in the Campaign of 1912

by doing your part to keep the democratic party progressive. Be prepared to fight those interests that seek to divert the democratic party from its true course.

Be prepared to answer the arguments of those who are seeking the destruction of the democratic party by the adoption of a reactionary policy.

Know the true democratic position. Keep yourself posted on political problems by getting a good containing all the arguments, principles, reasoning, facts and figures bearing on the pressing questions of the day. The Commoner Condensed will supply this need, and give you all necessary information, historical data, etc., and define the true democratic position on all public questions.

Library Covering Wide Range of Live Topics,

The Commoner Condensed is indispensable to students of politics and public speakers. It contains invaluable information for those engaged in the preparation of political articles, speeches and debates.

The Commoner Condensed will give you a broad grasp and mastery of all public questions—presented in a way to give you a clear conception of the fundamental and inherent rights of the people.

The Commoner Condensed is a condensed copy of The Commoner issued in book form, each volume representing the volume number and year of The Commoner's publication. The editorials and articles discuss questions of a permanent nature.

The Commoner Condensed is sold by the single volume if desired. Each volume is complete in itself—a veritable compendium of political information from original and authoritative sources—containing not only the speeches and writings of Mr. Bryan, but the best things from America's public men presented, analyzed and discussed in a fair, impartial manner, with a view of ascertaining the truth regarding men, matters and events.

Our Special Low-Rate Offer

We have on hand only a limited supply of The Commoner Condensed. To advance the work of progressive democracy and to enable every worker to secure one or more of these books, The Commoner is making a special below cost price for a short time. One or more volumes will be sent prepaid to your address at the following special prices, as long as the supply lasts:

Commoner Condensed, Bound in Cloth, per Vol., 50cts
Commoner Condensed, Bound in Paper, per Vol., 30cts

Owing to the large previous sales of these books, volumes I and III in the cloth binding are exhausted and no more will be printed. This in no way affects the other volumes, as each book is complete in itself. We can supply volumes II, IV, V, VI, and VII in the cloth binding at 50 Cents per volume, prepaid, or the set of five volumes for $2.50.

In the paper binding, volume I is exhausted, but we can supply volumes II, III, IV and V, bound in paper, at 30 Cents per volume, prepaid, or the set of four volumes for $1.20.

The Commoner Condensed in both bindings is identical in all respects as to matter, paper and printing. Printed on special book paper, in large, clear type, each book containing from 421 to 470 pages. The size of each book is 6 by 8 1/2 inches by 1 1/4 to 1 1/2 inches thick. Complete reference index, which makes it a valuable handbook. Former price, in cloth, $1.50 per volume; in paper, $1.00.

Charles Henry Morgan, a former member of congress from Missouri, died at Joplin, aged sixty-nine.

An Associated Press dispatch from Fargo, N. D., says: With the big meeting of northwest democrats to be held in this city but two weeks away, D. H. McArthur, chairman of the state democratic central committee, stated he expected more than 1,000 visitors. The meeting will cover two days, January 17th and 18th. Among the speakers on the program are, Judson Harmon of Ohio, Martin J. Wade of Iowa, Thomas Walsh of Helena, Mont.; Frank Pettigrew of South Dakota and Governor Burke of North Dakota. Mr. McArthur says the meeting to be held is in no one's interest. Delegations will be present from Minnesota, Iowa, Illinois, Ohio, North and South Dakota, Montana, Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Nebraska.

Seven hundred imperial troops were reported to have been killed or wounded in a battle with Chinese revolutionists. Many Chinamen in America have left for home in order to help their comrades.

A number of Omaha democrats filed the name of William J. Bryan with the Nebraska secretary of state to be voted on for president at the April primaries. The secretary of state has made a ruling that no man's name can go on the ballot twice. Mr. Bryan is a candidate for delegate at large to the national convention and if this ruling held good and the petition to have his name voted on for president were not withdrawn Mr. Bryan will be prevented from being a candidate at large. Mr. A. A. Arter of Omaha, who filed the petition said he would withdraw it if Mr. Bryan desired. Charles W. Bryan protested against the filing of the petition. A Charleston, S. C., dispatch, carried by the Associated Press said: William Jennings Bryan, here en route to Washington, commented on the action taken at Lincoln, Neb., when his name was advanced for a position on the democratic presidential preference primary ballot. He said: "My brother did the proper thing in entering a protest. They have no business to put a man in as a candidate unless he wishes to be one." His only reply as to whether he would be a candidate, was "I have already expressed myself sufficiently."

Paris is suffering from a series of daring crimes, including murders.

In his will Judge Bartlett Tripp leaves an estate valued at $100,000 to Yankton college, subject to annuities to certain relatives until their death.

The Havemeyer refineries of the American Sugar Refining company in Williamsburg, N. J., have shut down and five thousand men have been thrown out of employment.

Capt. John Cussons is dead at his home, Glen Allen, in Henrico county, Virginia, where he had a house of 100 rooms. Captain Cussons was chief of scouts under Stonewall Jackson and General Lee.

The Ohio progressive republicans met at Columbus. They adopted a high tribute to Senator La Follette by a vote of 81 to 11, but a motion to indorse him as candidate for president was defeated by a vote of 52 to 32.

Claude V. Terrell of Trimble county was elected speaker of the Kentucky house of representatives.

A dispatch from Odessa says that efforts of the Zemstvo to organize a boycott of American goods are meeting with small success owing to the popularity of American machinery.

The national association for the study and prevention of tuberculosis spent $14,500,000 last year. New York state contributed $3,550,000 to the campaign.
