GALVANIZED COATING of the Peerless gate, to the light, flimsy frame, small wire filling and paint covering of the ordinary gate. Besides this, the

The Columbus (Ohio) Evening Dispatch refers to a well beloved and faithful old man in this way: Marion Inskeep, aged 72 years, died Friday morning about 6:30 o'clock, at his home, 2494 North High street, of a complication of diseases. He had been ill for about a year. He is survived by a wife and one daughter, Miss Doda Inskeep, who lives at home. For many years, Mr. Inskeep ran a mill on North High street, which was one of the old landmarks of Columbus. For the past seven years, however, he had been doing work for the Zinn Lumber company, running a small carpenter shop on the rear of his lot. He was a millwright by trade.

"Lead, S. D., Oct. 21, 1911.—To His Excellency, W. H. Taft, president of the United States. Sir: The labor unions of the Black Hills respectfully submit for your consideration the Homestake Mining company's card system.

"The Homestake Mining company requires of all applicants as a condition for obtaining employment, the signing of the following card:

"OFFICE HOMESTAKE MINING COMPANY.

"Lead, S. D. 191.

"I am not a member of any labor union, and in consideration of my being employed by the Homestake Mining company, agree that I will not become such while in its service.

"Occupation.

"Signed.

"We consider the card and its provisions as being in direct conflict with the spirit and letter of the constitution, and the fundamental law of our country, and to submit to its demands would be an irreparable injustice to posterity.

"The right of citizenship to belong to any lawful society or organization is inherent and indisputable, and as citizens proud of the rights and liberties that have ever been our nation's bulwark boast, we view with alarm any attempt to deprive us of those rights.

"Is such a condition or requirement for the procuring of employment American? Are we, as liberty-loving people, right in opposing such an encroachment of liberty and freedom?

"Any effort on your part to have withdrawn so obnoxious a system would be fully appreciated by the liberty loving people of this land, and particularly by the citizens of the Black Hills. Committee—Lead City Miners' Union, W. F. of M., Black Hills Trades Assembly, A. F. of L., and Affiliated Unions."
