

"End Your Rheumatism

"Like I Did Mine" — Says Pastor Reed: Wife Also Rid of Neuritis

Suffered Tortures For Years—Now Telling Good News To Others

"Don't Believe That Old Humbug About 'Uric Acid' Being the Cause of Rheumatism—It's Not So!"

Emphatically asserting that thousands of unfortunate sufferers have been led into taking wrong treatments under the old and false belief that "Uric Acid" causes rheumatism, Pastor H. W. Reed says:

"As do some of our highest medical authorities, I now know that Uric Acid never did and never will cause rheumatism! But it took me many years to find out this truth. I learned how to get rid of my rheumatism and recover my health and strength, through reading 'The Inner Mysteries of Rheumatism,' a work written by an authority who has scientifically studied the cause and treatment of rheumatism for over twenty years. It was indeed a veritable revelation!

"I had suffered agony for years from rheumatism and associated disorders, and Mrs. Reed was tortured with the demon neuritis almost beyond endurance. We had read and talked so much about 'Uric Acid' that our minds seemed poisoned. But the 'Inner Mysteries of Rheumatism' made it all clear to us and now we are both free from the suffering and misery we endured so many years. I believe I was the hardest man in the world to convert! For me to discard the old 'Uric Acid' theory, and what I now know to be absolutely false, for the new, scientific understanding of the causes and cure of rheumatism, was like asking me to change my religious beliefs! But I did change, and it was a fortunate day for me and mine when I did so."

NOTE: "The Inner Mysteries of Rheumatism" referred to above by Pastor Reed lays bare facts about rheumatism and its associated disorders overlooked by doctors and scientists for centuries past. It is a work that should be in the hands of every man or woman who has the slightest symptoms of rheumatism, neuritis, lumbago or gout. Anyone who sends name and address to H. P. Clearwater, 1272-C Street, Hallowell, Maine, will receive it by mail, postage paid and absolutely free. Send now, lest you forget the address! If not a sufferer, cut out this explanation and hand it to some afflicted friend.

Cured His RUPTURE

I was badly ruptured while lifting a trunk several years ago. Doctors said my only hope of cure was an operation. Trusses did me no good. Finally I got hold of something that quickly and completely cured me. Years have passed and the rupture has never returned, although I am doing hard work as a carpenter. There was no operation, no lost time, no trouble. I have nothing to sell, but will give full information about how you may find a complete cure without operation, if you write to me, Eugene M. Pullen, Carpenter, 43-H Marcellus Avenue, Manassas, N. J. Better cut out this notice and show it to any others who are ruptured—you may save a life or at least stop the misery of rupture and the worry and danger of an operation.

MR. BRYAN AT UNION SEMINARY

By Rev. W. W. Moore, D. D., Union Theological Seminary, Richmond, Va., in The Presbyterian of the South, Nov. 23, '21.)

Most of the men who in former years have given the special lectures on the James Sprunt Foundation have of course been ministers, as the institution is a training school for the ministry. In two instances, however, the lecturers have been eminent laymen, viz., Sir William M. Ramsey, the famous archaeologist of Edinburgh, whose lectures, recently published, dealt with "The Bearing of Recent Discovery on the Trustworthiness of the New Testament" and Professor C. Alphonso Smith, head of the Department of English in the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis, whose lectures on "Keynote Studies in Keynote Books of the Bible" have proved to be one of the most popular of the nine volumes published on this foundation.

This year the Seminary has been fortunate in having as its lecturer the distinguished publicist who is recognized everywhere as the greatest of living orators. The faculty invited him some months ago to give a series of nine lectures, dealing with some of the fundamentals of our Christian faith, not at all in a technical or theological way, but in a way to appeal to the masses of our thoughtful people. They informed him that the lecturers were free to handle their subjects in their own way, it being fully understood that they were expressing their own views and not necessarily those of the institution in matters of detail, but that their hope was that, with his long experience as a student and teacher of the Bible, his unsurpassed power of effective popular statement, and his unique command of the world's attention, he might be able to present an argument for Christianity which would appeal strongly to those who in our time have been disturbed and confused by current scepticism and who are sometimes none too ready to listen to professional teachers of religion. He answered at once that he would accept the invitation with pleasure, and would endeavor to present an argument in support of the Christian religion that would appeal to the average man, adding, "I have had this in mind for several years, and your invitation gives me an opportunity to present it under auspices that will give the book the maximum of value." While at the Seminary he said repeatedly that he considered these lectures the most important work of his life.

The field is not a new one to Mr. Bryan. No other public man of presidential calibre in modern times has ever spoken and written more constantly on religious themes than he, not even Mr. Gladstone. At his home in Miami he teaches every Sunday in the park in front of the Presbyterian church a tourists' Bible class which numbers at times 3,000 to 4,000 people. He is perfectly at home in handling the subject of religion. A British writer and editor of a secular paper says of him, "His appeal is always to the moral conscience. The name of the Almighty is as familiar on his lips as it was on the lips of Gladstone. And it is the highest tribute to his sincerity that in employing it he never gives you the sense of canting. The truth is that he lives in an atmosphere out of which our politics have passed. No one today in the House of Commons ever touches the spiritual note. When we say that oratory is dead, we mean that faith, which is the soul of oratory, is dead. Oratory fell to earth when Gladstone and Bright ceased to wing it with spiritual passion, and to associate the thunders of Sinai with the ideals of politics."

It is not so in America. Not to mention others, Mr. Bryan is a man whose religion is the controlling fac-

Beautiful Hair is the Pride of women.

It is indeed the necessary feature of a beautiful lady. The soft, glossy and brilliant hair will very largely offset her other defects. With her glossy curls she becomes attractive and admired by all—men and women. Give careful attention to your hair and you will greatly improve your appearance. But if you would have a beautiful and luxuriant head of hair, you must give it the proper care. Nature will do a great deal, but you must assist it by keeping the hair clean and by giving the proper attention to the scalp from which the hair receives its nourishment. SOAP and soap preparations are injurious to the scalp. Soap is not a good cleanser for the hair, it leaves the scalp hard and dry and leaves the hair with insufficient nourishment.

Mme. Tiele's Nosoap Shampoo (for "The Proper Care of The Hair" for men, women and children) contains no dyes, no soap nor other ingredients injurious to the hair. It keeps The SCALP CLEAN by completely removing the Poisonous Fatty Deposits of Grease and Dirt which cause DANDRUFF and GRAY HAIR. These Deposits clog up the pores and hair follicles, prevent the natural flow of the Food-oil, poison the roots of the hair and CAUSE IT TO FALL OUT. Eventually a layer of grease and dirt (Dandruff) is formed which often becomes a breeding-place for GERMS and LICE. By completely removing these Deposits MME. TIELE'S NOSOAP SHAMPOO removes the CAUSE of the above evil effects. The Nosoap Shampoo keeps The SCALP HEALTHY also by leaving untouched the delicate Natural Oil which Nourishes the Hair and Keeps it Soft and Glossy. Pint and Quart Packages 50 and 75 cents.
