FREE MEDICINE FOR CATARRH

If You Suffer from this Loathsome and Dangerous Disease, Your Name and Address Will Bring to You Our Catarrh Medicine FREE.

We are specialists in the treatment and cure of Catarrh. We know that we have the right treatment for Catarrh and we are going to prove it. We want to prove it in the quickest possible way; therefore we make this offer of one month's Catarrh medicine FREE. After carefully reading the symptoms enumerated below, write us indicating those you feel in your case, and upon receipt of your letter with name and address, we will send you one full month's treatment FREE. Now we will tell you why we can afford to make you this liberal offer. Ours is not a "cure all" nostrum, such as is dealt out to all alike, independent of age, temperament or condition, but instead is a scientific course of medicine prescribed to meet the INDIVIDUAL requirements and special needs of each individual case and compounded by an up-to-date pharmacist from pure, fresh drugs. It has proven successful in so many cases that have tried numerous so-called Catarrh cures with little or no benefit, AND WE BELIEVE IT WILL CURE YOU. It is cheaper for us to give a month's medicine free, knowing that thousands will take advantage of this generous offer, and thereby quickly spread to their friends and relatives the efficiency of our method, than it would be to wait patiently for years in the old way to have this grand treatment become famous; therefore seeming generosity is really economy.

and many other afflictions find their origin in the Catarrh poison lurking in the system and cannot be cured until this primary cause is removed.

READ CAREFULLY the Following Symptoms

EYE Do your eyes water, do they itch or burn; does matter accumulate in the corners of eyes during sleep; is vision impaired; are the eyelids inflamed or granulated? If so you need our treatment.

EAR Catarrh extends from the throat along the Eustachian Tubes into the ears, frequently causing partial or complete deafness. Is your hearing falling, do your ears discharge; do you hear better some days than others; do you have roaring or cracking or other noises in your head? If you have any or all of these symptoms you need prompt treatment.

NOSE AND THROAT This form of Catarrh is most common, resulting from neglected colds. Is your nose tender or stopped up; does your nose discharge; is there pain in front of the head; do you hawk to clear the throat; is your throat dry in the morning; do you sleep with your mouth open? Now is the time to be cured—do not delay, thus allowing the trouble to become complicated and deep seated.

BRONCHIAL TUBES When Catarrh of the head or throat is neglected or improperly treated it frequently extends down the windpipe into the bronchial tubes and in a short time may attack the lungs. Have you a cough; do you take cold easily; have you pain in the side; do you raise frothy matter or spit up little cheesy lumps; are you growing weaker? It is dangerous to neglect these warnings. Stop the disease before it becomes too late.

STOMACH Catarrh of the stomach is due to swallowing mucus which drops from the head and throat during sleep. Do you suffer from nausea, or belch up gas? Is your tongue coated; do you bloat after eating; is there a constant bad taste in the mouth; have you a foul disagreeable breath; do you vomit or spit up your food? If you neglect these symptoms you will regret it.

LIVER DISEASE The liver is frequently affected by Catarrhal poisons carried from the stomach through the ducts into the liver. Do you get dizzy; see specks before the eyes; have you cold feet; feel generally miserable, get tired easy; have hot flashes; easily discouraged; rumbling in the bowels; constipated, sallow skin? If you have any of these symptoms prompt treatment is necessary.

KIDNEY DISEASES may result by taking cold, or by overworking the kidneys in separating the Catarrhal poison which may affect any organ. Do your hands and feet swell; do you notice it more at night; is there a pain in the small of the back; has the perspiration a bad odor; is there puffiness under the eyes; do you have to get up during the night; do you notice sediment, mucus or a "brick dust" deposit? Watch out for Bright's Disease and Diabetes.

NERVOUS DISEASES The majority of nervous diseases are caused by poisons in the system. Is your mind dull; are you easily excited; does your heart flutter; do your muscles twitch; are you irritable; suffer from sleeplessness; get up as tired as when you went to bed; suffer from Neuralgia; have bad dreams; have you gloomy forebodings and always a feeling that something is going to happen? To delay treatment is dangerous.

Remember, send only your name and address, no money, and without delay, you will receive one month's medicine free for your particular case, also a large illustrated book, which contains much valuable information. It explains how to get well and how to keep well, and should be in every home. Address he would withdraw the same and that he continue to serve in the senate, in which he is the undisputed and most conspicuous leader.

"This telegram was signed by Senators Bacon, Foster, Overman, Tallafarro, Paynter, Bankhead, Percy, Johnson, Taylor, Watson and Fletcher."

The comic supplement never contained anything more affecting than that. Bailey Boy had announced with the dignity of ten years that he wouldn't play. He was real mad because he wanted to be general all the time and some of his comrades refused to march behind. Hence the dread menace of a national calamity.

But let us be just to the senators who signed the telegram, for there were others who overflowed with the sentimentality of the playroom. Behold Bailey Boy on one side all flushed and rubbing his eyes with his fists. Behold a whispering group looking on in awe. "Sunny Jim" is there, a smiling soul to whom clouds and tears are abhorrent. The side partner of Hinky Dink, a grateful child if there ever was one, stands next, oppressed with sorrow and longing. The Bacon of the telegram may be discerned in the roll of peace-maker in chief. And even the somewhat starchy Lodge and Root are discovered all limp because of an unaccustomed flood of emotion. The great game of how not to do it will be spoiled if Bailey Boy is set against playing any more. What better scene could be devised to prove that "Men are but children of a larger growth."

Now that the tragedy is averted, we suggest that Bailey Boy be turned over to Mr. Twee Deedle. Let him mount his hobby and ride: Higgelty, piggelty, Poggelty, poe; See how fast the Horse can go.

Denver Times. The spasm of sulking into which Senator Bailey of Texas was thrown and the flaming up of that unquenchable fighting spirit of "Uncle Joe" Cannon made the ending of the Sixty-first congress memorable. Senator Bailey is forty-eight, pampered, proud of himself and his achievements. Time has run his lean fingers through the tousled hair of Speaker Cannon. But if a conflict impended and a man were constrained to choose either of these to assist him, there is no doubt that he would select the one noted for firmness and courage. Many unlovable traits are attributed to "Uncle Joe," but, though his shortcomings be ever so great, it cannot be said that while the battle raged he cast down his shield. Sometimes the good will of the people has been quarantined against his name; but on no occasion has he been displayed as an object for general ridicule. Can so much as this be truthfully written of Senator Bailey? The Texas fire consumer and smoke emitter may be (without fear of slandering him) compared with the fly that stole a ride on the brake beam of an express train and praised itself for kicking up the clouds of dust that rose behind the flying cars. Much flattery convinced Senator Bailey that he was the Atlas who upheld the power and the glory of the United States senate. But he had overrated himself. He could restrain neither his democratic colleagues nor his own fiery temper. The vainglory that had sustained him on other occasions collapsed. He became peevish and disgruntled. And we submit these facts in support of the assertion that Senator Bailey is "a quitter" and "Uncle Joe" Cannon "a stayer."

can—It is no ordinary man who represents the state of Texas in the senate of the United States.

It will avail nothing to those who criticize Joseph W. Bailey, as the New York American finds it necessary to do, to deny to him the possession of great gifts and brilliant attainments. He is perhaps the most gifted man in the great assembly in which he moves.

But the brilliant gifts and attainments of the Texas senator have not availed to save him from a personal stigma which, falling upon his radiant morning, will doubtless follow him into the evening shadows of his political career.

Senator Bailey, since the Waters-Pierce case in Texas, has in public opinion come to be as definitely and clearly classed with the senators of "privilege" and the "interest" as Aldrich or Lodge or Carter or Crane.

If there remained any doubt of the justice of this alignment the im-

A TRIAL PACKAGE FREE

Many a sufferer from Dyspepsia, indigestion and kindred ailments of the digestive organs carries around an absolutely useless stomach—a dead load, and a cesspool for ever-increasing disorders. The muscles are seemingly worn out, the mucous lining has lost its secretive power, and food taken into the stomach lies there and ferments, causing sour eructations, belchings, heartburn, dizziness and other distressing conditions. Many sufferers have given up in despair until they have been induced by some interested friend to try a box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are the dyspeptic's sure and only hope. They are a natural restorative of healthy action to the stomach and small intestines, because they supply just the elements that the weak stomach lacks—pepsin, golden seal and other digestives.

If you are afflicted with any of the symptoms above described, be assured that your digestive organs are losing power;—they need help and there is no more sensible help to be given them than to supply elements which will do the work of digestion for them.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets have been found by the test of reputable physicians in the United States and Great Britain to have remarkable digestive powers, one grain of the active principle of these tablets being sufficient to digest 3,000 grains of ordinary food. It is plain that no matter what the condition of your stomach, or how far your disease has progressed, one only of Stuart's Tablets taken at meal time will do the work—give your stomach an opportunity to regain its lost powers, the muscles will be strengthened, the glands invigorated, and you will be a new man.

It costs nothing to prove the effectiveness of this cure. Send for a free sample package today. F. A. Stuart Co., 255 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.
