

lieutenants, thirty-four policemen and five privates, saving $47,050. The doorkeeper will lose twenty-seven positions, saving $31,340.

At the night session, which continued to nearly midnight, a legislative program was adopted and officers elected as follows:

Clerk—South Trimble, of Frankfort, Ky., who was a member of the Fifty-seventh congress.

Sergeant-at-arms—U. S. Jackson, of Indiana, who defeated William H. Ryan, of New York, by a vote of 114 to 97.

Doorkeeper—Joseph J. Sinnott, of Virginia.

Postmaster—William M. Dunbar, of Augusta, Ga. was elected on the third ballot, defeating R. G. Bremmer of New Jersey, 104 to 94. Two other candidates were dropped.

A legislative program was submitted by Chairman Underwood of the ways and means committee, and adopted by the caucus. It is designed to limit the activities of the extra session to such questions as popular election of senators, Canadian reciprocity, tariff revision, investigation of governmental departments, congressional reapportionment, statehood of Arizona and New Mexico, general deficiency appropriation, District of Columbia legislation and publicity of campaign contributions.

The important changes in the rules under which the new congress will operate are:

The selection of committees by the house.

A provision to prevent filibustering under the rule giving authority to discharge committees from consideration of bills.

A provision permitting amendments to appropriation bills whenever those amendments will result in retrenchment of national expenditures.

Authority for bills to come up twice for passage under the unanimous consent privilege.

The rule to prevent filibustering on a motion to discharge a committee from custody of a bill as the result of the filibuster conducted in the last session by Representative Mann of Illinois. He had the post-office reorganization bill placed on the calendar under this rule and demanded that it be read completely, an operation that consumed several days.

The new rule provides that a bill shall be read only by its title and that its title shall not be more than 100 words long. It prohibits any member from having before the house at any one time more than two motions to discharge committees from the custody of bills. Under this rule the democrats believe it can be made to work as originally intended, to prevent the burying of bills in committee.

The new rule affecting appropriation bills is a renewal of the so-called "Holman rule," first used by the democrats in 1875. It permits amendment to appropriation bills of wide character when these amendments will effect a reduction of federal expenditures.

The Rev. Henry N. Couden, of Port Huron, Mich., who for many years has been chaplain of the house, was unanimously re-elected.

A New, Complete Edition of

Mr. Bryan's Speeches

Containing All of His Important Public Utterances

In two handy volumes. You can follow Mr. Bryan practically through his entire career, from his valedictory oration at Illinois College in 1881, through his early public life, his presidential campaigns, his world tours, his platform experiences, and his participation in meetings of organizations devoted to national progress, as well as international congresses for the promotion of the world's peace.

The subject matter of these speeches covers a wide range of topics, from the fundamental and vital problems of national and world life to the highest ideals of human endeavor. A handy means of reference to the student of social problems of the present and future.

ONLY AUTHORIZED, COMPLETE COLLECTION

While Mr. Bryan's speeches, lectures and public addresses have appeared from time to time in different editions of his works, or have been issued in separate form, these two volumes contain the only authentic, complete and authoritative collection of all of his speeches ever issued. This is the first publication in book form of a complete collection of Mr. Bryan's speeches from his first entry in public life up to the present time.

Two Handy Volumes

This complete collection comprises two handsome 12 mo. volumes containing 750 pages. Frontispieces showing Mr. Bryan at various stages of his career, with biographical introduction by his wife, Mary Baird Bryan. Printed on good paper in large, clear type and handsomely bound. The two-volume set sent prepaid to any address on receipt of the following prices: Bound in blue cloth, gilt tops, $2.25; bound in half leather, gilt tops, $3.25.
