of This Advertisement

Because it contains a message that may mean more to you than any announcement you have ever read during the whole course of your life.

Because it tells of a genuine, bona fide opportunity, one that will bear the closest scrutiny you can possibly make, one that if taken advantage of may mean wealth and independence to you.

This is one of those opportunities that come to everyone some time or other. This is one of those opportunities that some people will act upon and receive the benefits that their good judgment and foresight entitle them to.

This is one of those opportunities that looks "too good to be true" to some people—one of those rare chances that they will look back upon a few years from now and be sorry they did not accept while it was within their reach.

The opportunity which we ask you to consider now is at Mission, Texas, the location of the Famous La Lomita Irrigated Lands in the rich and fertile Lower Rio Grande Valley of the Wonderful Gulf Coast Country of Texas.

When we tell you that these lands are now producing net cash returns of from $100 to $1,000 per acre per year, the statement seems almost too good to be true. BUT WE PROVE IT.

When we tell you that people who have purchased Mission Lands have made enough money on the first year's crops to more than pay for their land, it looks as though we were drawing on our imagination. BUT WE PROVE IT.

When we tell you that Mission Lands are now producing net returns of 6 per cent on a valuation of $500 per acre, it seems as though we were stretching it a little. BUT WE PROVE IT.

When we tell you that some people at Mission make more money from 10 acres of ground than scores of thousands of farmers in other regions are making on 160-acre northern farms, it reads like a fairy tale. BUT WE PROVE IT!

When we tell you that those who purchased Mission Lands only two years ago can sell their holdings for double the money paid, it sounds almost incredible. BUT WE PROVE IT!

WE PROVE ALL THESE STATEMENTS, but we don't ask you to take our word for it. The best way to buy land is to take nothing for granted—KNOW it. We invite you to come and see these lands for yourself. A tour of inspection won't cost much.

Anyway, the trains run daily, and twice each month you can get a homeseekers' ticket at a surprisingly low cost, and come down and see the Mission Lands with your own eyes. Then you can decide for yourself.

It makes the best sort of a winter excursion, and you will never have done a better stroke of business in your life, if you go back with a deed to a tract of Mission Land in your pocket.

If you decide to come, you take no risk whatever. We will prove by the grain and truck farmers now living on our Mission Lands all of the statements made in our advertising or descriptive pamphlets, or refund the travelling expenses of the prospective purchaser. Could we make this offer if we didn't mean business?

If you come to Mission you will find many things that you will marvel at. You will wonder at the magnificent future of the Texas Gulf Coast country.

You will find opportunities for the large or small investor—for farmers, city people, truck and fruit growers, etc.

You see a country that produces two, three and four crops per year on the same ground.

You will come to a country where crops are growing in profusion while things are at a standstill in other sections of the country.

You will find a country with 12 months of growing season, and a soil and climate adapted to the growing of the widest range of products.

You will find northern people living and making good there.

You will see the famous Lower Rio Grande Valley, its fertile soils, its magnificent irrigation system, supplying an abundance of water from the Rio Grande river at all times, making big crops a practical certainty.

In this fertile valley you will see beets, citrus fruits, figs, grapes, alfalfa, sugar cane, cauliflower, celery, strawberries, cotton, corn, onions, cabbage, etc., grown more successfully than any place you have ever visited.

You will see growers getting their products to market weeks ahead of any other section of the United States, and getting the highest prices.

You will find the finest summer and winter climate in America.

Don't wait until next year before investigating this opportunity. Large or small tracts can yet be procured on reasonable terms, but they will be higher, and perhaps out of your reach next year.

Our illustrated booklet will tell you more about this extraordinary proposition. Fill out the coupon and get it. Don't be among those who will say a few years from now, "I had a chance to buy at Mission, but failed to act." Mail the coupon TODAY.

Cut This Out and Mail Today.

FREE INFORMATION COUPON

Farm Land Investment Co., Lincoln, Neb.

Gentlemen: Please send me full information about your Mission Irrigated Lands, round-trip excursion rates, etc.

Name

P. O.

Farm Land Investment Co., Exclusive Agents, 365 Fraternity Building, Lincoln, Nebraska.