NO MORE WHISKY ADVERTISING

The TWICE-A-WEEK REPUBLIC of St. Louis, Mo., makes the announcement that no more whisky advertising will be printed in its paper. This will be good news to most of our readers. The TWICE-A-WEEK REPUBLIC is the oldest, biggest and best metropolitan semi-weekly newspaper in the United States, and by cutting out this line of advertising it should greatly increase its circulation in this community. The subscription price is 50 cents a year, but for a short time only they will make a special rate of three years for $1. Be sure to take advantage of this liberal offer, and by all means advise your friends and neighbors of the fact that all whisky and liquor advertising has been discontinued and that $1 will pay for a three-year subscription. Write for free sample copy. Send orders to The St. Louis Republic, St. Louis, Mo.

OPINIONS ON THE BAILEY RESIGNATION

passioned incident of Saturday will lay it to rest.

His resignation was handed in as a protest against progressive democracy, and, according to the reports of the Associated Press, the senators who were closeted with him when he finally agreed to withdraw that resignation were not the great leaders of his own party, but Senator Root, of New York, and Crane, of Massachusetts, and Lorimer, of Illinois.

Senator Bailey has now clearly and unmistakably separated himself from the majority of the party to which he claims allegiance in the senate. Even the eleven senators who signed the petition for his withdrawal of the resignation do not profess agreement with his reactionary views, while two-thirds of the democratic senators will rally under other leadership to the standard of the progressive democracy which Owen represented in his attitude toward the Arizona constitution.

As a democratic leader Bailey commands a coterie of not more than seven senators, while the great body of his party marches on in step with the new and better democracy of today.

New York World—Senator Bailey is too sensitive to be a statesman. He was intended by nature for the sheltered life, for some calm retreat where no jarring opinion should be heard. His delicately strung nerves suffer too acutely from contact with the rude world of politics.

Richmond Times-Dispatch.—We are ashamed of him that he suffered himself to be driven from the field by their nagging. He knows now, in view of the assurances he has received from "the ablest and most conspicuous democrats" who voted against him on the Arizona proposition that they meant no harm, in what sincere esteem his great abilities are held by those opinions are worth while, and it is hoped that he will go along and attend to the business for which he was selected by the state of Texas.

Dubuque, Ia., Telegraph-Herald—It is axiomatic, we think students of government will agree, that, in the words of the constitution of Massachusetts, written 131 years ago, "all power residing originally in the people, and being derived from them, the several magistrates and officers of government, vested with authority, whether legislative, executive and agents, and are at all times accountable to them." If we accept this principle of the accountability of public servants to the people—and we cannot reject it without rejecting democracy—then must we grant as reposing in the people the right to discharge, which is to say recall, the servant with whom a majority of the electorate are dissatisfied, and to exercise corrective power over the acts of these servants, whether they be acts of omission, corrected by the initiative, or acts of commission, corrected by the referendum.

The choice is between government by delegate representatives of the people and government by the people. If we shall concede greater virtue, larger constructive ability and higher wisdom in the representative of the people than in the people themselves—"the composite citizen," to use Senator Bourne's

Fortunes in the Rich Rio Grande Valley

An Opportunity for Wealth and Independence for All Who Buy a Tract of Irrigated Land in the Famous Mission, Texas, Project.

If you EVER intend to buy land, to make a change in your condition for the better, to make an investment that is sure to bring big returns, let us advise you by all means to investigate the possibilities of the Famous Mission Irrigated Lands, in the Gulf Coast Country of Texas. But do it THIS YEAR.

Hundreds of people are flocking to this valley, establishing small and large farms, going into business, or buying income bearing farms for winter homes.

There is a chance for YOU to become a member of this thriving Mission colony, if you act NOW. But the opportunities to buy in this Mission project are getting less every day. In a very short time all of these valuable lands will be taken up, and then you cannot buy except at prices beyond your reach.

The Mission Lands, like all other irrigated projects, are selling rapidly. Irrigation farming is the ideal farming. At Mission you will find intensive farming at its best. These rich lands are cut up into 10, 20, 40 and 80 acre tracts, dotted with the homes of happy, prosperous people. In the irrigated districts you will find smaller farms, more homes and nearer neighbors, closer markets and more progressive people than you will find in any section of the country.

The cost of a round trip to this wonderful valley is less than $30 from almost any important point in the country, but an investigation of this opportunity NOW may mean the difference in between fortune and failure to you. Why not join one of our excursions to these lands?

Herbert Jacobson, Mission, Tex.

Secret of the Big Successes at Mission, Texas

It isn't any wonder that the farmers and growers on the La Lomita Irrigated Lands at Mission, Texas, are making money. You couldn't imagine a more favorable combination of success-making conditions than you will find at Mission.

There isn't a month in the year when you can't market something from a Mission farm. There are 12 months of growing season and two, three and four crops are grown on the same ground in one year. In the winter you can grow vegetables and ship them to market when the demand is greatest and the prices highest, and weeks ahead of other sections of the United States. There's big money, too, in staple crops or fruit. The Mission Lands are in the heart of the Famous Rio Grande Valley of the Texas Gulf Coast Country. The soils are wonderfully fertile, and every foot of the La Lomita Lands is under irrigation, making big crops and large yields a practical certainty. The climate is delightful summer and winter. Transportation facilities unequalled. Splendid schools and churches. Opportunities for the large or small investor. Low excursion rates twice each month. Investigate NOW—these lands will be higher next year. Send at once for illustrated booklet, giving complete information, prices, terms, etc.
